the earliest seizure of Aboriginal children through their systematic state removal and incarceration and on to the harsh treatment of families under the assimilation policies of the 1950s and 1960s The resistance struggle and achievements of Aboriginal people in defending their communities regaining their rights and mending the broken circles of family life provides a compelling parallel story of determination and courage Christian Advocate ,1923 Remembrance and Forgiveness Ajlina Karamehić-Muratović,Laura Kromják,2020-10-26 An enquiry into the social science of remembrance and forgiveness in global episodes of genocide and mass violence during the post Holocaust era this volume explores the ways in which remembrance and forgiveness have changed over time and how they have been used in more recent cases of genocide and mass violence With case studies from Rwanda Ethiopia South Sudan South Africa Australia Cambodia Indonesia Timor Leste Israel Palestine Argentina Guatemala El Salvador the United States Bosnia and Herzegovina and Chechnya the volume avoids a purely legal perspective to open the interpretation of post genocidal societies communities and individuals to global and interdisciplinary perspectives that consider not only forgiveness and thus social harmony but remembrance and disharmony This volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in memory studies genocide remembrance and forgiveness Memory, History, Nation Susannah Radstone,2017-09-04 In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent This interdisciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory The chapters in this volume offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book Topics covered range from the Basque country to Cambodia from Hungary to South Africa from the Finnish Civil War to the cult Jim Jarmusch movie Dead Man from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame to Australia Part I Transforming Memory is concerned primarily with the social and personal transmission of memory across time and generations Part II Remembering Suffering Trauma and History brings the after effects of catastrophe to the fore Part III Patterning the National Past the relation between nation and memory is the central issue Part IV And Then Silence reflects on the complex and multiple meaning of silence and oblivion wherein amnesia is often used as a figure for the denial of shamefu Accidental Ethnography Christopher N. Poulos,2018-08-15 Each family has its secrets ones that shape family communication and relationships in a way generally unknown to the outsider and often the family itself Autoethnographers students of these relationships confront many silences in their attempts to understand these social worlds Now issued as a Routledge Education Classic Edition Accidental Ethnography delves into this shadowy world of pain and loss in the hopes of finding productive ethical avenues for transforming the secret lives of families into powerful narratives of hope It merges autoethnographic method with the therapeutic power of storytelling to heal family wounds A new preface text by the author reflects on the changes in the field of qualitative research and on his own research journey since the publication of the original edition
