Parents' Rights Concerning Religious Observances in Public Schools

Constance Thulisile Destiny Malatji, 2019 Religion plays a significant role among people Human beings have always turned to religion for answers to critical questions about life such as reasons for existence Religious beliefs also inform people's conceptions about morality and justice However religion is also a very controversial topic It has both the potential to divide or unite nations Hence the global view of religious freedom as a fundamental human right Among contestations involving religious freedom is the issue of parents' primary right to determine religious observances for their children at public schools A right which is protected internationally by among others Article 5 of the 1981 Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and Discrimination Based on Religion and Belief Article 26 1 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948 and Article 18 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights ICCPR 1966 These covenants emphasise the inalienable right of parents to have their children educated in accordance with their own religious convictions or beliefs In South Africa this a priori right of parents is protected by the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 1996 Gov za 2017 and the South African Schools Act 84 of 1996 SASA respectively Section 15 2 of the Constitution provides for religious observances to be conducted at public schools provided that such observances follow rules made by the appropriate public authorities are conducted on an equitable basis and attendance at them is free and voluntary The South African Schools Act 84 of 1996 SASA entrusts the authority to determine such rules to parents through the School Governing Body SGB However the National Policy on Religion and Education 2003 has generated much confusion around the issue of religious observances because it imposes a multi faith approach to religious observances in public schools It was therefore rejected by many who viewed it as a usurpation of parents' rights and an imposition of secularism on schools while embraced by others who perceived it as a welcome relief from what they perceived to be learner indoctrination in public schools The apparent confusion generated by the policy resulted in SGBs adopting a laissez faire attitude towards religious observances policy design at public schools For example some SGBs banished all forms of religious observances from their schools while others continued with the pre democracy status quo of single faith religious observances Against this backdrop the object of this study was to determine the constructions of SGB members particularly parents on how they realise their constitutionally mandated function of determining religious observances policy at public schools given such a confusion riddled environment

Freedom of Religion at Stake Dion A. Forster, Elisabeth Gerle, Göran Gunner, 2019-11-01 How can freedom of religion protect the dignity of every human being and safeguard the well being of creation This question arises when considering the competing claims among faith traditions states and persons Freedom of religion or belief is a basic human right and yet it is sometimes used to undermine other human rights This volume seeks to unpack and wrestle with some of these challenges In order to do so scholars were invited from different contexts in Africa and Europe to write about freedom of religion from various angles How should faith traditions in a minority position be protected against majority claims and what is the responsibility of the religious communities in this task When does the state risk overstepping its boundaries in the delicate balance between freedom of religion and other human rights How can new voices who claim their human rights in relation to gender roles reproductive rights and as sexual minorities be heard within their faith traditions These are some of the questions that are raised by the authors This is a book for all who are engaged in faith communities leaders as well as people trying to be recognized It is also important reading for all interested in international legal frameworks for freedom of religion state advisers and human right defenders
