Religious Judgement A Developmental Perspective:

Religious Judgement Fritz Oser, Paul Gmünder, 1991 Religious Judgment Fritz Oser, 1991 A Guide to Educational Research Peter Gordon, 2014-01-14 This account of development in educational research is intended as a guide to possible research areas both fundamental and policy related for students in colleges and higher education institutions and should also be of interest to those engaged in curriculum planning and administration The ^ALife Story, Domains of Identity, and Personality Development in Emerging Adulthood Michael W. Pratt Ph.D., M. Kyle Matsuba Ph.D., 2018-05-30 The Life Story Domains of Identity and Personality Development in Emerging Adulthood focuses on individuals' formulations of the unique episodes of their lives that give us meaning and a sense of personal identity Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church. As a result, Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world, comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries. In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education, contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum, literacy, teacher training, outcomes, and professional standards. This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe, illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy, home schooling, Sunday schools, women's education, graded schools, compulsory education of the deaf and blind, and kindergarten. With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors, The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1,200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries. These volumes cover a vast range of topics from Christian education history, spanning from the church's founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day; denominational and institutional profiles; intellectual traditions in Christian education; biblical and theological frameworks; curricula; missions; adolescent and higher education; theological training; and Christian pedagogy. Biographies of distinguished Christian educators. This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education, as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education The Oxford Handbook of Reciprocal Adult Development and Learning Carol Hoare, 2011-09-06 One of the Best Books of 2011 from the Center for Optimal Adult Development. The fields of adult development and the study of learning have traditionally been considered separate, with development falling under psychology and learning under education. However, recent ideas, research, and practices that have emerged in these fields of study effectively emphasize the inherent reciprocal relationship that exists between them. Advances in development frequently lead to learning, and conversely, learning almost necessarily fuels development. In this second edition of The Oxford Handbook of Reciprocal Adult Learning and Development, the synchronicity between development and learning is explored.

further as expert authors advance the latest theories to provide a rich foundation for this new area of study and practice for this interrelated field of study At the border of two disciplines this handbook focuses on the capacities of intelligence meta cognition insight self efficacy spirituality interpersonal competence wisdom and other key adult attributes as they relate to positive changes and personal growth in adults Contexts for development and learning e g the work role and environment are also addressed and mixed in throughout the volume are emanating implications for research practice and policy What emerges is a thoughtful handbook for all who promote optimal aging and is a must read for academics psychologists and practitioners in adult development

Religion and Spirituality for Diverse Women Thema Bryant-Davis, Asuncion Miteria Austria, Debra M. Kawahara, Diane J. Willis Ph.D., 2014-09-30 This collection of essays considers the role of spirituality and religion in the lives of American women from various ethnic backgrounds showing how faith empowers those in populations often marginalized in the United States Religion and spirituality are sources of strength and resilience for many women particularly ethnically diverse women This thought provoking text examines this psychological trend exploring the specific ways in which women from diverse backgrounds have benefited from their faith traditions the various spiritual pathways they have chosen and the impact of those choices on their lives Essays in this informative compilation show how women from African American Latina American Indian Asian American and Caucasian backgrounds recover from difficulties and traumas with the help of their faith Contributors consider why women are more likely to endorse religious engagement than men why ethnically marginalized women tap into spirituality for comfort more than any other population and why many believers embrace religion as a coping mechanism throughout their lives from adolescence to older adulthood The work suggests ways for counselors leaders and religious figures to utilize this knowledge to bolster the well being of those they serve

The Handbook of Life-Span Development, Volume 2, 2010-12-14 In the past fifty years scholars of human development have been moving from studying change in humans within sharply defined periods to seeing many more of these phenomenon as more profitably studied over time and in relation to other processes The Handbook of Life Span Development Volume 2 Social and Emotional Development presents the study of human development conducted by the best scholars in the 21st century Social workers counselors and public health workers will receive coverage of the social and emotional aspects of human change across the lifespan

Human Behavior for Social Work Practice, Second Edition Wendy L. Haight, Edward H. Taylor, 2013-06-15 Contemporary social workers continue to face growing challenges of complex and diverse issues such as child maltreatment poverty unemployment oppression violence mental illness and end of life care across varied contexts Wendy L Haight and Edward H Taylor present their book Human Behavior for Social Work Practice Second Edition as a core text that will help students implement a consistent framework through which to approach multifaceted social issues in any environment whether it be in inner city schools or rural nursing homes with individuals of different ages ethnicities and socioeconomic status Human Behavior for Social Work Practice Second Edition uses the developmental ecological systems perspective as an analytic tool to show students how social scientific evidence helps us understand human development and enhances social work practice Students will learn that by effectively connecting theory to practice they can develop successful strategies to use as they encounter complex issues currently facing social workers The authors have reorganized and expanded this new edition to better illustrate developmental thinking in social work practice throughout the lifespan This book also now includes special topic chapters on human brain development and the increasing relevance of neuroscience to social work practice as well as important social justice issues specific to race and gender that occur throughout the lifespan Also new to this edition Haight and Taylor have developed instructor s materials that can be tailored to include the social work experience of the instructor It is comprehensive so that no additional resources are needed and it is dynamically structured so information can be added where relevant to the course material

