Love And Nausea:

Nausea Jean-Paul Sartre, 2007 This classic Existentialist novel features a new Introduction by renowned poet translator and critic Richard Howard Melancholy, Love, and Time Peter G. Toohey, 2010-03-11 Ancient literature features many powerful narratives of madness depression melancholy lovesickness simple boredom and the effects of such psychological states upon individual sufferers Peter Toohey turns his attention to representations of these emotional states in the Classical Hellenistic and especially the Roman imperial periods in a study that illuminates the cultural and aesthetic significance of this emotionally charged literature His probing analysis shows that a shifting representation of these afflicted states and the concomitant sense of isolation from one's social affinities and surroundings manifests a developing sense of the self and self consciousness in the ancient world This book makes important contributions to a variety of disciplines including classical studies comparative literature literary and art history history of medicine history of emotions psychiatry and psychology Peter Toohey is Professor and Department Head of Greek and Roman Studies at the University of Calgary Canada Dr. Susan Love's Breast Book Susan M. Cavell Through these studies it is argued that Shakespeare has no single or overarching concept of love and that in Shakespeare's work love is not an emotion Rather it is a form of action and disposition to be expressed and negotiated linguistically

Lawrence, 1987-05-21 Seen by Lawrence as his most accomplished book but subject to the initial prudery and incomprehension that met most of his fiction Women in Love examines the regenerative and destructive aspects of human passion as illustrated by its depiction of Ursula and Gudrun Brangwen who first appeared in The Rainbow and their relationships with Gerald Crich and Rupert Birkin Set against the backdrop of a world consuming itself in war the novel creates an instructive vision of humanity's dance with life and death This text is the famous first Women in Love the unexpurgated version preferred by Lawrence himself which was rejected by every publisher because of the banning of The Rainbow in 1915 More positive in tone than the revised version published in his lifetime with different central relationships and a radically different ending it is now viewed by many as Lawrence's masterpiece BOOK JACKET The Devil's Love
