Remington Drawings:

Frederic Remington Peter H. Hassrick, 2016-05-31 One of America's most popular and influential American artists Frederic Remington 1861-1909 is renowned for his depictions of the Old West Through paintings, drawings, and sculptures he immortalized a dynamic world of cowboys and American Indians, hunters, and horses, landscapes, and wildlife Frederic Remington A Catalogue Raisonné II is a comprehensive presentation of the artist's body of flat work both in print and on this book's companion website Beautifully illustrated with more than 150 figures and 100 color plates, this book offers insightful essays by notable art historians who explore Remington's experiences in Taos, New Mexico, and other parts of the West The chapters include analyses of Remington's artistic development from an illustrator to a fine art painter, his search for and understanding of men with the bark on his relationship with the famed illustrator Howard Pyle, and the shared imagery of Remington and Buffalo Bill Cody A chapter considering Remington's enduring bond with the horse and its representation in his paintings follows an examination of Remington's ties to Theodore Roosevelt that reveals how the two men helped move the American conscience toward wildlife preservation An assessment of the authentication process for evaluating Remington's works opens the collection Remington is perhaps the most frequently faked American artist The book features a unique keycode granting access to a companion website that brings together more than 3,000 reproductions of the artist's flat works, including the complete original 1996 edition of the Catalogue Raisonné and nearly 300 previously unknown or relocated pieces Each entry includes the title, date, medium, size, inscriptions, provenance, and exhibition and publication history of the work, as well as select commentary The online catalogue is fully searchable and will be continuously updated as new information becomes available Based on decades of scholarship and research, the revised Remington Catalogue Raisonné is an essential resource for scholars, collectors, museum curators, historians of the American West, and anyone seeking definitive information on the art of Frederic Remington Frederic Remington A Catalogue Raisonné II is published in cooperation with the Buffalo Bill Center of the West, Cody, Wyoming Frederic Remington Frederic Remington, 1972 Frederic Remington Frederic Remington, 1995 Frederic Remington Peter H. Frederic Remington Maria Tsaneva, 2015-01-10 Frederic Sackrider Remington was an American painter, illustrator, sculptor, and writer who specialized in depictions of the Old American West, specifically concentrating on the last quarter of the 19th-century American West and images of cowboys, American Indians, and the U.S. Cavalry His style was naturalistic, sometimes impressionistic, and usually veered away from the ethnographic realism of earlier Western artists such as George Catlin His focus was firmly on the people and animals of the West, with landscape usually of secondary importance, unlike the members and descendants of the Hudson River School such as Frederic Edwin Church, Albert Bierstadt, and Thomas Moran who glorified the vastness of the West and the dominance of nature over man The galloping horse became Remington's signature subject copied and interpreted by many Western artists who followed him He was an effective publicist and promoter of his art The Frederic Remington Art Museum Collection Brian W.
