Remarkable Woman A Biography Of Katharine Hepburn:

A Remarkable Woman Anne Edwards,1986 A biography of Katharine Hepburn Katharine Hepburn Anne Edwards,2000-04-08 The woman behind the legend emerges in this sympathetic yet clear eyed portrait of Hepburn s exceptional life and loves including Spencer Tracy and Howard Hughes An Epilogue updates the actress s story of photos

Remarkable Woman Anne Edwards,1987-07-02 There are women and There are Women and then there is Kate There are actresses and actresses then there is Hepburn A Remarkable Woman Edwards,1988-09-01 Kate William J. Mann,2006-10-03 The first major Katharine Hepburn biography independent of her control reveals the smart complicated and sophisticated woman behind the image Onscreen she played society girls Spencer Tracy s sidekick lionesses in winter But the best character Katharine Hepburn ever created was Katharine Hepburn a Connecticut Yankee outspoken and elegant she wore pants whatever the occasion and bristled at Hollywood glitter So captivating was her image that she never seemed less than authentic But how well did we know her really Was there a woman behind the image who was more human more driven and ultimately more triumphant because of her vulnerability William J Mann a cultural historian and journalist a sympathetic admirer but no mere fan has fashioned an intimate often revisionist and truly unique close up that challenges much of what we think we know about the Great Kate Previous biographies mostly products of friends and fans have recycled the stories she hid behind taking Hollywood myths at face value Mann goes deeper delivering new details from friends and family who have not been previously interviewed and drawing on materials only available since Hepburn s death With affection intelligence and a voluminous knowledge of Hollywood history Mann shows us how a woman originally considered too special and controversial for fame learned the fine arts of movie stardom and transformed herself into an icon as durable and all American as the Statue of Liberty The Legacy of Katharine Hepburn: Fine Art as a Way of Life Maryann Pasda DiEdwardo,2008 THE LEGACY OF KATHARINE HEPBURN Fine Art as a Way of Life Maryann Pasda DiEdwardo Memoir The legacy of the late Katharine Hepburn undeniably benefits a twenty first century audience because Kate identifies the artistic spirit As one of the most important women of the twentieth century Hepburn was an artist who exemplified the independent character freedom and opportunity available to women as paramount whether she was on stage or in film As the late Hepburn she has become a living art spirit with a legacy that acts as a shining example Katharine Hepburn Andrew Britton,2003 In what can be considered one of the very few analyses of American cinema to focus on a film star rather than a director or a genre Britton proposes a feminist reading of Hepburn s films arguing that her persona raises problems about class female sexuality and women s oppression that strain to the limits the conventions of a cinema ultimately committed to the reassertion of bourgeois gender roles Sidney Poitier Aram Goudsouzian,2011-01-20 In the first full biography of actor Sidney Poitier Aram Goudsouzian analyzes the life and career of a Hollywood legend from his childhood in the Bahamas to his 2002 Oscar for lifetime achievement Poitier is a gifted actor a great American success story

an intriguing personality and a political symbol his life and career illuminate America's racial history In such films as Lilies of the Field In the Heat of the Night and Guess Who's Coming to Dinner Poitier's middle class mannered virtuous screen persona contradicted prevailing film stereotypes of blacks as half wits comic servants or oversexed threats His screen image and public support of nonviolent integration assuaged the fears of a broad political center and by 1968 Poitier was voted America's favorite movie star Through careful readings of every Poitier film Goudsouzian shows that Poitier's characters often made sacrifices for the good of whites and rarely displayed sexuality As the only black leading man during the civil rights era Poitier chose roles and public positions that negotiated the struggle for dignity By 1970 times had changed and Poitier was the target of a backlash from film critics and black radicals as the new heroes of blaxploitation movies reversed the Poitier model In the 1970s Poitier shifted his considerable talents toward directing starring in and producing popular movies that employed many African Americans both on and off screen After a long hiatus he returned to starring roles in the late 1980s More recently the film industry has reappraised his career and Poitier has received numerous honors recognizing his multi faceted work for black equality in Hollywood As this biography affirms Poitier remains one of American popular culture's foremost symbols of the possibilities for and limits of racial equality Beyond the Epic Gene Phillips, 2006-11-24

Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908-1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic: The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and

Reconstructing American Historical Cinema J.E. Smyth,2006-10-27 In Reconstructing American Historical Cinema From Cimarron to Citizen Kane J E Smyth dramatically departs from the traditional understanding of the relationship between film and history By looking at production records scripts and contemporary reviews Smyth argues that certain classical Hollywood filmmakers were actively engaged in a self conscious and often critical filmic writing of national history Her volume is a major reassessment of American historiography and cinematic historians from the advent of sound to the beginning of wartime film production in 1942 Focusing on key films such as Cimarron 1931 The Public Enemy 1931 Scarface 1932 Ramona 1936 A Star Is Born 1937 Jezebel 1938 Young Mr Lincoln 1939 Gone with the Wind 1939 Stagecoach 1939 and Citizen Kane 1941 Smyth explores historical cinema s connections to popular and academic historiography historical fiction and journalism providing a rich context for the industry s commitment to American history Rather than emphasizing the divide between American historical cinema and historical writing Smyth explores the continuities between Hollywood films and history written during the first four decades of the twentieth century from Carl Becker s famous Everyman His Own Historian to Howard Hughes s Scarface to Margaret Mitchell and David O Selznick s Gone with the Wind Hollywood s popular and often controversial cycle of historical films from 1931 to 1942 confronted issues as diverse as frontier racism and women s experiences in the nineteenth century South the decline of American society following the First World War the rise of Al Capone and the tragic history of Hollywood s silent era Looking at rarely discussed archival material Smyth focuses on classical Hollywood filmmakers adaptation and scripting of traditional historical discourse and their critical revision of nineteenth and twentieth century American history Reconstructing American Historical Cinema uncovers Hollywood s diverse and conflicted attitudes toward American history This text is a fundamental challenge the prevailing scholarship in film history and cultural studies

