The Remembering Self Ulric Neisser, Robyn Fivush, 1994-10-28 This book brings a surprisingly wide range of intellectual disciplines to bear on the self narrative and the self The same ecological cognitive approach that successfully organized Ulric Neisser's earlier volume on The Perceived Self now relates ideas from the experimental developmental and clinical study of memory to insights from post modernism and literature Although autobiographical remembering is an essential way of giving meaning to our lives the memories we construct are never fully consistent and often simply wrong In the first chapter Neisser considers the so called false memory syndrome in this context other contributors discuss the effects of amnesia the development of remembering in childhood the social construction of memory and its alleged self servingness and the contrast between literary and psychological models of the self Jerome Bruner Peggy Miller Alan Baddeley Kenneth Gergen and Daniel Albright are among the contributors to this unusual synthesis

Theories of Social Remembering Barbara Misztal, 2003-07-16 brilliant and impressive tour de force Network Why does collective memory matter How is social memory generated maintained and reproduced How do we explain changes in the content and role of collective memory Through a synthesis of old and new theories of social remembering this book provides the first comprehensive overview of the sociology of memory This rapidly expanding field explores how representations of the past are generated maintained and reproduced through texts images sites rituals and experiences The main aim of the book is to show to what extent the investigation of memory challenges sociological understandings of the formation of social identities and conflicts It illustrates the new status of memory in contemporary societies by examining the complex relationships between memory and commemoration memory and identity memory and trauma and memory and justice The book consists of six chapters with the first three devoted to conceptualising the process of remembering by analyzing memory's function status and history as well as by locating the study of memory in a broader field of social science The second part of the book directly explores and discusses theories and studies of social remembering After a short conclusion which argues that study of collective memory is an important part of any examination of contemporary society the glossary offers a concise and up to date overview of the development of relevant theoretical concepts The result is an essential text for undergraduate courses in social theory the sociology of memory and a wider audience in cultural studies history and politics

(Re)writing and Remembering James Dalrymple,Jonathan Fruoco, Virginia Sherman,2016-02-08 Recounting past events is intrinsic to the storytelling function as most fiction assumes the past tense as the natural means of narrating a story Few narratives draw attention to this process yet others make the act of remembering a primary part of the narrative situation Ranging in its focus from poetry to novels autobiographical memoirs and biopics from the ostensibly fictional to the implicitly real this volume discusses the extent to which such fictional acts of remembering are also acts of rewriting the past to suit the needs of the present How seamlessly does experience yield to the ordering strictures of narrative and what is at stake in the process What must be omitted or stylised and to what ideological end In making an artefact of the past what role does artifice play and what does this process also tell us about history making The Harriman Alaska Expedition of 1899

John J. Michalik,2021-08-11 In 1899 one of America s wealthiest men assembled an interdisciplinary team of experts many of whom would become legendary in their fields to join him entirely at his expense on a voyage to the largely unknown territory of Alaska The Harriman Expedition remains unparalleled in its conception and execution This book follows the team closely where they went what they did and what they learned including finding early evidence of glacial retreat assessing the nature and future of Alaska s natural resources making important scientific discoveries and collecting an astonishing collection of specimens A second thread involves the lives and accomplishments of the members of the party weaving biographical strands into the narrative of the journey and the personal experiences they shared This is the first comprehensive scholarly treatment of the Harriman Alaska Expedition since the 1980s It features the diaries letters home and post Expedition writings including unpublished autobiographies generated by the members of the party We Remember, We Love, We Grieve Elizabeth

Warner,Svetlana Adonyeva,2021-03-23 This is a book about death comprehensive in its discussion of strategies for coping with loss and grief in rural northern Russia Elizabeth Warner and Svetlana Adonyeva bring forth the voices of those for whom caring for their dead is deeply personal and firmly rooted in practices of everyday life Thoroughly researched chapters consider lamenting traditions examine beliefs surrounding natural symbols and parse sensitive and profound funereal rituals

Aden,2018-04-26

US Public Memory Rhetoric and the National Mall examines the nation s front yard understanding it as both a public face the United States presents to the world and a site where its less apparent moral story is told This book provides a uniquely thorough interdisciplinary and integrated examination of how the National Mall shares a moral story of the United States and in so doing reveals the soul of the nation The contributors explore 11 different memorials monuments and museums found across the Mall considering how each rhetorically remembers a key element of the nation s past what the rhetorical memory tells us about the nation s soul and how each site must thus be understood in relation to the commemorative landscape of the Mall Remembering the Times of Our Lives Patricia J. Bauer,2014-01-14

