Remembering Jewish Amsterdam:

Remembering Jewish Amsterdam Philo Bregstein, Johanna Katherina Barends, 2004 This book consists of fragments of 77 interviews with Holocaust survivors who talk about their life in Amsterdam before the war The authors use this rich material to compose a collective mosaic of memories that provide a fascinating view of Jewish life in Amsterdam during the years between 1900 and 1940 By dividing the material into chapters dealing with such topics as professions religion housing conditions emancipation Jews and Gentiles and immigration it becomes clear how many opinions on these subjects existed within the community Amsterdam from the 17th century until the German occupation in 1940 and shows that for centuries it was one of the most important community in Western Europe While the Holocaust which claimed the lives of three quarters of the Amsterdam Jews casts a shadow over the memories of the interviewees these testimonies re create the spirit of time and place and present a vivid picture of a little known past erased by war

The Dutch Intersection Yosef Kaplan, 2008 This collection of historical studies deals with the multiple connections between the history and culture of the Jews of the Netherlands from the beginning of the seventeenth century until the period after the Holocaust and phenomena and processes that distinguish the history of the Jewish people in the modern period The Jews of the Netherlands were not only nourished by the cultural creativity of the great Sephardi and

Ashkenazi centers East and West but also at various stages they served as a source of inspiration for Jews elsewhere in the Jewish Diaspora The articles of this volume examine the influence of general Jewish history on that of the Jews of the Netherlands and focus on events and processes that highlight the significance of Dutch Jewry for modern Jewish culture

Walkowitz, 2018-09-05 Part travelogue part social history and part family saga this book investigates the politics of heritage tourism and collective memory Acclaimed historian Daniel J Walkowitz visits key Jewish heritage sites from Berlin to Belgrade to Warsaw to New York to discover which stories of the Jewish experience get told and which get silenced

Amsterdam's People of the Book Benjamin E. Fisher, 2020-03-30 The Spanish and Portuguese Jews of seventeenth century Amsterdam cultivated a remarkable culture centered on the Bible School children studied the Bible systematically while rabbinic literature was pushed to levels reached by few students adults met in confraternities to study Scripture and families listened to Scripture based sermons in synagogue and to help pass the long cold winter nights of northwest Europe The community's rabbis produced creative and often unprecedented scholarship on the Jewish Bible as well as the New Testament Amsterdam's People of the Book shows that this unique Bible centered culture resulted from the confluence of the Jewish community's Catholic and converso past with the Protestant world in which they came to live Studying Amsterdam's Jews offers an early window into the prioritization of the Bible over rabbinic literature a trend that continues through modernity in western Europe It allows us to see how Amsterdam's rabbis experimented with new historical methods for understanding the Bible and how they grappled with doubts about the authority and truth of the Bible that were growing in the world around them Amsterdam's People of the Book allows us to appreciate how Benedict Spinoza's ideas were in fact shaped by the approaches to reading the Bible in the community where he was born raised and educated After all as Spinoza himself remarked before becoming Amsterdam's most famous heretic and one of Europe's leading philosophers and biblical critics he was steeped in the common beliefs about the Bible from childhood on

Dislocated Memories Tina Frühauf, Lily E. Hirsch, 2014 The first volume of its kind Dislocated Memories Jews Music and Postwar German Culture draws together three significant areas of inquiry Jewish music German culture and the legacy of the Holocaust Jewish music a highly debated topic encompasses a multiplicity of musics and cultures reflecting an inherent and evolving hybridity and transnationalism German culture refers to an equally diverse concept that in this volume includes the various cultures of prewar Germany occupied Germany the divided and reunified Germany and even German Jewish memory which is not necessarily physically bound to Germany In the context of these perspectives the volume makes powerful arguments on about the impact of the Holocaust and its aftermath in changing contexts of musical performance and composition In doing so the essays in Dislocated Memories cover a wide spectrum of topics from the immediate postwar period with music in the Displaced Persons camps to the later twentieth century with compositions conceived in response to the Holocaust and the klezmer revival at the turn of this century Dislocated Memories builds on a wide range of recent and critical scholarship in Cold War studies cultural history German studies Holocaust studies Jewish studies and memory studies What binds these distinct fields tightly together are the contributors specific theoretical inquiries that reflect separate yet interrelated themes such as displacement and memory While these concepts link the multi faceted essays on a micro level they are also largely connected in their conceptual query by focus on the macro level on the presence and the absence of Jewish music in Germany after 1945 Filled with original research by scholars at the forefront of music history and Jewish studies Dislocated Memories will prove an essential text for scholars and students alike House of Memories Arnoud-Jan Bijsterveld, 2016 Accompanying videodisc contains Here was Bertram search for a lost life Kan hayah Ber ram ipu a ar ayim avudim a film by Carine Van Vugt and Jeroen Neus Verhalis Production Co 2012 Anne Frank Remembered Miep Gies, 2011-05-31 For the millions moved by Anne Frank The Diary of a Young Girl here at last is Miep Geis s own astonishing story For more than two years Miep Gies and her husband helped hide the Franks from the Nazis Like thousands of unsung heroes of the Holocaust they risked their lives each day to bring food news and emotional support to the victims She found the diary and brought the world a message of love and hope It seems as if we are never far from Miep s thoughts Yours Anne From her own remarkable childhood as a World War I refugee to the moment she places a small red orange checkered diary Anne s legacy in Otto Frank s hands Miep Gies remembers her days with simple honesty and shattering clarity Each page rings with courage and heartbreaking beauty Urban Memory Mark Crinson, 2005 Nine previously unpublished essays form an interdisciplinary assessment of urban memory in the modern city analysing this burgeoning area of interest from the perspectives of sociology architectural and art history psychoanalysis culture and critical theory Featuring a wealth of illustrations images maps and specially commissioned artwork this work applies a critical and creative approach to existing theories of urban memory and examines how these ideas are actualised in the forms of the built environment in the modernist and post industrial city A particular area of focus is post industrial Manchester but the book also includes studies of current day Singapore New York after 9 11 modern museums in industrial gallery spaces the writings of Paul Auster and W G Sebald memorials built in concrete and contemporary art We Remember with Reverence and Love Hasia R Diner, 2009-04-01 Winner of the 2009 National Jewish Book Award in American Jewish Studies Recipient of the 2010 Guggenheim Fellowship in Humanities Intellectual Cultural History It has become an accepted truth after World War II American Jews chose to be silent about the mass murder of millions of their European brothers and sisters at the hands of the Nazis In this compelling work Hasia R Diner shows the assumption of silence to be categorically false Uncovering a rich and incredibly varied trove of remembrances in song literature liturgy public display political activism and hundreds of other forms We Remember with Reverence and Love shows that publicly memorializing those who died in the Holocaust arose from a deep and powerful element of Jewish life in postwar America Not only does she marshal enough evidence to dismantle the idea of American Jewish forgetfulness she brings to life the moving and manifold ways that this widely diverse group paid tribute to the tragedy Diner also offers a compelling new perspective on the 1960s and its potent legacy by revealing how our typical understanding of the postwar years emerged from the cauldron of cultural divisions and campus battles a generation later The student activists and new Jews of the 1960s who in rebelling against the American Jewish world they had grown up in a world of remarkable affluence and broadening cultural possibilities created a flawed portrait of what their parents had or rather had not done in the postwar years This distorted legacy has been transformed by two generations of scholars writers rabbis and Jewish community leaders into a taken for granted truth