Pictures at a Revolution Mark Harris,2008-02-14 The epic human drama behind the making of the five movies nominated for Best Picture in 1967 Guess Who s Coming to Dinner The Graduate In the Heat of the Night Doctor Doolittle and Bonnie and Clyde and through them the larger story of the cultural revolution that transformed Hollywood and America forever It s the mid 1960s and westerns war movies and blockbuster musicals Mary Poppins The Sound of Music dominate the box office The Hollywood studio system with its cartels of talent and its production code is hanging strong or so it would seem Meanwhile Warren Beatty wonders why his career isn t blooming after the success of his debut in Splendor in the Grass Mike Nichols wonders if he still has a career after breaking up with Elaine May and even though Sidney Poitier has just made history by becoming the first black Best Actor winner he s still feeling completely cut off from opportunities other than the same noble black man role And a young actor named Dustin Hoffman struggles to find any work at all By the Oscar ceremonies of the spring of 1968 when In the Heat of the Night wins the 1967 Academy Award for Best Picture a cultural revolution has hit Hollywood with the force of a tsunami The unprecedented violence and nihilism of fellow nominee Bonnie and Clyde has shocked old guard reviewers but helped catapult Warren Beatty and Faye Dunaway into counterculture stardom and made the movie one of the year s biggest box office successes Just as unprecedented has been the run of nominee The Graduate which launched first time director Mike Nichols into a long and brilliant career in filmmaking to say nothing of what it did for Dustin Hoffman Simon and Garfunkel and a generation of young people who knew that whatever their future was it wasn t in plastics Sidney Poitier has reprised the noble black man role brilliantly not once but twice in Guess Who s Coming to Dinner and In the Heat of the Night movies that showed in different ways both how far America had come on the subject of race in 1967 and how far it still had to go What City of Nets did for Hollywood in the 1940s and Easy Riders Raging Bulls for the 1970s Pictures at a Revolution does for Hollywood and the cultural revolution of the 1960s As we follow the progress of these five movies we see an entire industry change and struggle and collapse and grow we see careers made and ruined studios born and destroyed and the landscape of possibility altered beyond all recognition We see some outsized personalities staking the bets of their lives on a few films that became iconic works that defined the generation and other outsized personalities making equally large wagers that didn't pan out at all. The product of extraordinary and unprecedented access to the principals of all five films married to twenty years worth of insight covering the film industry and a bewitching storyteller's gift, Mark Harris's Pictures at a Revolution is a bravura accomplishment and a work that feels iconic itself. The 50 Most Romantic Things Ever Done Dini Von Mueffling, 2001. From Antony and Cleopatra to Hepburn and Tracy from the Taj Mahal to the Rainbow Room, The 50 Most Romantic Things Ever Done gathers the most extraordinary stories of what historical figures, celebrities, and ordinary people have done for love. Katharine Hepburn Once Said... Katharine Hepburn, Susan Crimp, 2003-09-30. A career spanning more than sixty years, a life spanning almost a century, Katharine Hepburn reached the height of success as an actress and also suffered through periods that would have ended other actresses' careers. But she persevered with a mix of humor and sarcasm, tenderness and brutal honesty. The world has not been the same since. Collected here are the words that made Katharine Hepburn, Kate, to millions of fans. It does not matter whether the words were originally hers or if they were written for her. Every word spoken in that all-too-familiar, staunch New England accent instantly became Kate's. Her early years of ambition, her later years of reflection, have all been captured in this collection. Her views on marriage, career, and life often came across as shocking. But the shock was not in the words she said but when she said them. Decades ahead of her time, Kate paved the way for the independent woman free to live as she wishes. Above all else, Kate was and always will be the unwavering voice of reason. Katharine Hepburn once said that there is a difference between being an actor and being a star; she wanted to be a star. The words collected here, said both onstage and offstage, are proof that there is also a difference between being a star and being a legend. Katharine Hepburn is a legend. The Quotable Actor Damon DiMarco, 2009-08-01. Collecting advice, quotes, essays, and observations from hundreds of famous actors and highly regarded acting teachers, The Quotable Actor covers a wide range of topics on the art and history of acting. Entertaining, instructive, and informative, it is organized into specific, easy-to-search categories such as On Why We Act, On Auditioning, On Struggling and Building a Career, and On Gender Differences and Aging in the Biz. From art and technique to business and lifestyle, entries include fascinating anecdotes and advice from some of the greatest actors in history: Marlon Brando commenting on the rehearsal process, Meryl Streep's advice on building a character, Al Pacino recalling what it was like to be a starving young artist, beauty tips from some of Hollywood's leading ladies, recollections of horrible auditions from A-list stars, musings from Jack Nicholson, Edwin Booth, and many others. Additional contributors include Constantin Stanislavski, Daniel Day-Lewis, Ellen Burstyn, Julie Andrews, Paul Newman, and Peter O'Toole, providing insights into the actor's craft that are equally useful to young actors just starting out and accomplished professionals looking for inspiration in the words of peers.
