Remembering God Reflections On Islam:

Remembering God Gai Eaton, 2000 Written by the best selling author of Islam and the Destiny of Man Remembering God is a profound analysis of the most urgent concerns and questions facing us at the beginning of the twenty first century Contrasting modern secular society with religion and tradition in general and with Islam in particular Gai Eaton clarifies the essential need for spirituality religion and values based on eternal principles The main ideas expounded in Remembering God are that religion is not an isolated part of human life which can be disregarded at will and without consequences that a total rejection of the past cannot be the basis for the future and that a true link with Heaven modifies all the decisions and actions of society Touching on religion in principle metaphysics knowledge of the divine and of oneself prayer the necessity for purifying the ego and on the application of religion to society politics architecture the environment and gender relations Gai Eaton illustrates the subtle harmony of a religious perspective and its ability to transform both the individual and society

The Sacred Foundations of Justice in Islam Ali M. Lakhani, Reza Shah-Kazemi, Leonard Lewisohn, 2006-08-23 This is the definitive introduction to the writings of Ali who was the son in law to the Prophet Muhammad the fourth caliph to Sunni Muslims and the central figure in Shi'a Islam Two essays in this anthology won awards at the International Congress on Iman Ali Tehran 2001 Seyyed Hossein Nasr pronounced them among the best writings on this extraordinary figure in Western languages and are obligatory reading for anyone interested in Ali

Remembering God Gai Eaton, 2000 Islam, Fundamentalism, and the Betrayal of Tradition Joseph E.B. Lumbard, 2009-08-16 Seven years after the horrific attacks of September 11th misunderstanding and distrust between Islam and the West are still as rampant as ever In this new and fully revised edition of his critically acclaimed book Joseph Lumbard collects a series of essays that explain not only the veil of misconceptions which lie at the heart of Western attitudes towards Islam but also the rise of fundamentalism within Islam itself a phenomenon which most Muslims do not consider a true reflection of their religion This new edition includes the addition of an essay on the role of women in Islam an updated chapter containing insight into the concept of Jihad and three fully revised chapters that bring the discussion up to date with the current global situation A completely modified introduction is also featured This book is an invaluable tool for anyone who wants to see beyond the headlines of hatred and anger which are so common today Pub desc

Towards Building a British Islam Haifaa A. Jawad, 2011-12-08 Despite the current negative image of Islam in Europe there has been a steady growth of converts to Islam over the past few decades British converts are a highly diverse group with different social economic and educational backgrounds Recently this group has grown in confidence and become increasingly active in influencing positive Islamic discourse in Britain The book sheds light on the intellectual and spiritual contributions of some of the prominent figures of this group of new Muslims and assesses their efforts in shaping Islam in British society including Martin Lings Gai Eaton Tim Winter and Hamza Yusuf The research investigates the potential benefit new Muslims can bring to bridge the gap between Muslim communities and wider

British society thus helping in the process of building mutual trust greater cooperation and positive understanding among all parties in Britain The work will help readers to become aware of the evolution of a British Islam that is more open rooted in British values and spiritual traditions and forms a part of the continually changing British religious landscape The Heart of Islam Seyyed Hossein Nasr,2009-03-17 As the specter of religious extremism has become a fact of life today the temptation is great to allow the evil actions and perspectives of a minority to represent an entire tradition In the case of Islam there has been much recent confusion in the Western world centered on distorted portrayals of its core values Born of ignorance such confusion feeds the very problem at hand In The Heart of Islam one of the great intellectual figures in Islamic history offers a timely presentation of the core spiritual and social values of Islam peace compassion social justice and respect for the other Seizing this unique moment in history to reflect on the essence of his tradition Seyyed Hossein Nasr seeks to open a spiritual and intellectual space for mutual understanding Exploring Islamic values in scripture traditional sources and history he also shows their clear counterparts in the Jewish and Christian traditions revealing the common ground of the Abrahamic faiths Nasr challenges members of the world s civilizations to stop demonizing others while identifying themselves with pure goodness and to turn instead to a deeper understanding of those shared values that can solve the acute problems facing humanity today Muslims must ask themselves what went wrong within their own societies he writes but the West must also pose the same question about itself whether we are Muslims Jews Christians or even secularists whether we live in the Islamic world or in the West we are in need of meaning in our lives of ethical norms to guide our actions of a vision that would allow us to live at peace with each other and with the rest of God s creation Such help he believes lies at the heart of every religion and can lead the followers of the Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam as well as other religious and spiritual traditions to a new future of mutual respect and common global purpose The Heart of Islam is a landmark presentation of enduring value that offers hope to humanity and a compelling portrait of the beauty and appeal of the faith of 1.2 billion people The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman,2015-07-16 Philosophy flourished in the Islamic world for many centuries and continues to be a significant feature of cultural life today Now available in paperback The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy covers all the major and many minor philosophers theologians and mystics who contributed to its development With entries on over 300 thinkers and key concepts in Islamic philosophy this updated landmark work also includes a timeline glossary and detailed bibliography It goes beyond philosophy to reference all kinds of theoretical inquiry which were often linked with philosophy such as the Islamic sciences grammar theology law and traditions Every major school of thought from classical Peripatetic philosophy to Sufi mysticism is represented and entries range across time from the early years of the faith to the modern period Featuring an international group of authors from South East Asia the Indian Subcontinent the Middle East and North Africa Europe and North America The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy provides access to the ideas and people comprising

The Timeless Relevance of Traditional Wisdom Ali M.

