Remembering The University Of Chicago Teachers Scientists And Scholars:

Remembering the University of Chicago Edward Shils, 1991-12 To celebrate the intellectual achievement of the University of Chicago on the occasion of its centennial year Edward Shils invited a group of notable scholars and scientists to reflect upon some of their own teachers and colleagues at the University

Portraits Edward Shils, 1997-06-09 In these vivid portraits of prominent twentieth century intellectuals Edward Shils couples the sensitivity of a biographer with the profound knowledge of a highly respected scholar Ranging as widely across various disciplines as Shils himself did the essays gathered here share a distaste for faddists who run with the intellectual mob and a deep respect for intellectuals who maintain their integrity under great pressure Highlights include an affectionate treatment of Leo Szilard the physicist whose involvement with the development of the atomic bomb led him to work ceaselessly to address its social consequences a discussion of the educational philosophy of Robert Maynard Hutchins the University of Chicago's fifth and most controversial president an appreciative account of the Polish emigr Leopold Labedz's well informed and outspoken resistance to Communism and an essay about the extraordinary Indian writer Nirad Chaudhuri Many of these essays have appeared in The American Scholar edited by Joseph Epstein who introduces this volume with his own portrait of Edward Shils Though professionally a sociologist Edward Shils was a man of wide cosmopolitan culture and experience greatly concerned with the public problems of his time in particular with those created by the rise of new and dangerous ideologies the frightening possibilities of science and the apparent abrogation of public responsibility by many Western intellectuals Hugh Trevor Roper The late Edward Shils was a member of the University of Chicago's Committee on Social Thought for forty five years and a fellow of Peterhouse Cambridge University His many books include The Calling of Sociology and The Intellectuals and the Powers both published by the University of Chicago Press

Dead Men's Propaganda Terhi Rantanen, 2024-05-07 In Dead Men's Propaganda Ideology and Utopia in Comparative Communications Studies Terhi Rantanen investigates the shaping of early comparative communications research between the 1920s and 1950s notably the work of academics and men of practice in the United States Often neglected this intellectual thread is highly relevant to understanding the 21st century's challenges of war and rival streams of propaganda Borrowing her conceptual lenses from Karl Mannheim and Robert Merton Rantanen draws on detailed archival research and case studies to analyse the extent and importance of work outside and inside the academy illuminating the work of pioneers in the field Some of these were well known academics such as Harold Lasswell and the authors of the seminal book Four Theories of the Press Others operated in the world of news agencies such as Associated Press's Kent Cooper or were marginalised as migr scholars notably Paul Kecskemeti and Nathan Leites Her study shows how comparative communications from its very beginning can be understood as governed by the Mannheimian concepts of ideology and utopia and the power play between them The close relationship between these two concepts resulted in a bias in knowledge production contributed to dominant narratives of generational conflicts and to the demarcation of Insiders and Outsiders By focusing on a generation at the forefront of comparative communications at this pivotal time in the 20th century this book challenges orthodoxies in the intellectual histories of communication studies

The Light That Binds Rev. Stephen L. Brock,2020-03-30 If there is any one author in the history of moral thought who has come to be associated with the idea of natural law it is Saint Thomas Aquinas Many things have been written about Aquinas s natural law teaching and from many different perspectives The aim of this book is to help see it from his own perspective That is why the focus is metaphysical Aquinas s whole moral doctrine is laden with metaphysics and his natural law teaching especially so because it is all about first principles The book centers on how Aquinas thinks the first principles of practical reason which for him are what make up natural law function as laws It is a controversial question and the book engages a variety of readers of Aquinas including Francisco Suarez Jacques Maritain prominent analytical philosophers Straussians and the initiators of the New Natural Law theory Among the issues addressed are the relation between natural law and natural inclination how far natural law depends on knowledge of human nature what its obligatory force consists in and above all how it is related to what for Aquinas is the first principle of all being the divine will Moral Questions in
