DeRoo, 2006-01-09 This book provides an in depth account of the protests that shook France in 1968 and which served as a catalyst to a radical reconsideration of artistic practice that has shaped both art and museum exhibitions up to the present Rebecca DeRoo examines how issues of historical and personal memory the separation of public and private domains and the ordinary objects of everyday life emerged as central concerns for museums and for artists as both struggled to respond to the protests She argues that the responses of the museums were only partially faithful to the aims of the activist movements Museums in fact often misunderstood and misrepresented the work of artists that was exhibited as a means of addressing these concerns Analyzing how museums and critics did and did not address the aims of the protests DeRoo highlights the issues relevant to the politics of the public display of art that have been central to artistic representation in France as well as in North America Here and There Stanley Cavell, 2022-01-01 The first posthumous collection from the writings of Stanley Cavell shedding new light on the distinctive vision and intellectual trajectory of an influential American philosopher For Stanley Cavell philosophy was a matter of responding to the voices of others Throughout his career he articulated the belief that words spring to life in concrete circumstances of speech the significance and power of language depend on the occasions that elicit it When Cavell died in 2018 he left behind some of his own most powerful language a plan for a book collecting numerous unpublished essays and lectures as well as papers printed in niche journals Here and There presents this manuscript with thematically relevant additions for the first time These writings composed between the 1980s and the 2000s reflect Cavell s expansive interests and distinctive philosophical method The collection traverses all the major themes of his immense body of work modernity psychoanalysis the human voice moral perfectionism tragedy skepticism Cavell s rich and cohesive philosophical vision unites his wide ranging engagement with poets critics psychoanalysts social scientists and fellow philosophers In Here and There readers will find dialogues with Shakespeare Thoreau Wittgenstein Freud Heidegger Walter Benjamin Wallace Stevens Veena Das and Peter Kivy among others One of the collection s most striking features is an ensemble of five pieces on music constituting Cavell s first discussion of the subject since the mid 1960s Edited by philosophers who have been invested in Cavell s work for decades Here and There not only gathers the strands of a writing life but also maps its author s intellectual journeys In these works Cavell models what it looks like to examine seriously one s own passions and to forge new communities through unexpected conversations Piero Manzoni's Merda d'artista Luca Bochicchio, Rosalia Pasqualino di Marineo, 2025-02-24 This is the first comprehensive scholarly book on Piero Manzoni s Merda d'artista Artist s Shit one of the most provocative and misunderstood works of contemporary art Often compared to Marcel Duchamp s Fountain 1917

The Language and Style of Film Criticism Andrew Klevan, Alex Clayton, 2011-04-26. The Language and Style of Film Criticism brings together original essays from an international range of academics and film critics highlighting the achievements, complexities, and potential of film criticism. In recent years, in contrast to the theoretical, historical, and cultural study of film, film criticism has been relatively marginalised, especially within the academy. This book highlights the distinctiveness of film criticism and addresses ways in which it can take a more central place within the academy and develop in dynamic ways outside it. The Language and Style of Film Criticism is essential reading for academics, teachers, students, and journalists who wish to understand and appreciate the language and style of film criticism.
