Reluctant Partners Ngos The State And Sustainable Agricultural Development:

Reluctant Partners? John Farrington, Anthony Bebbington, David J. Lewis, Kate Wellard, 1993 Combines comprehensive empirical insights into NGOs work in agriculture with wider considerations of their relations with the State and their contribution to democratic pluralism in Africa Asia and Latin America Reluctant Partners? Non-Governmental Organizations, the State and Sustainable Agricultural Development Anthony Bebbington, John Farrington, David J. Lewis, Kate Wellard, 2005-07-15 Reluctant Partners combines comprehensive empirical insights into NGOs work in agriculture with wider considerations of their relations with the State and their contribution to democratic pluralism This overview volume for the Non Governmental Organizations series contextualizes and synthesizes the case study material in the three regional volumes on Africa Asia and Latin America where over sixty specially commissioned case studies of farmer participatory approaches to agricultural innovation are presented Specific questions are raised How good bad are NGOs at promoting technological innovation and addressing constraints to change in peasant culture How effective are NGOs at strengthening local organizations How do will donor pressures influence NGOs and their links to the State Reluctant Partners? Non-Governmental Organizations, the State and Sustainable Agricultural Development Anthony Bebbington, John Farrington, David J. Lewis, Kate Wellard, 2005-07-15 Combines comprehensive empirical insights into NGOs work in agriculture with wider considerations of their relations with the State and their contribution to democratic pluralism in Africa Asia and Latin America The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia Gerard Clarke, 2006-05-17 The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia traces the history of the emergence of NGOs in the Philippines and southeast Asia and the political factors which encouraged this The main focus is on the period from the mid 1990s when NGOs first became a notable force in the region It documents the complex relations between NGOs and other political actors including the state organised religion foreign donors the business sector and underground insurgent groups and their impact on NGO strategy International NGO Engagement, Advocacy, Activism Helen Yanacopulos, 2015-10-20 The world of international non governmental organisations INGOs has dramatically changed during the last two decades The author critically analyses the engagement of INGOs within the contemporary international development landscape enabling readers to further understand INGOs involvement in the politics of social change The Moral Demands of Affluence Garrett Cullity, 2006-09-21 Given that there is a forceful case for thinking that the affluent are morally required to devote a substantial proportion of what they have to helping the poor Garrett Cullity examines refines and defends an argument of this form He then identifies its limits

Non-Governmental Organisations - Performance and Accountability Michael Edwards, David Hulme, 2014-03-18 The last decade has seen some significant changes in international development and in the status of non governmental organisations operating in the field Not only has the number of NGOs virtually doubled many of them have seen a considerable growth in their budgets and have grown closer to governments and official aid agencies NGOs are acknowledged by many to be more effective agents of development than governments or commercial interests even as a magic bullet for development problems Despite these positive trends the real impact of the NGO sector is not well documented This is partly because NGO performance assessment and accountability methods are weak and partly because NGOs are caught up increasingly in the world of official aid which pushes them towards certain forms of evaluation at the expense of others This unique book takes a hard and critical look at these issues and describes how NGOs can and must improve the way they measure and account for their performance if they are to be truly effective

Microfinance Jude L. Fernando, 2004-08-02 Microfinance is defined as the financial services offered to the poor for the purpose of promoting small scale enterprises and as such it is one of the most important topics in development studies and a burgeoning area in economics This volume provides a much needed historical political and economic dimension to the current knowledge on microfinance Collectively the contributors chart the relationship between the prevailing popularity of microfinance and the consolidation of neoliberal economic ideology worldwide They demonstrate how microfinance as a market friendly approach to development coincides with the global trend towards diminishing the role of the state in economic development basic healthcare education and welfare The articles in the volume focus on the empirical analyses of the experience of microfinance in women s everyday lives but rejects the connection between microfinance and women s empowerment so often imputed in literature This book offers regional cultural and other explanations for variable assessments of microfinance and empowerment It fills a huge gap in published microfinance literature and will be of great interest to postgraduates and professionals in the fields of economics international finance and banking

