Longman Companion To 20th Century Literature:

Longman Companion to Twentieth Century Literature A. C. Ward, 1970      The Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction John Sutherland, 2014-10-13 With over 900 biographical entries more than 600 novels synopsized and a wealth of background material on the publishers reviewers and readers of the age the Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction is the fullest account of the period's fiction ever published Now in a second edition the book has been revised and a generous selection of images have been chosen to illustrate various aspects of Victorian publishing writing and reading life Organised alphabetically the information provided will be a boon to students researchers and all lovers of reading The entries though concise meet the high standards demanded by modern scholarship The writing marked by Sutherland's characteristic combination of flair clarity and erudition is of such a high standard that the book is a joy to read as well as a definitive work of reference      Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05

Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young's novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel      The Historical Jesus in the Twentieth Century Walter P. Weaver, 1999-07-01

Written in a clear and engaging style Weaver's story chronicles not only the progress of Jesus research but also the cultural drifts and sociological phenomena that relate to the varying pictures of Jesus that scholarship has produced      Cultural Calendar of the 20th Century Edward Lucie-Smith, 1979 The extraordinary pace of events in the twentieth century has been confounding as well as exciting This is particularly so in the arts where even the accepted definition of a work of art has often broken down completely while the numerous styles and isms in literature drama music the visual arts cinema and other disciplines have been invented and discarded in quick succession This book is a chronology of change it sets the immense variety of twentieth century cultural activity year by year against the background of world events It does so not only through a succinct and authoritative narrative but also by taking each year in turn and presenting a list of the major works in each art form created during that year This is set against a concurrent general events of political social or cultural significance Each year is also individually illustrated the pictures having been carefully selected so that they evoke the styles and contrasts of the time book jacket A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J.