Remembering the Holocaust in a Racial State Roni Mikel-Arieli, 2022-07-18 The lens of apartheid era Jewish commemorations of the Holocaust in South Africa reveals the fascinating transformation of a diasporic community Through the prism of Holocaust memory this book examines South African Jewry and its ambivalent position as a minority within the privileged white minority Grounded in research in over a dozen archives the book provides a rich empirical account of the centrality of Holocaust memorialization to the community's ongoing struggle against global and local antisemitism Most of the chapters focus on white perceptions of the Holocaust and reveals the tensions between the white communities in the country regarding the place of collective memories of suffering in the public arena However the book also moves beyond an insular focus on the South African Jewish community and in very different modality investigates prominent figures in the anti apartheid struggle and the role of Holocaust memory in their fascinating journeys towards freedom

The Faith of Remembrance Nathan Wachtel,2013-02-21 In a series of intimate and searing portraits Nathan Wachtel traces the journeys of the seventeenth and eighteenth century Marranos Spanish and Portuguese Jews who were forcibly converted to Catholicism but secretly retained their own faith Fleeing persecution in their Iberian homeland some sought refuge in the Americas where they established transcontinental networks linking the New World to the Old The Marranos at once Jewish and Christian outsiders and insiders nurtured their hidden beliefs within their new communities participating in the economic development of the early Americas while still adhering to some of the rituals and customs of their ancestors In a testament to the partial assimilation of these new arrivals their faith became ever more syncretic mixing elements of Judaism with Christian practice and theology In many cases the combination was fatal Wachtel relies on inquisitorial archives of trials and executions to chronicle legal and religious prosecutions for heresy From the humble Jean Vicente to the fabulously wealthy slave trafficker Manuel Bautista Perez from the untutored Theresa Paes de Jesus to the learned Francisco Maldonado de Silva each unforgettable figure offers a chilling reminder of the reach of the Inquisition Sensitive to the lingering tensions within the Marrano communities Wachtel joins the concerns of an anthropologist to his skills as a historian and in a stunning authorial move he demonstrates that the faith of remembrance remains alive today in the towns of rural Brazil

Geerken, 2025-06-06 From 1963 to 1981 Horst H Geerken lived in the new born Republic of Indonesia at a time of upheaval after the end of almost 350 years of colonial rule and exploitation by the Netherlands In both his professional and private activities he constantly came across German Japanese and Indonesian eyewitnesses who had lived through the Japanese occupation and the presence of the German navy in Indonesia The relations between the German Reich and what was then the Dutch East Indies were obviously closer and more varied than had been previously assumed Hardly anyone was aware that Hitler was extremely interested in this distant archipelago and that thousands of German officers and seamen were in action in East and South East Asia Who knows that German U boats and auxiliary cruisers penetrated deep into the Pacific and that the German Navy used the Kerguelen Islands in the South Polar Sea as a secret base Or that Hitler gave massive support to the independence movements in Indonesia and India Many of the German naval personnel chose to make Indonesia their home after the war and joined the

Indonesian freedom fighters The Second World War heralded the end of the colonial era in Asia especially in South East Asia The role played in this process by the Third Reich should not be underestimated The collaboration between the Axis powers especially that between German and Japan with all its problems is also investigated There was a lively exchange of new weapons technology There was even the re creation of a German Radar system in Japan under the management of a German engineer Documents from the Third Reich s Foreign Ministry published here for the first time show how brutally and inhumanely the German men women and children in the Dutch internment camps in the East Indies were treated by their captors These documents are supported by evidence from contemporary witnesses The author has encapsulated his many years of research in the two volumes of Hitler s Asian Adventure It is a fascinating documentation of the German Navy s involvement in a theatre of war that has until now been neglected by historians Materials on the Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe ,2005 Collection of essays maps and photographs that traces the history of the Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in Berlin and serves as a guide to the Memorial s Information Centre
