You At some point in our lives we all find ourselves in a boat in the middle of a lake We might be there due to a job loss or the death of a loved one Maybe disability divorce or financial insecurity has stranded us Patrick and Ruth Schwenk found themselves feeling battered after five miscarriages and then surrounded by the waves with Patrick s cancer diagnosis at age forty three They were alone Drifting And that s when their transformation began In this compassionate and powerful book the Schwenks weave together lessons from their own experience with insightful Bible teaching to remind us that one of the greatest ways God transforms us is through trials As they unpack why Jesus called the disciples into the middle of a lake when dry ground was so safe and comfortable they help us understand why the depth of our hurt enables us to experience deep hope learn to conquer fear to experience the freedom God has for us and discover how God uses chaos and not just the classroom to shape and work through us Today in your confusion about God s intentions your disappointment over lost dreams your disillusionment about prayer God is offering hope Because Jesus is still Lord over the water And while he is not moved by the waves he is moved by you And this flood might just be a path to abundance A powerful reminder that our current reality is not our final reality and God is Lord over all chaos and suffering Candace Cameron Bure actress and New York Times bestselling author Full Circle Arnold Berman,2022-11-03 This book will examine a person s walk with Jesus when facing an insurmountable problem What would make you act in a non Christian way What would push you to do that The premise for writing this book was that I asked myself that very question I had to reach deep into my soul to come up with a scenario that would make me react in a non Christian uncivilized manner Did I find out what that would be Yes there were several to choose from but I keyed in on one This is a fictional story but it could be a fit for more people than you may think This story includes crime prison and people that may or may not judge what was done This story revolves around a man and his family a devout Christian who loves Jesus with all his heart mind and spirit Just what did it take for him for a short time to give that up The question that I hope you will pose to yourself after reading this book is what would you do

Transformation During Incarceration Deanna Evans,2024-04-02 This book moves beyond rehabilitative strategies in corrections to engage a more holistic understanding of the communal experiences behind prison walls Behavioral deficit models dominate the field of corrections theory rehabilitation retribution deterrence incapacitation and restoration Even humanist conceptions of evolution are described as change transformation correction improvement a lexicon fixed on a distorted view of humanity What has not been explored is the resilience and human flourishing despite the systemic injustice and dehumanization of prison What innovations are possible with a change of perspective and focus on self identified stories of transformation where transformation is redefined from the lens of self efficacy and power to change one s world Where we rebuild the lexicon from a humanizing philosophy and our starting point shifts to the inherent goodness of humanity and the potential to evolve beyond limiting narratives and social constructs Where we empower those with the most to lose through our feeble attempts as outsiders to reform prison paradigms Where religious narratives of human depravity give way to trauma informed praxis and neuroscience Where community and relational equity replace solitary confinement and isolation Using an indigenous research methodology analyzing memoirs of formerly incarcerated people the book contextualizes and identifies the role of community and shared emotional connection among incarcerated people This book is essential for scholars practitioners and students concerned with the transformative journey among the incarcerated population and for anyone engaged in higher education in prison or interested in constructive change of the prison system Selected Stories Charles Mangel, 2014-12-03
