Music in the Apocalyptic Mode, 2023-04-03 In this volume the first panoramic study of music in the apocalyptic mode an international and trans disciplinary array of scholars and composers explore the resonance of the ancient biblical Revelation of John across the centuries in musical works as diverse as El Cant de la Sibil·la the Dies Irae cantatas and oratorios by Bach and Telemann Wagner's Der Ring des Nibelungen Schoenberg's Second String Quartet African American Spirituals Messiaen's Quatuor pour la fin du temps Christian ApokRock Hip hop Grimes's album Miss Anthropocene and the songs of Bob Marley and Bob Dylan This innovative volume will engage scholars students and all those interested in the intersection of music religion history and popular culture Death, Dying, and Mysticism T. Cattoi, C. Moreman, G. C. Harcourt, 2015-04-01

This volume offers a sample of reflections from scholars and practitioners on the theme of death and dying from scholars and practitioners ranging from the Christian tradition to Hinduism Lacanian psychoanalysis while also touching on the themes of the afterlife and near death experiences Finding God Among our Neighbors, Volume 2 Kristin Johnston Lergen, 2017-02-01

For too many students Christian theology is learned in isolation from other religions traditions With this the second volume of her important work Kristin Johnston Lergen returns to expand the systematic theology she began in the original volume Lergen places the work of Christian theology soundly within the interreligious dialogue that is the defining feature of our time In doing so she prepares students of theology for the task of understanding and articulating their Christian beliefs in the context of a religiously and culturally diverse world In the original volume Lergen focused her work on three loci God Creation and Humanity In this second volume she expands the project to include salvation the Church and the Holy Spirit As before each locus is set within the broader context of interreligious dialogue by considering how the varied beliefs of the world's religious traditions inform our understanding of our own tradition This volume explores indigenous religions Sikhism Confucianism and Daoism in particular The Sociology of Religion George

Lundskow, 2008-06-10 Most Sociology of Religion texts are decidedly staid and uninteresting covering contemporary developments which are only contemporary only from a disciplinary perspective They are not contemporary if viewed from the perspective of the religion's practitioners in religious and non religious settings The textbooks that attempt to be interesting to undergraduate students often fall short because they either try to cover too much in an encyclopedic format or sacrifice a sociological perspective for a personal one Many use real life examples only superficially to illustrate concepts Lundskow's approach is the opposite students will learn the facts of religion in its great diversity all the most interesting and compelling beliefs and practices and then learn relevant concepts that can be used to explain empirical observations The book thus follows the logic of actual research investigate and then analyze rather than approaching concepts with no real bearing on how religion is experienced in society This approach using provocative examples and with an eye toward the historical and theoretical not to mention global experience of religion will make this book a success in the classroom The author envisions a substantive approach that examines religion as it actually exists in all its forms including belief ritual daily living identity institutions social movements social control and social change Within these broad categories the book will devote particular chapters to important historical moments and movements leaders and various individual religions that have shaped the contemporary form and effect of religion in the world today There is a Crack in Everything—Education and Religion in a Secular Age K. H. (Ina) ter Avest, 2019-11-22 There are two constants in academic and theological discourse throughout history they are the debate around secularization and the dialogue concerning the intersection of religion and education Each age has had its debate about modernizing forces that drive concerns of impending secularization In this publication this theme is approached from perspectives of teachers of students of policy makers and situated in a politico historical context Aware of the fact that in today's plural societies one sacred canopy is non-existent anymore cracks of the sacred canopy canopies are described as well as the light that gets in the possible and challenging ways out are roughly sketched

Christian Prophecy Niels Christian Hvidt, 2007-04-19 Throughout the Hebrew Bible God guides and saves his people through the words of his prophets When the prophets are silenced the people easily lose their way What happened after the incarnation death and resurrection of Christ Did God fall silent The dominant position in Christian theology is that prophecy did indeed cease at some point in the past if not with the Old Testament prophets then with John the Baptist with Jesus with the last apostle or with the closure of the canon of the New Testament Nevertheless throughout the history of Christianity there have always been acclaimed saints and mystics most of them women who displayed prophetic traits In recent years the charismatic revival in both Protestant and Catholic circles has once again raised the question of the place and function of prophecy in Christianity Scholarly theological attitudes toward Christian prophecy range from modest recognition to contempt Mainstream systematic theology both Protestant and Catholic has mostly marginalized or ignored the gift of prophecy In this book however Niels Christian Hvidt argues that prophecy has persisted in Christianity as an inherent and continuous feature in the life of the church Prophecy never died he argues but rather proved its dynamism by mutating to meet new historical conditions He presents a comprehensive history of prophecy from ancient Israel to the present and closely examines the development of the theological discourse that surrounds it Throughout though there is always an awareness of the critical discernment required when evaluating the charism of prophecy The debate about prophecy Hvidt shows leads to some profound insights about the very nature of Christianity and the church For example some have argued that Christianity is a perfect state and that all that is required for salvation is acceptance of its doctrines Others have emphasized how God continues to intervene and guide his people onto the right path as the full implementation of God's salvation in Christ is still far away This is the position that Hvidt forcefully and persuasively defends and develops in this ambitious and important work

Manifesto of the Critical Theory of Society and Religion (3 Vols.) Rudolf Siebert, 2010-08-16 The Manifesto develops further the Critical Theory of Religion intrinsic to the Critical Theory of Society of the Frankfurt School into a new paradigm of the Psychology Sociology Philosophy and Theology of Religion Its central theme is the theodicy problem in the context of late capitalist society and its globalization

Cosmologies of Suffering Agita Lüse, 2009-01-14 The edited volume elaborates on a range of themes that emerged during a workshop of the 8th biennial of the European Association of Social Anthropologists in Vienna in 2004 Among these themes are the paradoxical permanence of transition in post communist countries the accompanying persistence of social suffering and the structural conditions that give rise to it A final theme focuses on the re sources that people mobilize to cope with suffering and trauma Ways of coping manifest a stance towards agency shared by sufferers from diverse post communist regions such as ethnically divided Croatia politically and economically unstable Zimbabwe relatively more peaceful countries such as Hungary Poland and Slovenia and finally two religiously unique areas in Siberia Russia Ethnographic accounts from these diverse settings testify that agency has often involved relinquishing reliance on one s self and turning towards a power higher than the self whether this is conceptualized through the lens of transcendence religion or cosmology

Beyond Modernity Artur Mrowczynski-Van Allen,Teresa Obolevitch,Pawel Rojek,2016-10-11 Post secularism is the fundamental evidence of the end of modernity Modernity as sleeping reason in Francisco Goya s painting realizes that although it thought that it was awake it was producing monsters We try to analyze post secular philosophy from the point of view of Russian religious thought We believe that such philosophers as Vladimir Soloviev Pavel Florensky Sergey Bulgakov Nikolai Berdyaev Georges Florovsky and Semen Frank may be helpful for understanding and overcoming post secular order Their unique views on the relations between religion and philosophy science and social life are apparently missing in the current Western debates It seems to us that Russian religious philosophy becomes surprisingly up to date and attractive in the contemporary world We hope that the present volume will be a significant step forward in the inclusion of the heritage of Russian religious philosophy in contemporary debates
