Reminiscences Of A Teacher:

Reminiscences of the Happy Life of a Teacher Alfred Holbrook,1885 I Remember My Teacher David Shribman,2009-01-01 Over the course of a year writer David Shribman questioned virtually everyone he encountered about the role teachers had played in their lives The result is this extraordinary collection of personal remembrances of teachers relayed by people from all walks of life Readers will be inspired by the Montreal bookseller whose math teacher taught statistics using cards and dice by the second grade teacher who let a young George Stephanopoulos go to the library whenever he was bored in class and by Sister Patricia a favorite teacher of former Secretary Of Labor Alexis Herman who once told her You can fly by that cocoon has to go These 365 short testimonials offer a tribute to teachers for each day of the year With accounts from Geena Davis Clarence Thomas Norman Schwarzkopf and others Reminiscences of the Happy

Memoirs of a Middle School Teacher Patricia Patrick Marr,2022-11-03 Middle schoolers are interesting creatures Teaching them was both challenging and fulfilling Sixth grade in my opinion is the most difficult grade to teach Too many times to count mothers claimed that their child had never done that before I learned to respond That s because he wasn t in the sixth grade before As hard as it was at times as I look back on my days in middle school I can reminisce with a chuckle at most of their antics Too often though it was I who said or did something foolish in the heat of the moment If I had kept notes I could have filled hundreds of pages with the comical things that happened in the middle grades Instead these are my memories Women in Teacher Training Colleges, 1900-1960 Elizabeth Edwards,2004-01-14 Women in Teacher

Goodson, 2008-01-01 Investigating the Teacher's Life and Work attempts to bring together the methodological and substantive aspects of studying the teacher's life and work Some of the chapters in the book provide a how to do approach for those wishing to study the teacher's life and work employing a life history method whilst other chapters provide the kind of substantive and generic findings which might be anticipated when conducting life history work The focus on professional life and work has been growing rapidly in the last two or three decades There are a number of reasons for this Firstly there is a methodological impulse many new studies are adopting a life history approach The life history tradition aims to understand the interface between people's life and their work It also seeks to explore the historical context and the socio-political circumstances in which people's life and work is located A further major reason for investigating the teacher's life and work at the moment is the huge range of restructuring initiatives taking place throughout the educational world There is a kind of world movement to restructure education and health certainly in most Western countries Generally this takes the form of the introduction of the three T's targets tests and tables and the increasing accountability and performativity regimes associated with these new forms of evaluation Significantly these initiatives have been introduced at governmental level in most countries with the minimum of consultation with teacher workforces As a result there is growing evidence of a clash between professional life and work missions and the restructuring initiatives which aim to transform these missions Perhaps the best way to explore this increasingly acute clash of values is through the investigation of professional life and work Investigating the Teacher's Life and Work aims to bring together the methodological and substantive approaches and to show how this kind of study can increase our understanding of the interface between government intentions and teacher's beliefs and motives Journal of Health William Mason Cornell, 1847 Reminiscences of childhood at Inverkeithing, or Life at a lazaretto James Simson, 1882 Reminiscences of School Life, and Hints on Teaching Fanny Jackson Coppin, 1913 Reminiscences of an Active Life John Roy Lynch, 2008-10-07 The memoir of an accomplished politician and the first African American from Mississippi elected to the United States Congress Henry Hocker Seltzer, Pennsylvania Dutch

Teacher, Civil Servant, and Physician - Memories of 1856-1915 Henry Hocker Seltzer, 2018-09-13 This is my great grandfather's autobiography. He grew up on a farm near Belle Grove, Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania Dutch was spoken in the home; English was his second language, putting him at a disadvantage when he went to school, but he became very bookish and proud of his educational accomplishments. For 10 years he taught in one-room schoolhouses in Pennsylvania Dutch farm country. At times he handled alone as many as 65 students ranging in age from 5 to 21 and for a wage of $33/month. He had to deal with the vagaries of rural schools with behavior problems and parents who had little respect for book learning and arbitrary decisions of county-level school administration. During corn husking, sometimes only 3-5 students would show up. He traveled by train to Kansas in 1878 and almost settled there. Later he got a civil service bookkeeping job with the US Treasury Dept and wrote a bookkeeping text book for farmers. And at the age of 40 he got an M.D. degree from what later became George Washington University. Reminiscences of Georgia Baptists Shaler Granby Hillyer, 1902