Life-Span Development and Behavior David L. Featherman,Richard M. Lerner,Marion Perlmutter,2014-01-14 This volume continues the tradition of the Life Span Development Series presenting overviews of research programs on a variety of developmental topics Research and theory in life span development have given increased attention to the issues of constancy and change in human development and to the opportunities for and constraints on plasticity in structure and function across life. Acknowledging the need for and existence of interconnection between age and developmental periods it focuses on conditions for possibly discontinuous development that emerge at later periods. Contributors to this series are sensitive to the restrictive consequences of studying only specific age periods such as old age, infancy or adolescence. Each scholar attempts to relate the facts about one age group to similar facts about other age groups and to move toward the study of transformation of characteristics and processes over the life span. Islamic Religious Education in the Current Discourse Şenol

Yağdı, 2024-12-19 The volume presents the most current empirical research in the field of Islamic religious education. Its findings are an important contribution to the development of theory in Islamic religious education. The contributions address the challenges of Islamic religious education and professionalization research of Islamic religious education teachers and in a plural society. Theology and the New Histories Gary Macy, 2018-05-17 Theology and the New Histories explores how

Christianity as an historical religion is responding to the challenge of multiple readings of history: women's history, history written from the perspective of minority groups, new sources of history including those that are non-Western and deconstructionist history. These new histories pose challenges to the assumptions of traditional theology. They also affect our understanding of the history of Christianity and of the development of Christian doctrine. Contributors include Terrence W. Tilley, Justo L. González, Michael Horace Barnes, Vincent J. Miller, Elizabeth A. Clark, Barbara Green, O. P. Ann R. Riggs, Donna Teevan, James T. Fisher, Pamela Kirk, Ann Coble, Franklin H. Littell, Brian F. Linnane, and Margaret R. Pfeil. International Handbook of Practical Theology Birgit Weyel, Wilhelm Gräb, Emmanuel Lartey, Cas Wepener, 2022-09-06 Practical theology has outgrown its traditional pastoral paradigm. The articles in this handbook recognize that faith, spirituality and lived religion within and beyond institutional communities refer to realms of cultures, ritual practices and symbolic orders whose boundaries are not clearly defined and whose contents are shifting. The International Handbook of Practical Theology offers insightful transcultural conceptions of religion and religious matters gathered from various cultures and traditions of faith. The first section presents concepts of religion. Chapters have to do with considerations of the conceptualizing of religion in the fields of anthropology, community, family, institution, law, media and politics among others. The second section is dedicated to case studies of religious practices from the perspective of their actors. The third section presents major theoretical discourses that explore the globally significant diversity and multiplicity of religion. Altogether sixty-one authors from different parts of the world encourage a rethinking of religious practice in an expanded transcultural, globalized and postcolonial world. Counseling for Multiculturalism and Social Justice Manivong J. Ratts, Paul B. Pedersen, 2014-12-08 In this book Drs Ratts and Pedersen combine the very best from the multicultural and social justice traditions into a new paradigm which will guide counselors toward a deeper understanding of the connections between these two counseling forces Significantly updated and expanded from the previous edition this fourth edition focuses on applying multiculturalism and social justice in various clinical settings with diverse client populations A completely new applications section contains nine chapters on working with oppressed client groups including African Americans Asian and Pacific Islanders Latin s multiracial individuals Native Americans lesbian gay bisexual and questioning clients transgender individuals women and socioeconomically disadvantaged clients Clients experiencing religious and spiritual concerns are discussed as well Each of the chapters in this section provides an illustrative case study and numerous counseling examples Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com To purchase print copies please visit the ACA website Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org

Western and Eastern Perspectives on Religion and Religiosity Sarah Demmrich, Ulrich Riegel, 2020-12-23 The concept of religiosity is a highly individual aspect of religion The understanding of it was shaped in Protestant circles in the Western context and it has inspired a huge body of research and further developments in theology as well as in religious education However both charismatic movements within Christianity and orthopractic religious traditions such as Islam raise the question of whether an individualized account of religiosity is able to grasp the spectrum of lived religion comprehensively Furthermore with increasing globalization even Asian worldviews like Hinduism or Buddhism are part of daily experience and have expanded the notion of what can be perceived of as religion These changes were discussed at the international conference Religiosity in East and West Conceptual and Methodological Challenges at the University of M nster Germany from 25 to 27 June 2019 With this volume of conference proceedings we pay special attention to the most significant conference contributions relevant to religious education and practical theology