Lakhani,2010-10-01 More than ever there is an urgent need to rediscover timeless and objective principles in order to confront the issues of our times In this collection of thirty remarkable essays Lakhani summons us to rediscover the sacred worldview of Tradition governed by truth virtue and beauty as he addresses some of the most pressing issues today including fundamentalism gender and sexuality religious diversity and pluralism faith and science and the problem of evil

Economic Empowerment Of Women In The Islamic World: Theory And Practice Toseef Azid,Jennifer L

Ward-batts,2020-06-22 The book Economic Empowerment of Women in the Islamic World discusses the economic social and political rights and status of women in Islam which is theoretically given by the Islamic Jurisprudence Shariah law The chapters in this volume will address historical practices in comparison to the status of women in the contemporary Muslim world Men and women in Islam regardless of their age social class and education are equal as citizens and individuals but not identical in their rights and responsibilities It can be observed from Islamic history that in the early age of Islam women were given full confidence trust and high responsibilities in leadership educational guidance and decision making This volume will try to clarify the confusion in the status of the women in Islam that is presented by the media as it is assumed that theoretical Islamic empowerment of women bears little relation to the real conditions of women in modern Muslim societies It has been widely claimed in the media that Muslim women suffer more than men in Muslim societies and communities in terms of insecurity domestic abuse and low access to education and medical care It is also stated in the press and media that absence of good governance also results in gender inequality and violation of the rights of Muslim women This volume also aims to provide the solutions for the empowerment of women in the Islamic world We assumed that without good governance the status of women is not likely to improve Muslim women have the potential to play a fundamental role in curbing corruption social ills violence and crime in the Muslim world This volume will make the case that in order to achieve stability and prosperity the government must ensure a platform for women to participate in decision making and hence benefit from the rights they are accorded in Islam By covering a range of perspectives on the economic lives of Muslim women around the world it hopes to shed light on the problems faced and to offer possible solutions to the empowerment of women in the Islamic world

Development in Africa and Its Diaspora Akinloyè Òjò, Ibigbolade S. Aderibigbe, Felisters Jepchirchir Kiprono, 2018-09-19
 This book considers how the establishment and or improvement of gender equality impacts on the social economic religious cultural environmental and political developments of human societies in Africa and its Diaspora An interdisciplinary team of contributors examine the role of gender in development against the background of Africa's convoluted and arduous history of state formation slavery colonialism post independence nation building and poverty Each chapter highlights and stimulates further discussion on the struggles that many African and African Diaspora societies grapple with in the perplexing issue of gender and development concentrating on gains that have been made and the challenges yet to be surmounted One God for All Dil R Banu, 2014-05-29 In our times of strife and alienation the author presents a fresh argument for harmony and togetherness She has a deep understanding of the human mind through ages in which God eternally leaves His unifying marks Gods Omnipresence binds our ageless humanity on one hand and on the other it directs us to His singular message of Unity The author essentially focuses on the Unity of God and articulates its dimensions from the vantage point of her Islamic conviction In so doing she places other religions vis vis Islam and vice versa In keeping with the spirit of Islam she never indulges in the denigration of the other She does encounter anti Islamism that we see in vogue Her style is unapologetic and straight to the point She takes the antagonists to the task But her tone all throughout is one of reconciliation She seeks to make her audience understand her belief system i e Islam and in turn understand the misunderstanding of Islam by her audience Her audience obviously is Western if not exclusively and as such her arguments flourish in the Western context She does leave room for the watchful non Western Muslim and non Muslim readers to get hold of that context The book addressing timeless issues is quintessentially timely Muhammad Mashreque has been a professor of English at Allen University Columbia SC Besides he works with such organizations as uniting adherents of the Faith i e CAIR and promoting ethnic racial harmony i e SPLC Islam and Science Muzaffar Iqbal, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2002 This text seeks to provide the necessary background for understanding the contemporary relationship between Islam and modern science Presenting an authentic discourse on the Islamic understanding of the physical cosmos Muzaffar Iqbal explores God's relationship to the created world and the historical and cultural forces that have shaped and defined Muslim attitudes towards science What was Islamic in the Islamic scientific tradition How was it rooted in the Qur'anic worldview and whatever happened to it These are some of the facets of this account of a tradition that spans eight centuries and covers a vast geographical region Written from within this ground breaking exploration of some of the most fundamental questions in the Islam and science discourse explores the process of appropriation and transformation of the Islamic scientific tradition in Europe during the three centuries leading up to the Scientific revolution
