Lawler's unusual photographs makes clear that our perception and meaning of an artwork is always influenced by its local and institutional environment. Depending on whether the artwork is in a gallery, in a museum, in a depot, in the auction house, in private rooms of collectors, its presence, impact and message change. Lawler does not change the particular situation in which she takes the artwork but points to it. Exhibition Sammlung Verbund Wien Austria 15.11.2018-20.04.2019 Meta- and Inter-Images in Contemporary Visual Art and Culture Carla Taban, 2013-10-14 Exploring the epistemological potential of meta and inter images. Since the 1990s when the question of the visual became central in various arts and humanities disciplines, images that refer to themselves as such or to other images have enjoyed an increasing interest. Meta and Inter Images in Contemporary Visual Art and Culture partakes in, enriches and updates these debates. It investigates what meta and inter images can make known about the visual in its own terms by its own means. Written by scholars in aesthetics, art history and cultural film, literary media and visual studies, the essays gathered here tackle meta and inter images in an array of creative artefacts, practices and media. They unfold the epistemological potential of every meta and inter image discussed to raise questions such as: What are images? How do they work? By whom? To what purpose? To what effect? And in what context? How are they used? How are they created and understood? And how do they challenge our pre-conceptions of images and the ways we study them? Painting/Digital/Photography Carl Robinson, 2019-01-29 We live in a digital age where the mediums of art are inextricably bound to the binary code and painting and photography are redefined in their interconnected relationship through digital reconfiguration. As digitisation unmoors these mediums from their traditional supports, their modes of production, display and dissemination shift. These changes bring about new ways of creating and engaging with artworks. Through this, the innate qualities of the mediums previously anchored in their analogue nature are re-evaluated through their connection with the digital. Born out of the Painting/Digital/Photography conference held at QUAD, Derby, UK, in May 2017, this anthology of essays investigates aspects of interconnectivity between painting, digital and photography in contemporary art practices. It contributes to critical discourses around networks of associations by examining where syntheses occur and differences remain between these mediums at the beginning of the twenty-first century.
