Fallingwater Justin Gunther, Scott W. Perkins, 2025-04-01 An international treasure on the UNESCO World Heritage List Fallingwater is a total work of art This book an exciting new look at a masterpiece is a revelation for the first time seen here in its fullness Designed by Frank Lloyd Wright for Edgar Kaufmann Sr his wife Liliane Kaufmann and their son Edgar Kaufmann jr Fallingwater is lauded for its architectural daring and drama Here the Kaufmanns sought to live in harmony with the natural world The rooms of the house reflect this ideal and remain suffused with a natural aesthetic that embraces stone and wood handwork and craftsmanship In the living room the great stone floor flows riverlike toward the horizon of Wright designed built in sofas and large paned casement windows where views open to balconies to forest and to cascading falls From here the hatch opens to the flowing stream below Pools and the waters of Bear Run were beautiful and for swimming Relaxed elegance was the order of the day Delicacy softness tactility are everywhere in evidence This atmosphere pervades the whole and serves as an organic setting for the Kaufmanns collection of objects paintings textiles sculpture and products of craft that enrich and awaken the corners and nooks secreted here and there on the multiple layers and throughout the rooms of the house But much more than the sum of its parts and what it holds Fallingwater itself is art total and sublime Art in the Lives of Immigrant Communities in the United States Paul DiMaggio, María Patricia Fernández-Kelly, 2010 Art in the Lives of Immigrant

Communities in the United States is the first book to provide a comprehensive and lively analysis of the contributions of artists from America's newest immigrant communities Africa the Middle East China India Southeast Asia Central America and Mexico Adding significantly to our understanding of both the arts and immigration multidisciplinary scholars explore tensions that artists face in forging careers in a new world and navigating between their home communities and the larger society They address the art forms that these modern settlers bring with them show how poets musicians playwrights and visual artists adapt traditional forms to new environments and consider the ways in which the communities young people integrate their own traditions and concerns into contemporary expression A New Deal for Native Art Jennifer

McLerran, 2022-08-16 As the Great Depression touched every corner of America the New Deal promoted indigenous arts and crafts as a means of bootstrapping Native American peoples But New Deal administrators romanticization of indigenous artists predisposed them to favor pre industrial forms rather than art that responded to contemporary markets In A New Deal for Native Art Jennifer McLerran reveals how positioning the native artist as a pre modern Other served the goals of New Deal programs and how this sometimes worked at cross purposes with promoting native self sufficiency She describes federal policies of the 1930s and early 1940s that sought to generate an upscale market for Native American arts and crafts And by unraveling the complex ways in which commodification was negotiated and the roles that producers consumers and New Deal administrators played in that process she sheds new light on native art's commodity status and the artist's position as colonial subject In this first book to address the ways in which New Deal Indian policy specifically advanced commodification and colonization McLerran reviews its multi pronged effort to improve the market for Indian art through the Indian Arts and Crafts Board arts and crafts cooperatives murals museum exhibits and Civilian Conservation Corps projects Presenting nationwide case studies that demonstrate transcultural dynamics of production and reception she argues for viewing Indian art as a commodity as part of the national economy and as part of national political trends and reform efforts McLerran marks the contributions of key individuals from John Collier and Rene d Harnoncourt to Navajo artist Gerald Naylor whose mural in the Navajo Nation Council House conveyed distinctly different messages to outsiders and tribal members Featuring dozens of illustrations A New Deal for Native Art offers a new look at the complexities of folk art revivals as it opens a new window on the Indian New Deal Close Encounters of Empire Gilbert Michael Joseph, Catherine
