highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies Art vs TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works installations performances interventions and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television The artists discussed belong to different generations those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art Fluxus and Happening and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories to those arriving in the 2000s an era in which through reality shows and the Internet anybody could potentially become a media personality and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television exposing an incongruence an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange

Performing Whiteness Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2012-02-01 2003 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Performing Whiteness crosses the boundaries of film study to explore images of the white body in relation to recent theoretical perspectives on whiteness Drawing on such diverse critical methodologies as postcolonial studies feminist film criticism anthropology and phenomenology Gwendolyn Audrey Foster examines a wide variety of films from early cinema to the present day in order to explore the ways in which American cinema imposes whiteness as a cultural norm even as it exposes its inherent instability In discussions that range from The Philadelphia Story to Attack of the 50 Foot Woman Foster shows that though American cinema is an all white construct there exists the possibility of a healthy resistance to cultural norms of race gender sexuality and class

Crossing Design Boundaries Paul Rodgers, Libby Brodhurst, Duncan Hepburn, 2006-02-01 This book presents over 100 papers from the 3rd Engineering Product Design Education International Conference dedicated to the subject of exploring novel approaches in product design education The theme of the book is Crossing Design Boundaries which reflects the editors wish to incorporate many of the disciplines associated with and integral to modern product design and development pursuits Crossing Design Boundaries covers for example the conjunction of anthropology and design the psychology of design products the application of soft computing in wearable products and the utilisation of new media and design and how these can be best exploited within the current product design arena The book includes discussions concerning product design education and the cross over into other well established design disciplines such as interaction design jewellery design furniture design and exhibition design which have been somewhat under represented in recent years The book comprises a number of sections containing papers which cover highly topical and relevant issues including Design Curriculum Development Interdisciplinarity Design Collaboration and Team Working Philosophies of Design Education Design Knowledge New Materials and New Technologies in Design Design Communication Industrial Collaborations and Working with Industry Teaching and Learning Tools and Design Theory

The Play Within the Play Gerhard Fischer, Bernhard Greiner, 2007 The thirty chapters of this innovative international study are all devoted to the topic of the play within the play The authors explore the wide range of aesthetic literary theoretical and philosophical issues associated with this rhetorical device not only in terms of its original meta theatrical setting from the baroque idea of a theatrum mundi onward to contemporary examples of postmodern self referential dramaturgy but also with regard to a variety of different generic applications e g in narrative fiction musical theatre and film The authors internationally recognized specialists in their respective fields draw on recent debates in such areas as postcolonial studies game and systems theories media and performance studies to analyze the specific qualities and characteristics of the play within the play as ultimate affirmation of the self the Hamlet paradigm as a self reflective agency of meta theatrical discourse and as a vehicle of intermedial and intercultural transformation The challenging study with its underlying premise of play as a key feature of cultural anthropology and human creativity breaks new ground by placing the play within the play at the centre of a number of intersecting scholarly discourses on areas of topical concern to scholars in the humanities

Imperialism, Art and Restitution John Henry Merryman, 2006-06-05 This book is about whether or not great works of art should be returned

Nothing in Itself Herbert Blau, 1999 What Herbert Blau suggests in Nothing in Itself is that fashion itself today has been anticipating and redefining in the dazzle on the runway or even in ready to wear the terms in which it is critiqued while sometimes giving the impression that it is inseparable from critique in short there is little to be said of fashion that is not somehow visible in fashion though even in the mainstream we may call it antifashion Which is all the more reason to look at the clothes The book does so copiously with a fastidious eye to style as if nothing could be said of a garment no appropriate fabric of thought without the felt sensation

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included

Routledge Handbook of Radical Politics Ruth Kinna, Uri Gordon, 2019-05-16 Successive waves of global protest since 1999 have encouraged leading contemporary political theorists to argue that politics has fundamentally changed in the last twenty years with a new type of politics gaining momentum over elite representative institutions The new politics is frequently described as radical but what does radicalism mean for the conduct of politics Capturing the innovative practices of contemporary radicals Routledge Handbook of Radical Politics brings together leading academics and campaigners to answer these questions and explore radicalism s meaning to their practice In the thirty five chapters written for this collection they collectively develop a picture of radicalism by investigating the intersections of activism and contemporary political theory Across their experiences the authors articulate radicalism s critical politics and discuss how diverse movements support and sustain each other Together they provide a wide ranging account of the tensions overlaps and promise of radical politics while utilising scholarly literatures on grassroots populism to present a novel analysis of the relationship between radicalism and populism Routledge Handbook of Radical Politics serves as a key reference for students and scholars interested in the politics and ideas of contemporary activist movements The Urban Lifeworld Peter Madsen,Richard Plunz,2005-06-29 This volume of scholarly essays the results of detailed research contributes to our understanding of the cultural role of cities by offering a new approach to the analysis of urban experience Art on the Edge and Over Linda Weintraub,Arthur C. Danto,Thomas McEvelley,1996 Linda Weintraub recognizes that art at the end of the 20th century changes too quickly and is too multifaceted to be quickly and easily understood Here she explains the intractably avant garde art of the 1970s 80s and 90s by searching for art s meaning within the context of popular culture and the common trends that have led to new forms of artistic expression
