Du Cann,1961 Charles Dickens in Love Robert Garnett,2021-08-31 Using hundreds of primary sources Charles Dickens in Love narrates the story of the most intense romances of Charles Dickens life and shows how his novels both testify to his own strongest affections and serve as memorials to the young women he loved all too well if not always wisely When Charles Dickens died in 1870 he was the best known man in the English speaking world the preeminent Victorian celebrity universally mourned as both a noble spirit and the greatest of novelists Yet the first person named in his will was an unknown woman named Ellen Ternan only a handful of people had any idea who she was Of his romance with Ellen Dickens had written it belongs to my life and probably will only die out of the same with the proprietor and so it was She remained the most important person in his life until his death She was not the first woman who had fired his imagination As a young man he had fallen deeply in love with a woman who pervaded every chink and crevice of his mind for three years Maria Beadnell When she eventually jilted him he vowed that I never can love any human creature but yourself A few years later he was stunned by the sudden death of his young sister in law Mary Scott Hogarth and worshiped her memory for the rest of his life I solemnly believe that so perfect a creature never breathed he declared and he died over thirty years later still wearing her ring Charles Dickens has no rival as the most fertile creative imagination since William Shakespeare and no one influenced his imagination more powerfully than these three women his muses and teachers in the school of love The Battle of Life Charles Dickens,2017-12-18 The Battle of Life A Love Story is a novella by Charles Dickens first published in 1846 It is the fourth of his five Christmas Books coming after The Cricket on the Hearth and followed by The Haunted Man and the Ghost's Bargain The setting is an English village that stands on the site of an historic battle Some characters refer to the battle as a metaphor for the struggles of life hence the title Battle is the only one of the five Christmas Books that has no supernatural or explicitly religious elements One scene takes place at Christmas time but it is not the final scene The story bears some resemblance to The Cricket on the Hearth in two respects it has a non urban setting and it is resolved with a romantic twist It is even less of a social novel than is Cricket As is typical with Dickens the ending is a happy one Love-lives of Charles Dickens.
