Mediators Of The Divine:

Yahoel and Metatron Andrei A. Orlov, 2017-08-17 In this work Andrei A Orlov examines the apocalyptic profile of the angel Yahoel as the mediator of the divine Name demonstrating its formative influence not only on rabbinic and Hekhalot beliefs concerning the supreme angel Metatron but also on the unique aural ideology of early Jewish mystical accounts Back of dust jacket

Reformed Dogmatics: Christology Geerhardus J. Vos, 2015-05-16 Like books people can become classics Great in their day but richer and more fulfilling with time Not yet a classic Vos's never before published Reformed Dogmatics is more like a lost Shakespeare play recently discovered Michael Horton Until recently Reformed Dogmatics was only available in its original Dutch But now you too can access Geerhardus Vos monumental work of systematic theology This brand new English translation was edited by biblical theologian and Vos expert Richard B Gaffin Jr In Volume Three Christology Vos discusses The person of Christ Christ's two natures The incarnation The work of Christ Christ's death and resurrection The nature of Christ sacrifice Christ's offices And more

Mediators Between Human and Divine John MacQuarrie, 1996-04-01 Mediators is Macquarrie's term for that handful of outstanding human beings who inspired the world's great religions He provides lucid and readable portraits of 9 outstanding spiritual geniuses whose visions of God have been and still are among the most powerful factors shaping the lives of billions of people not only in religion but in morals politics culture virtually everything that constitutes human existence The 9 are Moses Zoroaster Lao zu Buddha Confucius Socrates Krishna Jesus and Muhammad In each case Macquarrie describes a historical figure who had a special relation to God or to Holy Being and who left a body of scripture

The Herald of the Cross J. Todd Ferrier, 1907

The Christology of John Macquarrie Vernon L. Purdy, 2009 The Christology of John Macquarrie comprehensively scrutinizes the life and writings of Scottish born systematic theologian and philosopher John Macquarrie 1919-2007 in an attempt to comprehend and evaluate his Christology The author examines the people e.g. Heidegger Schleiermacher the philosophical and theological positions and the writings that formed Macquarrie's thinking One major influence was his commitment to modern critical theology including the premise that in the modern world the only acceptable Christological tenets are those that can stand up to the scrutiny of modern critical reasoning The work concludes that this commitment profoundly shaped Macquarrie's theology especially his Christology The book also discusses Macquarrie's evaluation and criticisms of the Christology of other theologians e.g. Kierkegaard Moltmann Pannenberg and others concluding that Macquarrie's understanding of the Christian faith and the person of Jesus Christ is consonant with modern liberal Anglo Catholicism This idea furthers the argument that Macquarrie's reluctance to accept traditional incarnational categories suggests that his Christology is a modern form of Adoptionism

A Complete Body of Doctrinal and Practical Divinity John Gill, 1796

The Jewish Roots of Christological Monotheism Newman, James Davila, Lewis, 2021-10-25 Although there are many studies of second Temple Judaism in general and of Christianity's relationship with Judaism in particular there has not been a sustained and comprehensive investigation of the way in which Christ devotion in the first two centuries of the common era represents a manifestation of Jewish monotheism. This volume fills this gap in four distinctive ways: 1 by re-examining the theological force of monotheism during the Second Temple period; 2 by retracing the historical steps of Christianity's adaptation, mutation, re-definition of Jewish monotheism; 3 by exploring and debating the influence of non-Jewish traditions on this process; and 4 by mapping the ways in which Christianity's unique appropriation of Jewish monotheism helps explain the intriguing relationships among emerging Christian, Jewish, and Gnostic communities. In particular, the eighteen essays demonstrate how the creation mythic of narratives, the revelatory power of mystical experiences, and the sociology of community formation capitalized on the Jewish meditative tradition to encourage and legitimate the Christian praxis of Christ devotion. "Theosophie des Julius" Friedrich Schiller, 1919

Jeremiah among the Prophets Jack R Lundbom, 2013-03-28 This book seeks to place before beginning students and general readers a representative discussion of material contained in the biblical book of Jeremiah. It is written for those who may never look into a Jeremiah commentary or read a scholarly work on one who arguably stands as the greatest of ancient Israel's prophets. These twenty essays can be read with profit by beginning students, adults in Bible study classes, and people anywhere who simply want an introduction to Jeremiah and the book bearing his name. Hopefully, this will generate interest not only in Jeremiah but in all the Hebrew prophets who are without parallel in the ancient world and who define the office of prophet up to the present day.

Fundamental Theology Gerald O'Collins, 2001-06-26 This book is an updated investigation of the central themes of fundamental theology: revelation, hermeneutics, faith, and its formulations, and the role of authoritative teaching in the Church. In a clear and balanced manner, Gerald O'Collins sums up the best of Roman Catholic teaching since Vatican II. Students and others who are reflecting on the nature of their Christian belief will find this book invaluable. The unique quality of this work, however, is its foundation in human experience. Before he probes the theological issues, O'Collins lays down a groundwork for understanding experience. It is not an attempt to turn fundamental theology into a subjective science, but it is a recognition that the reality of God always intersects with self-conscious human beings. While it does not touch all of the themes of fundamental theology, the book does provide in-depth treatment of revelation, tradition, and inspiration.