Organizational Dimensions of Global Change David Cooperrider, Jane Dutton, 1999-04-29 This book is the first in a new series designed to facilitate an emergent dialogue around the issues of global change and cooperative potential Written by an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars it explores how organizational scholarship and thinking can lead to a greater understanding of global issues Topics discussed include global women leaders corporations as agents of global change international networking the development of global environmental regimes and collaborative knowledge creation

Towards Negotiated Co-management of Natural Resources in Africa L. B. Venema, 1999 Within the field of management of natural resources this book focuses on the various approaches of policy formulation and implementation The question central to this book is how to co operate with people the various categories of residents as well as non residents in the rural areas in a top down a participatory or a contractual co management way On the basis of a comparative analysis of 12 case studies in the book these three approaches are thoroughly discussed and their internal and external constraints examined The book starts with an editorial chapter discussing the recent administrative and political developments in Africa as well as the new opportunities which they offer for policies in the field of environment and development The question is brought up whether the recent processes of decentralization democratization and empowerment of local organizations have indeed created new opportunities or that they have only superficially changed the political culture of the countries concerned In the concluding chapter of the book the approaches are contrasted to each other as logical models each with its own potentiality and limitations Conclusions are formulated why the top down approach must result in improvization to escape from failure and why the participatory approach risks to end up into a mixed balance Special attention is given to the conditions and the prospects for the contractual or co management approach which has been introduced into Africa only recently Under certain conditions this approach seems rather promising Development Stuart Corbridge,2017-05-15 The volume brings together twenty five of the most influential articles published in the field of development geography since 1960 The first part looks at the origins of development geography and the debates between modernization theorists and radicals that took shape in the 1970s Thereafter the book is organized thematically Geographers have made key contributions to development studies in four major areas all of which are represented here and include gender and households development alternatives and identities resource conflicts and political ecology and globalization and resistance The book ends with three broad ranging essays by leading figures in the field The Doubly Green Revolution Gordon Conway,2019-01-24 Today more than three quarters of a billion people go hungry in a world where food is plentiful A distinguished scientist here sets out an agenda for addressing this situation Initially published in 1997 in the United Kingdom the book is now available in the first edition produced for the Western hemisphere In it the author has updated information to reflect current economic indicators This volume includes a foreword written for the previous edition by Ismail Serageldin of the World Bank The original Green Revolution produced new technologies for farmers creating food abundance A second transformation of agriculture is now required specifically Gordon Conway argues a doubly green revolution that stresses conservation as well as productivity He calls for researchers and farmers to forge genuine partnerships in an effort to design better plants and animals He also urges them to develop or rediscover alternatives to inorganic fertilizers and pesticides improve soil and water management and enhance earning opportunities for the poor especially women The Spirit of Development Erica Bornstein,2004-06-01 This work is an ethnographic account of the work of transnational Christian non governmental organizations NGOs in Zimbabwe Protestant NGOs are one of the voices of pluralism in southern Africa sometimes challenging the state and at other times collaborating with it The tensions of such engagement are key to understanding the successes and failures of transnational humanitarian endeavors to foster democratic governance in Zimbabwe While much scholarship has been focused theoretically on the role of NGOs in democratization in Africa regarding international foreign policy few studies offer empirically grounded insights into how transnational NGOs operate The Spirit of Development addresses ethnographically how an American discourse of Christian humanitarianism transforms and is transformed by local settings Organizing for Democracy G. Sidney Silliman,Lela Garner Noble,1998-05-01 The number variety and political prominence of non governmental organization in the Philippines present a unique opportunity to study citizen activism Nearly 60 000 in number by some estimates grassroots and support organizations promote the interests of farmers the urban poor women and indigenous peoples They provide an avenue for political participation and a mechanism unequaled elsewhere in Southeast Asia for redressing the inequities of society Organizing for Democracy brings together the most recent research on these organizations and their programs in the first book addressing the political significance of NGOs in the Philippines Policy Analysis in Thailand Ora-orn

