Cine Mexperimental Rita González, Jesse Lerner, 1998 A roller skating nun prophesizes the death of rock n roll in spray paint on the walls of a Mexico City high rise The angular succulent leaves of the maguey plant dance to the rhythm of Shostakovich s 11th Symphony A feminist prankster wreaks havoc in a monastic order by adding LSD to the friars drinking supply A postmodern ranchera singer savors the taste of her own pumping heart Mexican cinema is ripe with such subversive images over the last sixty years scores of film and video makers have fractured narrative and toppled conventions in an avant garde rebellion that has taken a myriad of subversive forms and they are all sampled in this first ever survey of experimental Mexican media arts Edited by Rita Gonz les and Jesse Lerner The Lost Cinema of Mexico Olivia Cosentino, Brian Price, 2022-02-08 This volume challenges the dismissal of Mexican filmmaking during the 1960s through 1980s an era long considered a low budget departure from the nation s earlier Golden Age examining the critical implications of discovering uncovering and recovering forgotten or ignored films Border Witness Michael Dear, 2023-02-21 Border Witness offers a surprising catalogue of films dealing with the US Mexico border and released during the past 100 years It compares these screen visions with what was happening on the ground at the time in both countries From revolution through to the present global crisis the films are left to speak for themselves but their stories are measured alongside the author s experience following decades of research writing and activism along the line Taken together this book outlines a unique Border Film genre just now entering its Golden Age This book also comes with a message to both nations that they should learn more from borderlanders about how to conduct cross border lives Incurable-Image Elhaik Tarek Elhaik, 2016-02-12 From the 1990s onwards the ethnographic turn in contemporary art has generated intense dialogues between anthropologists artists and curators While ethnography has been both generously and problematically re appropriated by the art world curation has seldom caught the conceptual attention of anthropologists Based on two years of participant observation in Mexico City Tarek Elhaik addresses this lacuna by examining the concept work of curatorial platforms and media artists Taking his cue from ongoing critiques of Mexicanist aesthetics and what Roger Bartra calls the post Mexican condition Elhaik conceptualises curation less as an exhibition oriented practice within a national culture than as a figure of care and an image of thought animating a complex assemblage of inter medial practices from experimental cinema and installations to curatorial collaborations Drawing on Gilles Deleuze and Paul Rabinow the book introduces the concept of the Incurable Image an antidote to our curatorial malaise and the ethical substance for a post social anthropology of images REMEX Amy Sara Carroll, 2017-12-15 REMEX presents the first comprehensive examination of artistic responses and contributions to an era defined by the North American Free Trade Agreement 1994 2008 Marshaling over a decade s worth of archival research interviews and participant observation in Mexico City and the Mexico US borderlands Amy Sara Carroll considers individual and collective art practices recasting NAFTA as the most fantastical inter American allegory of the turn of the millennium Carroll organizes her interpretations of performance installation documentary film built environment and body conceptual and Internet art around three key coordinates City Woman and Border She links the rise of 1990s Mexico City art in the global market to the period's consolidation of Mexico US border art as a genre She then interrupts this transnational art history with a sustained analysis of chilanga and Chicana artists remapping of the figure of Mexico as Woman A tour de force that depicts a feedback loop of art and public policy what Carroll terms the allegorical performative REMEX adds context to the long term effects of the post 1968 intersection of D F performance and conceptualism centralizes women artists embodied critiques of national and global master narratives and tracks post 1984 border art's undocumented racialized and sexualized reconfigurations of North American labor pools The book's featured artwork becomes the lens through which Carroll rereads a range of events and phenomenon from California's Proposition 187 to Zapatismo US immigration policy 9 11 1973 2001 femicide in Ciudad Juarez and Mexico's war on drugs
