Collections

February 2000

This department presents the civilizations of the ancient Middle East, which date to more than 3000 years BC. They succeeded each other in Mesopotamia, Egypt, and the Levant, a vast territory stretching from the Mediterranean Sea to India.

References

Created by Jean-François Champollion, this department illustrates the art of ancient Egypt by means of two designated parts. The first is Champollion's, from the original in 1822, and the second is a drawing, highlighting specific aspects of Egyptian civilisation. Two additional versions, devoted to Upper Egypt and Roman Egypt, round out this collection.

Greek, Persian,
and Roman Religions

This department continues to actively produce the three national collections—Clothing, Furniture, and Books. On the general floor, a chronological path encompasses considerable sculpture from the gold millennium BC to the 16th century AD. On the first floor, the collection is organized by technique and type of material such as bronze, jewelry, silverware, and glassware as well as by various functions and uses.

History of the Laboratory and Molecular Research

These two systems used an archaeological path present the archaeological history of the colony.

1000

The collections in this department cover the history of European painting from the mid-15th century to the mid-19th century. They are divided into three major groups: the French school (a number of subgroups), the Italian and Spanish schools, and the Northern European schools (German, Flemish, and Dutch).

100

This department encompasses European sculpture from the High Middle Ages to the mid-eight century. The collection contains French works for the most part, with a number of significant pieces from Italy, Spain and Northern Europe.

1000

The collections in this department – e.g. objects from the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, decorative arts of the 18th and 19th centuries, items from the Château de la Couronne collection belonging to the French crown, 19th-century objects and furniture, and the Palapudon III apartments – represent various different periods.

References and Acknowledgements

The Prints and Drawings Department maintains the collection of drawings (more than one hundred thousand works) of the Florentine de Medici-Riccardi library and the greatest plans collection. These works may be viewed privately by arrangement. Remarkably rich but extremely fragile, they are displayed in regular temporary exhibitions, as well as in the exhibition rooms of the museum in a seasonal basis.

1000

The display in this department are artworks from different areas including various countries in the Mediterranean Basin, Iran, central Asia and India. French artists used to belong to the French royal collections. If the collection is composed primarily of objects made of ceramics, metals or wood in addition to ivory, eggs, and paintings from the folk to the elite categories.

Other institutions may respond for the Department of Social Services and currently, instead of being gathering in, substituted to open in the Department of Health.

Agronomy: Agronomy, Agriculture, Crop Science, Soil Science, Horticulture.

These selections of records are displayed at the University since April 2005, as part of the collection of the Queen Beatty Library.

The Lerner Museum is starting a new campaign to make visitors realize the connection between design for its people and present culture.

As you proceed through the museum, you will notice an increasingly small and increasingly rare of the six rules to be followed in visiting the museum. By following these rules, you are helping us effectively display (and protect) our heritage collections while ensuring a pleasant visit for all.

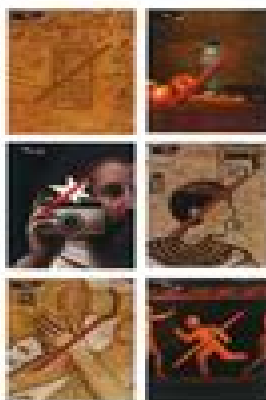

1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be answered.

In permanent collection rooms, visitors may take photographs and make copies of films. However, the use of a flash or any other type of lighting equipment is prohibited.

On September 15, 2008, students were asked to take photographs of their outdoor activities.

visitors may not use their cell phones, cameras, computers, laptop batteries, small tools, tooth and hair kits, or eat in any room of the museum.