Poocharoen,Piyapong Boossabong,2023-05-22 The subject of policy analysis in Thailand is less examined than in Western societies This is the first English language book to engage in a detailed comprehensive and current study of policy analysis in Thailand Providing a broad view of history styles and methods it examines policy analysis both within and beyond executive government revealing the role of parties the military and interest groups It will be a valuable resource for policy analysis researchers and practitioners and as a comparison with other volumes in the International Library of Policy Analysis series

International Perspectives on Voluntary Action David Lewis,2013-11-05 This text presents a perspective on the third sector Rather than considering non governmental development organizations and voluntary agencies separately it explores the similarities differences and growing connections between them in both northern and southern contexts Authors in the field consider the differences in scale and priority that exist between different types of third sector organizations in different settings as well as the common challenges of accountability legitimacy effectiveness and governance Models of learning and communication including southern ideas such as micro credit provision are also examined as are the continuing barriers

Peacebuilding and NGOs Ryerson Christie,2013 Analysing the relationship between civil society and the state this book lays bare the assumptions informing peacebuilding practices and demonstrates through empirical research how such practices have led to new dynamics of conflict The drive to establish a sustainable liberal peace largely escapes critical examination When such attention is paid to peacebuilding practices scholars tend to concentrate either on the military components of the mission or on the liberal economic reforms This means that the roles of Non Governmental Organizations NGOs and the impact of attempting to nurture Northern forms of civil society is often overlooked Focusing on the case of Cambodia this book seeks to examine the assumptions underlying peacebuilding policies in order to highlight the reliance on a particular linear reading of European North American history The author argues that such policies in fostering a particular form of civil society have affected patterns of conflict dictating when and where politics can occur and who is empowered to participate in such practices Drawing on interviews with NGO representatives and government representatives this volume will assert that while the expansion of civil society may resolve some sources of conflict its introduction has also created new dynamics of contestation This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution development studies S E Asian politics and IR in general Achieving Education for All through Public-Private Partnerships? Pauline Rose,2013-09-13 Concern for achieving Millennium Development Goals MDGs by 2015 has led to a focus on the role that non state providers NSPs can offer in extending access and improving quality of basic services While NSPs can help to fill a gap in provision to those excluded from state provision recent growth in both for profit and not for profit providers in developing countries has sometimes resulted in fragmentation of service delivery To address this attention is increasingly given in the education sector to developing partnerships between governments and NSPs Partnerships are further driven by the expectation that the state has the moral social and legal responsibility for overall education service delivery and so should play a role in facilitating and regulating NSPs Even where the ultimate aim of both non state providers and the state is to provide education of acceptable quality to all children this book provides evidence from diverse contexts across Africa South Asia and Latin America to highlight the challenges in them partnering to achieve this This book was published as a special issue of Development in Practice UK Environmental Policy in the 1990s Tim S. Gray,2016-07-27 The central controversy running through this book is whether Mrs Thatcher s famous green speeches of 1988 marked a fundamental shift by the Conservative Government towards environmentalism or whether they were merely political rhetoric designed to rule out a temporary surge of popular support for the Green Party The conclusion arrived at is mixed in some policy areas a definite shift has occurred but in others it is business as usual An overall change of gear is still awaited The Good Project Monika Krause,2014-06-19 NGOs set out to save lives relieve suffering and service basic human needs They are committed to serving people across national borders and without regard to race ethnicity gender or religion and they offer crucial help during earthquakes tsunamis wars and pandemics But with so many ailing areas in need of assistance how do these organizations decide where to go and who gets the aid In The Good Project Monika Krause dives into the intricacies of the decision making process at NGOs and uncovers a basic truth It may be the case that relief agencies try to help people but in practical terms the main focus of their work is to produce projects Agencies sell projects to key institutional donors and in the process the project and its beneficiaries become commodities In an effort to guarantee a successful project organizations are incentivized to help those who are easy to help while those who are hardest to help often receive no assistance at all The poorest of the world are made to compete against each other to become projects and in exchange they offer legitimacy to aid agencies and donor governments Sure to be controversial The Good Project offers a provocative new perspective on how NGOs succeed and fail on a local and global level
