Remembering Mark:

Collective Remembering and the Making of Political Culture James H. Liu, 2022-08-18 Collective memory can make and break political culture around the world Representations and reinterpretations of the past intersect with actions that shape the future A nation's political culture emerges from complex layers of institutional and individual responses to historical events Society changes and is changed by these layers of memory over time Understanding them gives us insight into where we are today Encompassing examples from colonization and decolonization revolving around the critical junctures of the world wars this book illustrates how collective memory is produced and organized through commemoration through monuments and through individuals sharing stories Using concrete examples from around the world James H Liu shows how different disciplines can come together through shared concepts like narratives and generational memories to provide mutually enriching perspectives on how political culture is made and how it changes Mark Rothko James E. B. Breslin, 2012-08-13 The first full length biography of Mark Rothko one of the greatest artists of the 20th century tells the story of a life in art and the convergence of genius and ego culture and commerce that defined the New York art scene of the 1930s 40s and 50s 21 color plates Black Witness Amy McQuire, 2024-07-16 From one of this country's leading Indigenous journalists comes a collection of fierce and powerful essays proving why the media needs to believe Black Witnesses Amy McQuire has been writing on Indigenous affairs since she was 17 years old Over the past two decades she has reported on most of the key events involving Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples including numerous deaths in custody the Palm Island uprising the Bowraville murders and the Northern Territory Intervention She has also exposed the misrepresentations and violence of the mainstream media's reports as well as their omissions and silences altogether in regards to Indigenous matters Black Witness showcases how journalism can be used to hold the powerful to account and make the world a more equitable place This is the essential collection that we need right now and always have Boca Chita Lance Long, 2012-09 Mark a retired boomer with a powerful survivalist streak manages to avoid contamination from the deadly NOEL virus released worldwide by terrorists on Christmas Eve Within 3 days 99.9% of the world's population succumbs He decides to bug out in his survival prepared live aboard trawler to Boca Chita Key an uninhabited island seventeen miles from Miami where he uses his wits resilience and mechanical know how to homestead as a self sufficient hermit Access to unlimited fuel will guarantee his freedom to travel and power the air conditioning laundry hot water heater and freezer He quickly learns the essential secret of harvesting diesel from marina pumps using his portable Honda generator In a vastly changed world Mark faces his first challenging year with only the companionship of a shipwrecked survivor his dog Shadow In his Journal he reflects on preparing for life aboard watching the weather harvesting the gifts of the sea and nurturing the miracle of a kitchen garden His encounters with a variety of animals and a handful of survivors succeed with the help of a salvaged Coast Guard Defender Class quick response boat a sawed off 12 gauge pump
