Longlisted for the 2014 National Book Award Gathered here is a half century s magnificent work by the former poet laureate of the United States and Pulitzer Prize winner whose haunting and exemplary style has influenced an entire generation of American poets Beginning with the limited edition volume Sleeping with One Eye Open published in 1964 Mark Strand was hailed as a poet of piercing originality and elegance and in the ensuing decades he has not swerved from his vision of how a poem should be shaped and what it should deliver As he entered the middle period of his career with volumes such as The Continuous Life 1990 Strand was already well known for his ability to capture the subtle music of consciousness and for creating painterly physical landscapes that could answer to the inner self And here the dark infinitive to feel Which would endure and have the earth be still And the star strewn night pour down the mountains Into the hissing fields and silent towns In his later work from Blizzard of One 1998 which won the Pulitzer Prize through the sly provocative riddles of his recent Almost Invisible 2012 Strand has delighted in reminding us that there is no poet quite like him for a dose of dark wit that turns out to be deep wisdom and self deprecation He has given voice to our collective imagination with a grandeur and comic honesty worthy of his great Knopf forebear Wallace Stevens With this volume we celebrate his canonical work My Lost Poets Philip Levine,2018-04-03

Now in paperback essays speeches and journal entries from one of our most admired and best loved poets that illuminate how he came to understand himself as a poet the events and people that he wrote about and the older poets who influenced him In prose both as superbly rendered as his poetry and as down to earth and easy as speaking Levine reveals the things that made him the poet he became In the title essay originally the final speech of his poet laureate year he recounts how as a boy he composed little speeches walking in the night woods near his house and how he later realized these were his first poems He wittily takes on the poets he studied with in the Iowa Writers Workshop John Berryman who was his great teacher and lifelong friend and Robert Lowell who was neither His deepest influences jazz Spain the working people of Detroit are reflected in many of the pieces There are essays on the Spanish poets he admires on William Carlos Williams Wordsworth Keats and others A wonderful moving collection of writings that add to our knowledge and appreciation of Philip Levine both the man and the poet Hopper Mark Strand,2009-03-25 Recent U S poet laureate Mark Strand examines the work of frequently misunderstood American painter Edward Hopper whose enigmatic paintings of
