What Anyone Can Do Leo Bottary, 2018-09-03 Most of us don't seek advice or reach out to others for help very easily In part it's because we're conditioned to see life as an individual endeavor rather than a team sport Or because we believe that asking for help makes us look weak or incapable We regard self help as by yourself help News flash no one in the history of the world has ever achieved any level of happiness or success totally by themselves In his 1976 book The Long Run Solution Joe Henderson suggested that becoming truly accomplished at running or at anything doesn't typically require us to perform superhuman feats In fact success is frequently realized by those who simply do the things anyone can do that most of us never will In What Anyone Can Do with the help of Leo Bottary's Year of the Peer podcasts guests and playful illustrations by Ryan Foland you'll discover that if you surround yourself with the right people you'll do the things anyone can do far more often And when you do that you and the people around you will realize more of what you want out of business and life It's that simple The Power of Peers 2016 made a strong case for how and why formal peer groups are so effective This book steps outside the formal peer group arena to examine all the important relationships we have in our lives parents teachers spouses mentors children mentees etc and provides a practical approach and specific framework for harnessing their power for your benefit and theirs It's what anyone can do You're anyone right

The Education of a Value Investor Guy Spier, 2025-09-23 What happens when a young Wall Street investment banker spends a small fortune to have lunch with Warren Buffett He becomes a real value investor In this fascinating inside story Guy Spier details his career from Harvard MBA to hedge fund manager But the path was not so straightforward Spier reveals his transformation from a Gordon Gekko wannabe driven by greed to a sophisticated investor who enjoys success without selling his soul to the highest bidder Spier's journey is similar to the thousands that flock to Wall Street every year with their shiny new diplomas aiming to be King of Wall Street Yet what Guy realized just in the nick of time was that the King really lived 1 500 miles away in Omaha Nebraska Spier determinedly set out to create a new career in his own way Along the way he learned some powerful lessons which include why the right mentors and partners are critical to long term success on Wall Street why a topnotch education can sometimes get in the way of your success that real learning doesn't begin until you are on your own and how the best lessons from Warren Buffett have less to do with investing and more to do with being true to yourself Spier also reveals some of his own winning investment strategies detailing deals that were winners but also what he learned from deals that went south Part memoir part Wall Street advice and part how to Guy Spier takes readers on a ride through Wall Street but more importantly provides those that want to take a different path with the insight guidance and inspiration they need to carve out their own definition of success
