Leibniz on God and Man in 1686 Ryan Phillip Quandt, 2023-06-05

G W Leibniz's Discourse on Metaphysics is viewed by many scholars as a milestone of his mature thought, his first attempt to systematize various stances. A lengthier theological work, Examination of the Christian Religion, written a few months after, receives less press. While Leibniz's intent for writing the theological piece may be left for speculation, Leibniz on God and Man in 1686 demonstrates that there is clear overlap between these two texts. Leibniz borrowed from the metaphysics and physics of Discourse in his theology and he writes that his metaphysical tract addresses questions on grace God's concurrence with creatures the nature of miracles the cause of sin and the origin of evil the immortality of the soul ideas etc Despite challenges for drawing them close Ryan Phillip Quandt argues that these texts converge in the moral quality of God and man that Leibniz took as the cornerstone of his system in 1686 Discourse coheres in a moral and scientific vision while Examination centers on moral commitments Love of God is their shared ideal 50

On Prayer and the Contemplative Life Thomas Aquinas, 2018-02-13 Reproduction of the original Summa Theologica, Part III \(Tertia Pars\) Thomas Aquinas, 2021-12-12 Summa Theologica Part III Tertia Pars Thomas Aquinas The Summa Theologiae Latin Compendium of Theology or Theological Compendium also subsequently called the Summa Theologica or simply the Summa written 1265-1274 is the best known work of Thomas Aquinas c. 1225-1274 and although unfinished, one of the classics of the history of philosophy and one of the most influential works of Western literature. It is intended as a manual for beginners in theology and a compendium of all of the main theological teachings of the Church. It presents the reasoning for almost all points of Christian theology in the West. The Summa's topics follow a cycle: the existence of God, Creation, Man, Man's purpose, Christ, the Sacraments, and back to God, courtesy of wikipedia.com. This is part 3, Tertia Pars. The way which leads to God is Christ, the theme of part III. It can be asserted that the incarnation was absolutely necessary. The Unio between the Logos and the human nature is a relation between the divine and the human nature which comes about by both natures being brought together in the one person of the Logos. An incarnation can be spoken of only in the sense that the human nature began to be in the eternal hypostasis of the divine nature. So Christ is unum since his human nature lacks the hypostasis. The person of the Logos accordingly has assumed the impersonal human nature and in such way that the assumption of the soul became the means for the assumption of the body. This union with the human soul is the gratia unionis which leads to the impartation of the gratia habitualis from the Logos to the human nature.

Thereby all human potentialities are made perfect in Jesus Besides the perfections given by the vision of God which Jesus enjoyed from the beginning he receives all others by the gratia habitualis
