A History of European and American Sculpture from the Early Christian Period to the Present Day: part I early Christian sculpture; part II the middle ages; part III the renaissance Chandler Rathfon Post, 1921 Cultural Objects and Reparative Justice Patty Gerstenblith, 2023-09-20

Cultural Objects and Reparative Justice provides a comprehensive legal and historical analysis surrounding a highly debated current question: Where should cultural objects that were removed without consent be located? This book follows an innovative interdisciplinary approach based in law, history, art history, anthropology, and archaeology and proposes a paradigm for reparations. Tracing the historical foundations of the current legal framework, the work closely examines three factors that heavily informed the cultural heritage debate since the late eighteenth century: the rise of the encyclopaedic museum, the development of archaeology as a science, and the appropriation of objects in the context of armed conflict and colonialism. Each of these explorations is enriched by examples from around the globe and assessed on the international, national, and local level. Subjecting contested objects such as the Parthenon Sculptures, those from the Yuanmingyuan Palace, the Benin artifacts, looted archaeological artefacts, and human remains and artwork stolen during the Holocaust to this holistic approach enables a contextualisation of the unique history of appropriation of these objects. Cultural Objects and Reparative Justice outlines how current cultural heritage laws and ethical guidelines with respect to cultural heritage derive from a background of imperialism and colonialism. The book advocates for a new structure based on reparation, restitution, repatriation, compensation, and market regulation to cease perpetuating past harms and to disincentivize new ones.

Nineteenth-Century European Art Terry W. Strieter, 1999. Major art movements and artists of nineteenth-century Europe from the French Revolution to World War I are presented alphabetically in a dictionary format. Artists and art movements are integrated within the politics and culture of the times. An examination of the prominent authors, politicians, rulers, writers, and musicians who often posed for artists provides an historical background against which to study these famous and obscure traditional and avant-garde artists. Entries include the artists' models, many of whom became romantically involved with the artists and the artworks in which the models appear. This focus on the European continent rather than on one specific country surveys the interconnected influences and politics that pervaded the lives of the artists during this age when Europe was powerful culturally and politically and helps to explain the various art movements such as the Neo-Classical, Romantic, Realist, Impressionist, Fauvist, Cubist, Expressionist, and Abstract that consequently evolved. Art history scholars, artists, and anyone with an interest in European art and politics will appreciate the organization and detail of this comprehensive volume The alphabetical entries coupled with straightforward and accessible writing make this reference both informative and engaging As a research tool entries are cross referenced and a bibliography provides a useful guide to further research