The purpose of Remembering the Times of Our Lives Memory in Infancy and Beyond is to trace the development from infancy through adulthood in the capacity to form retain and later retrieve autobiographical or personal memories It is appropriate for scholars and researchers in the fields of cognitive psychology memory infancy and human development Progress in Episodic Memory Research Ekrem Dere,Armin Zlomuzica,Angelica Staniloiu,Hans J. Markowitsch,2016-05-25

Episodic memory refers to the ability to remember personal experiences in terms of what happened and where and when it happened Humans are also able to remember the specific perceptions emotions and thoughts they had during a particular experience This highly sophisticated and unique memory system is extremely sensitive to cerebral aging neurodegenerative and neuropsychiatric diseases The field of episodic memory research is a continuously expanding and fascinating area that unites a broad spectrum of scientists who represent a variety of research disciplines including neurobiology medicine psychology and philosophy Nevertheless important questions still remain to be addressed This research topic on the Progress in Episodic Memory Research covers past and current directions in research dedicated to the neurobiology neuropathology development measurement and treatment of episodic memory The End of Memory Miroslav Volf,2006

Can one forget atrocities Should one forgive abusers Ought we not hope for the final reconciliation of all the wronged and all wrongdoers alike even if it means spending eternity with perpetrators of evil We live in an age when it is generally accepted that past wrongs genocides terrorist attacks bald personal injustices should be constantly remembered But Miroslav Volf here proposes the radical idea that letting go of such memories after a certain point and under certain conditions may actually be the appropriate course of action While agreeing with the claim that to remember a wrongdoing is to struggle against it Volf notes that there are too many ways to remember wrongly perpetuating the evil committed rather than guarding against it In this way the just sword of memory often severs the very good it seeks to defend He argues that remembering rightly has implications not only for the individual but also for the wrongdoer and for the larger community Volf's personal stories of persecution offer a compelling backdrop for his search for theological resources to make memories a wellspring of healing rather than a source of deepening pain and animosity

Controversial, thoughtful and incisively reasoned The End of Memory begins a conversation hard to ignore Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen-Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen-Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith traditions Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen-Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning. As religion takes on new forms, the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured. Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it. This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy. It is a confluence of threats, challenges, and opportunities for all religions. This volume explores the contours of pressures, changes, and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing. By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures, The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so.

Contributors: Vincent J. Cornell, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Sidney H. Griffith, Maria Reis Habito, B. Barry Levy, Deepak Sarma, Michael von Brück.

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE: The chapters collected in this book, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, address the subject of religious leadership. The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership. As such, it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place. What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world? To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations, and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age? One dimension is surely unique, and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges, opportunities, and strategies across religious traditions. Studying the theme across six faith traditions: Christianity, Islam, Judaism, Sikhism, Hinduism, and Buddhism.

The Future of Religious Leadership: World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present-day religious leadership.

Contributors: Awet Andemicael, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Anantanand Rambachan, Maria Reis Habito, Meir Sender, Balwant Singh Dhillon, Miroslav Volf.

VOLUME SIX: One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other. The question touches the roots of our theological views. The Religious Other: Hostility, Hospitality, and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness. How does one move from hostility to hospitality? How can hospitality be understood, not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality, making room for the religious Other on theological grounds? What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness? This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology. By including Abrahamic and non-Abrahamic traditions, it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives, highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another.

Contributors: Vincent J. Cornell, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Richard P. Hayes, Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks, Deepak Sarma, Stephen W. Sykes, Dharma Master Hsin Tao, Ashok Vohra.

Mediating Memory Bunty Avieson, Fiona Giles, Sue Joseph, 2017-10-16 The argument has been made that memoir reflects and augments the narcissistic tendencies of our neo liberal age Mediating Memory Tracing the Limits of Memoir challenges and dismantles that assumption Focusing on the history theory and practice of memoir writing editors Bunty Avieson Fiona Giles and Sue Joseph provide a thorough and cutting edge examination of memoir through the lenses of ethics practice and innovation By investigating memoir across cultural boundaries in its various guises and tracing its limits the editors convincingly demonstrate the plurality of ways in which memoir is helping us make sense of who we are who we were and the influences that shape us along the way
