Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance Art and Architecture in France, 1500-1700 Anthony

Blunt, Richard Beresford, 1999-01-01 The sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in France were an epoch of spectacular artistic activity exemplified by the chateaux of the Loire valley the palace of Versailles the paintings of Poussin and Claude and the sculpture of Coysevox which echo the political and cultural importance of France and the Sun King Anthony Blunt presents major artists and their principal works chronologically provides an overview of the main projects of the period and of the artistic personalities behind them and clearly sets the historical context This new edition of one of the classics of the Pelican History of Art series has been revised and updated with color illustrations and a new bibliography The Appearance of Witchcraft Charles Zika, 2013-04-15 Shortlisted for the 2008 Katharine Briggs Award For centuries the witch has been a powerful figure in the European imagination but the creation of this figure has been hidden from our view Charles Zika's groundbreaking study investigates how the visual image of the witch was created in late fifteenth and sixteenth century Europe He charts the development of the witch as a new visual subject showing how the traditional imagery of magic and sorcery of medieval Europe was transformed into the sensationalist depictions of witches in the pamphlets and prints of the sixteenth century This book shows how artists and printers across the period developed key visual codes for witchcraft such as the cauldron and the riding of animals It demonstrates how influential these were in creating a new iconography for representing witchcraft incorporating themes such as the power of female sexuality male fantasy moral reform divine providence and punishment the superstitions of non Christian peoples and the cannibalism of the new world Lavishly illustrated and encompassing in its approach The Appearance of Witchcraft is the first systematic study of the visual representation of witchcraft in the later fifteenth and sixteenth centuries It will give the reader a unique insight into how the image of the witch evolved in the early modern world The Story of Art Throughout the Ages Salomon Reinach, 1904

Apollo; an illustrated manual of the history of art throughout the ages Solomon Reinach,1907 Raphael to Renoir Stijn Alsteens,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),National Gallery of Scotland,2009 The works from the Bonna Collection are illustrated in color and whenever possible at their actual sizes They are arranged chronologically by the artist s date of birth and are grouped according to the main artistic schools This volume is introduced by an interview with Jean Bonna by George Goldner Each drawing is then described in an entry many of which have comparative illustrations that shed further light on individual works BOOK JACKET Drawing ,1995 The Robert Lehman Collection John Pope-Hennessy,1987 An Italian Journey Linda Wolk-Simon,Carmen Bambach,Stijn Alsteens,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2010 Published in conjunction with an exhibition on view at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York May 12 Aug 15 2010 The Brochure Series of Architectural Illustration ,1899 Detailing Worlds Eric Bellin,2025-02-06 In the 21st century the word detail appears constantly in discussions of building and we use it in many different ways yet just over 250 years ago detail meant nothing at all particular to the work of architects engineers or builders Detailing Worlds is the first book to examine the origins and evolution of detail as a concept with meanings specific to practices of building By exploring how past meanings and roles were ascribed to detail in different worlds of practice those of academics technicians students engineers and architects Detailing Worlds looks to the future illuminating the ways disciplinary knowledge and the concepts on which it is based evolve and change over time It is a story about how such concepts are slowly but constantly reconceived redefined and transformed by individuals as they interact with one another and how this process is shaped by the ever changing sociocultural and technological dimensions of the world around us Richly illustrated with more than 200 images including figures from rare texts archival student drawings and practitioners construction documents from the 18th through 20th centuries Detailing Worlds ventures to tell the history of a disciplinary specific idea and offer insights about how we think and speak about the practice of building today Art Index Retrospective ,1996 Ingres, His Life & Art Lili Frölich-Bum,1926 Excavating the Medieval Image David S. Areford,2017-11-30 Medieval images especially manuscript illuminations have long been treated independently of the contexts in which they were created These beautiful miniature paintings frequently valued as keepers of documentary evidence or as curious artistic commodities have only recently become the focus of art historians concerned with new questions related to artistic working methods audience and the status of the visual in the Middle Ages and the modern era Excavating the Medieval Image argues that the illuminated image is best understood as thoroughly integrated in the material context of the manuscript and thus integrated in a cultural context of production and reception Seen in this way the illuminated manuscript becomes a kind of archaeological site which must be carefully unearthed layer by layer The fourteen essays gathered here are written by scholars of both medieval and Renaissance art history and demonstrate varied methodological approaches that combine the pursuits of traditional connoisseurship and iconography with those of critical theory and historiography In addition the authors contribute more broadly to important interdisciplinary issues such as the study of gender text and image and the history of literacy and the book Earthly Treasures Catharine Randall,2007 Earthly Treasures maps the presence position and use in the narrative of a variety of material objects in Marguerite de Navarre s Heptameron There is a wide selection of objects ranging from tapestries with scripture passages woven into the borders fine arts paintings chalices incised with proverbs emblems table linens copies of Bibles or manuscripts clothing masks stage props jewelry furniture and foodstuffs Although the presence of such material objects seems paradoxical given the scriptural mandate to disregard things of this world and to store up treasure rather in heaven Marguerite found license to use such objects both in the Bible and in the daily life oriented and artifact studded sermons and writings collected in the Table Talk of Martin Luther French Drawings from the British Museum Perrin Stein,Martin Royalton-Kisch,2005 Art-Union ,1887 Lies of the Land Camille Serchuk,2024-12-17 Lies of the Land examines the often overlooked artistic roots of mapmaking practice in early modern France offering an original perspective on discourses of accuracy and their relationship to the pictorial origins of modern mapmaking Until the seventeenth century most mapmakers in France were painters Schooled in techniques of drawing and perspective and in the careful study of nature that we associate with early modernity they also learned the more expressive and imaginative Mannerist forms that dominated French painting in this period Their maps draw on conventions of both painting and mapmaking to create beautiful informative and persuasive images for a wide variety of contexts and purposes In this book Camille Serchuk explores the strategies these cartographers deployed to weave together accuracy ornament and artifice in maps at all scales Looking beyond the techniques of measurement and perspective Serchuk shows how painterly interventions framed and manipulated the appearance and reception of cartographic objects Lies of the Land is an important new assessment of the character and status of early modern cartography that challenges binary distinctions between art and science and between decorative and epistemic images It will appeal especially to art historians and historians of sixteenth century France as well as scholars of map history
