

The background of the image is the interior of a stone church. It features a large, arched window with a grid of small, circular panes, through which light is streaming. Below the window, there is an open doorway leading to a bright, sunlit exterior. The stone walls are made of large, rectangular blocks, and the overall atmosphere is warm and spiritual.

Remembering The Faith What Christians Believe:

Remembering the Faith Douglas J. Brouwer, 1999 Many Christians today neither know the full content of their faith nor could articulate the historical doctrines of the church Remembering the Faith offers help by providing a brief and highly readable introduction to the basic teachings of the Christian faith Douglas Brouwer canvasses the full range of Christian belief from the nature of revelation to the doctrines of God the Trinity creation Jesus the Holy Spirit sanctification and the meaning of the sacraments discussing each as it developed historically and showing why such fundamental statements of faith continue to be important today Throughout each chapter are excerpts from the historical confessions creeds and catechisms as well as selected quotes from theologians and poets Brouwer pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Wheaton Illinois organizes the book thematically with chapters on Where We Find God Who Jesus Is Three Persons One God and Last Things among other topics His careful and gentle reasoning and pastoral tone he understands those who doubt and wonder makes the book a pleasurable and informative read and another useful book for group study Christianity Today German Protestants Remember the Holocaust K. Hannah Holtschneider, 2001 Focusing on the 1980s 90s examines how Protestants in Germany interpret their self understanding as part of the community which is defined by its connection to the Nazi past Analyzes representations of the Holocaust and of the Christian Jewish relationship in three German Protestant theological texts the 1980 statement of the Rhineland synod of the Evangelical Church Zur Erneuerung des Verhältnisses von Christen und Juden Marquardt's theological text Von Elend und Heimsuchung der Theologie Prolegomena zur Dogmatik 1992 and Britta Jüngst's dissertation Auf der Seite des Todes das Leben 1996 The analysis of these texts is informed by the development of narratives of collective memory of the Holocaust in German society in the 1980s 90s from the miniseries Holocaust to the Goldhagen controversy All three texts admit the responsibility of Christianity and Christians for the Holocaust and build theologies that do not reject Jews Contents that contrary to their stated intentions most Holocaust theologians do not truly listen to the Jewish perspective Calls on practitioners of theology after Auschwitz to embrace Jews and Judaism in order to restore the credibility of Christian Churches which abandoned the Jews in Auschwitz What Every Christian Ought to Know Adrian Rogers, 2005 Rogers offers newcomers to the faith an overview of basic truths to help them grow as believers The Christian Observer, 1805 Manual of the Christian Faith: Or, Religious Truths Generally Believed by Evangelical Christians Whitman Peck, 1872 Faith as Remembering Paul O. Ingram, 2017-11-06 Memories seldom happen in straight lines with chronological precision but occur most often in spirals Paul Ingram's essays collected in Faith as Remembering were created from memories These memories often in unpredictable ways pushed him to new insights about the nature of Christian faith insights often not desired always unexpected and always toward new directions of theological reflection Theologians all too often write with an unintentional and sometimes intentional universalism Ingram does not intend to write this way These essays reflect his memories and are the sources of the theological conclusions he draws as a historian of religions who now finds himself a practicing process theologian As a process theologian Ingram does not even argue that the conclusions drawn here will be ones he will affirm in the future All human knowledge is incomplete and there are always new surprises for anyone practicing the art of theological reflection But Ingram s hope is that the essays gathered together in Faith as Remembering will inspire readers to engage their memories as the foundation for drawing their own unique conclusions On Moral Medicine M. Remember Heaven: Meditations on the World to Come for Life in the Meantime Matthew McCullough, 2025-04-25 How the Hope of Heaven Shapes Our Lives as Christians in the Meantime What we expect from our future has tremendous power over our experience in the meantime that s why the Bible places the hope of heaven at the center of the Christian life But even if we affirm the reality of our heavenly future we often struggle to long for heaven much less to connect the promises of the world to come to the concrete details of life in this world as it is If and when we think about heaven at all it s easy to think of it like an insurance policy that will be there when we need it But the Bible defines our future hope as an inheritance a trust fund that is certain inexhaustible and freely accessible here and now In this book Matthew McCullough offers a series of meditations that model how to draw on the hope of heaven for everyday life in the meantime Chapters connect specific struggles of life in this world from dissatisfaction and inadequacy to anxiety grief indwelling sin and more to specific promises of the world to come Drawing on insights from Christian writers of the past McCullough shows how the Bible uses the hope of heaven to help us now Offers Hope Helps readers deal with feelings of loneliness inadequacy grief and dissatisfaction to curate a healthy life perspective around God s promises Biblical and Practical Engaging meditations offer Christians applicable advice for living joyfully in light of the inheritance that awaits them in heaven From the Gospel Coalition This accessible book makes a great gift for students pastors and Christians of every age