The Study, 1875 International Conflict Mediation Jacob Bercovitch, Scott Sigmund Gartner, 2008-12-10 Pt 1 Mediation strategy; pt 2 Mediator type; pt 3 Dispute and crisis types; pt 4 The conflict management environment; pt 5 Data. A complete body of doctrinal and practical divinity; or, a system of Evangelical truths, deduced from the Sacred Scriptures. A new edition John GILL (D.D., Baptist Minister, at Horsley Down.), 1815

Mediation and Immediacy Jenny Ponzo, Robert A. Yelle, Massimo Leone, 2020-12-07 Religion, like any other domain of culture, is mediated through symbolic forms and communicative behaviors which allow the coordination of group conduct in ritual and the representation of the divine or of tradition as an intersubjective reality. While many traditions hold out the promise of immediate access to the divine or to some transcendent dimension of experience such promises depend for their realization as well on the possibility of mediation which is necessarily conducted through channels of communication and exchange such as prayers or sacrifices An understanding of such modes of semiosis is therefore necessary even and especially when mediation is denied by a tradition in the name of the ineffability of the deity or of mystical experience This volume models and promotes an interdisciplinary dialogue and cross cultural perspective on these issues by asking prominent semioticians historians of religion and of art linguists sociologists of religion and philosophers of law to reflect from a semiotic perspective on the topic of mediation and immediacy in religious traditions The Messiah James A. Waddell,2011-09-01 This volume discusses conceptual elements of messianic traditions that are identified in the Parables of Enoch and the Letters of Paul by examining the nature and functions of the divine figure and of the messiah figure Comparative analysis presented here demonstrates that the Parables of Enoch and the Letters of Paul share specific conceptual elements of messianic traditions The combination of shared elements is so striking as to preclude the possibility that the Parables of Enoch and the Letters of Paul constituted independent parallel developments It cannot be claimed however that Paul was familiar with the text of the Parables of Enoch there are no direct quotes of the Parables anywhere in Paul s Letters Waddell does however show that Paul was familiar with the conceptual elements of the Enochic messiah and that Paul developed his concept of the Kyrios out of the Son of Man traditions in the Book of the Parables of Enoch Waddell specifically argues Pauline christology was at the very least heavily influenced by Enochic Son of Man traditions

Philosopher and Prophet Yochanan Silman,2012-02-01 This book is the first to describe the development of Halevi s thought with a view to reaching a better understanding of its inherent systematic difficulties as well as enabling identification of the various strata of the book belonging to different periods in his philosophical development The first part describes a kind of Aristotelian philosophy which seems to be espoused by Halevi himself before writing the Kuzari The second part concerns itself with his early thought as expressed in certain parts of the Book of Kuzari At this stage his thought is still faithful to the essentials of the Aristotelian philosophy and its primary function is to combat Karaism Intra systematic and extra systematic difficulties peculiar to this thought give rise to the next stage in the development of his philosophy which is described in the third part This later thought is also distinguished by its strong emphasis on concrete human experience During this period Halevi retreats from many principles of Aristotelianism and his major intention is to justify his new position The fourth part deals with the dialectical unity of the Kuzari which is also reflected by the literary genre of this book as story and dialogue The Universal Way of Salvation in the Thought of Augustine Thomas P.

Harmon,2024-06-27 This work examines Augustine s critique of his Roman predecessors to reveal key aspects of Christ s mediation of the universal way of salvation Porphyry of Tyre had noticed that Christianity can make a claim that pagan religion and pagan philosophy cannot that all types of human being can be saved through the one salvific action of Christ

mediated sacramentally through the one Catholic Church Augustine's response to Porphyry is grounded firmly on Christology especially on what Augustine sees to be the unique act of Christ as mediator based in turn on Christ's unique position as true God and true man which in turn is capable of healing the whole man and by healing the whole man also healing each of the parts of the soul Christ himself as concretely universal is capable of saving each and any type of human being no matter which part of the soul rules within him Augustine counters which is not a claim his pagan interlocutors can replicate In addition to careful considerations of ancient authors like Plato Cicero Varro and Porphyry this book also ranges through Plutarch Shakespeare and contemporary political thinkers like Pierre Manent and Leo Strauss scholars of religion such as Michael Bland Simmons theologians such as Erik Peterson and Ernest L Fortin as well as well known Augustine scholars such as James Wetzel G R Evans John Cavadini Robert Dodaro Mary Keys Michael Foley Rowan Williams Oliver O Donovan John Rist and many others The Dawn, a Church and home journal ,1884
