intersectional lens of gender and sexuality especially in relation to race and Indigeneity Organized through several interrelated key concepts The Routledge Companion to Gender and the American West addresses gender and sexuality from and across diverse and divergent methodologies Comprising 34 chapters by a team of international contributors the Companion is divided into four parts Genealogies Bodies Movements Lands The volume features leading and newer scholars whose essays connect interdisciplinary fields including Indigenous Studies Latinx and Asian American Studies Western American Studies and Queer Feminist and Gender Studies Through innovative methodologies and reclaimed archives of knowledge contributors model fresh frameworks for thinking about relations of power and place gender and genre settler colonization and decolonial resistance Even as they reckon with the ongoing gendered and racialized violence at the core of the American West contributors forge new lexicons for imagining alternative Western futures This pathbreaking collection will be invaluable to scholars and students studying the origins myths histories and legacies of the American West This is a foundational collection that will become invaluable to scholars and students across a range of disciplines including Gender and Sexuality Studies Literary Studies Indigenous Studies and Latinx Studies Temporal Explorations in the Anthropology of Religion Diana Espírito Santo, Ruy Blanes, 2025-03-27 How do people make sense of their past and look forward into their future through practices religious spiritual or otherwise in places of both modernity and political trauma This volume investigates how political social and individual temporal and historical horizons are generated and reformulated in relation to embodied material and ideological contexts It also considers how this history making projects itself onto imagined futures or alternative historical lines creating temporal continuities and discontinuities. This book presents an innovative perspective on the relationship between past and the future namely one that shifts the perspective from pure history or pure anthropology to the anthropology of history Religious and spiritual engagements are fundamental to this exercise especially ones that have emerged in times of crisis because they provide conceptual platforms from which the past and the present connect directly to the future and its imagined horizons Utilising chapters and case studies drawn from Europe Latin America Africa and Asia this book shows that the experience of time including temporal plasticity emerges from social formations that are cosmological at heart These include prophetic and messianic thinking conversion experiences and narratives spirit possession religions and the mythical and symbolic dimensions of materialities and memory This research demonstrates that ideas of cyclicity repetition and other temporal forms are fundamental as acts of ordering human experience as well as in other more modern forms of cosmology teleological theories of advancement and development and even post apocalyptic economic and social realities Recommendations of the Commission on Wartime Internment and Relocation of Citizens United States. Subcommittee on Civil Service, Post Office, and General Services, 1986 US Army Chemical School and US Army Military Police School Relocation to Fort Leonard Wood (FLW) from Fort McClellan ,1997 Relocating Authority Mira Shimabukuro, 2016-01-15 Relocating

Authority examines the ways Japanese Americans have continually used writing to respond to the circumstances of their community s mass imprisonment during World War II Using both Nikkei cultural frameworks and community specific history for methodological inspiration and guidance Mira Shimabukuro shows how writing was used privately and publicly to individually survive and collectively resist the conditions of incarceration Examining a wide range of diverse texts and literacy practices such as diary entries note taking manifestos and multiple drafts of single documents Relocating Authority draws upon community archives visual histories and Asian American history and theory to reveal the ways writing has served as a critical tool for incarcerees and their descendants Incarcerees not only used writing to redress the internment in the moment but also created pieces of text that enabled and inspired further redress long after the camps had closed Relocating Authority highlights literacy s enduring potential to participate in social change and assist an imprisoned people in relocating authority away from their captors and back to their community and themselves It will be of great interest to students and scholars of ethnic and Asian American rhetorics American studies and anyone interested in the relationship between literacy Testimony in the Spirit Mark J. Cartledge, 2016-04-01 This book explores the ordinary beliefs and and social justice practices of Pentecostal and Charismatic Christians in relation to the Holy Spirit It does this by means of a congregational study of a classical Pentecostal church in the UK using participant observation focus groups and documentary and media analysis This approach develops a framework in which the narratives of informants can be interpreted Focusing on specific areas of interest such as worship conversion healing and witness each contribution from respondents is situated within the context of the congregation and interpreted by means of the broader Christian tradition This book makes a unique contribution to scholarship by offering a rich and varied picture of contemporary Christians in the Pentecostal and Charismatic traditions enabling a greater understanding to be appreciated for both academic and ecclesial audiences
