

Essentials Missing

You took the laughing sun along
The day you went away;
and, tho I hide my tears in song.
The skies are always gray
You took a portion of my heart and left an awful nick.
Now, like a clock that lacks a part,
The darned thing just won't tick.
So hurry back, and please release
The sun, for brighter weather.
and don't forget the missing piece
That holds my heart together.

autobiographical theory as well as literary and social history Talley's presentation of multiple diaries from women of differing backgrounds illuminates complexities and disparities across female wartime experiences rather than perpetuating overgeneralizations gleaned from a single diary or preconceived ideas about what these diaries contain To facilitate this comparative approach Talley divides her study into six sections that are organized by location vocation and purpose diaries of elite planter women diaries of women on the Texas frontier diaries of women on the Confederate border diaries of espionage by women in the South diaries of women nurses near the battlefield and diaries of women missionaries in the Port Royal Experiment When read together these writings illustrate that the female experience in the Civil War South was not one but many Women's Diaries from the Civil War South A Literary Historical Reading is an essential text for scholars in women's studies autobiography studies and Civil War studies alike presenting an in depth and multifaceted look at how the Civil War reshaped women's lives in the South and how their diverse responses shaped the course of the war in return Love

Letters from the Civil War Donna L. Chapman, John B. Chapman, 2000-01-01 War and Displacement in the Twentieth Century Sandra Barkhof, Angela K. Smith, 2014-03-14 Human displacement has always been a consequence of war written into the myths and histories of centuries of warfare However the global conflicts of the twentieth century brought displacement to civilizations on an unprecedented scale as the two World Wars shifted participants around the globe Although driven by political disputes between European powers the consequences of Empire ensured that Europe could not contain them Soldiers traversed continents and civilians often followed them or found themselves living in territories ruled by unexpected invaders Both wars saw fighting in Europe Africa the Middle East and the Far East and few nations remained neutral Both wars saw the mass upheaval of civilian populations as a consequence of the fighting Displacements were geographical cultural and psychological they were based on nationality sex gender or age They produced an astonishing range of human experience recorded by the participants in different ways This book brings together a collection of interdisciplinary works by scholars who are currently producing some of the most innovative and influential work on the subject of displacement in war in order to share their knowledge and interpretations of historical and literary sources The collection unites historians and literary scholars in addressing the issues of war and displacement from multiple angles Contributors draw on a wealth of primary source materials and resources including archives from across the world military records medical records films memoirs diaries and letters both published and private and fictional interpretations of experience described as another Bloomsbury set the Mecklenburgh Square writers like the Bloomsbury Group proper lived in squares and loved in triangles in Dorothy Parker's famous formulation Geographically adjacent these sets intersected socially and at points in their aesthetics both practiced innovative forms of what may broadly be defined as life writing But demarcating the Mecklenburgh Square writers from the Bloomsbury Set the former had its origins in the transatlantic avant garde Lawrence H D Aldington and John Cournos were all associated with Imagism the poetic movement which instantiated Anglo American modernism Considered as a pro tem collective these four poets all of whom were also novelists and translators contest the binaries that still obtain between modernist and First World War writing This group study of Lawrence H D Aldington and Cournos tracks the transition of Imagism from a pre war mode to a war poetics which includes but is not confined to the trench lyric and it traces in the transtextual relations between the Mecklenburgh Square novels the traumatic imprint of the war on modernist life writing
