Religious Plays That Click:

Religious Plays That Click Al Bryant, 1954-01-01 The plays in this compilation have been written by accomplished writers dedicated to the ministry of spreading the gospel through the printed page and conscious of the tremendous potential contained in the dramatic presentation of the gospel through such a vehicle as a religious play Designed for all age groups these plays carry a powerful emotional and spiritual impact though they are simple enough to be presented by the most amateur group They are designed with the amateur group in mind timed completely for production extremely simple to produce with economical and easy to find props and stage settings Introduction Religious Plays that Click! No. 2 Joan R. Jacobson, 1963 Between Clicks and Clerics Ihsan Yilmaz, 2025-07-19 This book explores the lived experiences of young Muslims in Australia the United Kingdom and the United States as they seek religious guidance in an increasingly digital world Based on extensive qualitative research including interviews with 122 young Muslims it examines how faith identity and knowledge come together in modern society In doing so the book looks at the role of imams in diaspora communities the trust or skepticism placed in online religious sources and the influence of family friends and digital religious figures Between Clicks and Clerics captures the shifts in religious learning as young Muslims turn to both traditional and digital sources Through firsthand narratives this book highlights the voices of young Muslims as they work through questions of authenticity authority and independence in their spiritual journeys It shows how they balance tradition with modern life skepticism with belief and personal choice with community expectations As religious authority spreads beyond traditional figures this book examines how Islamic knowledge is changing in the Anglosphere and what it means for the future Catalog of Copyright Entries.
