Mibion Matters:

Mission Matters Gail Anderson, 2019-06-12 Mission Matters sheds a fresh light on how to envision relevant and impactful museums Anderson takes the understanding of mission relevance to a new level The premise of the book reflects external contemporary realities and the need for museums to better position themselves as leaders and change agents in the greater landscape and diversity of people Anderson illustrates her points with numerous examples from the US and around the world Features include essays by David Fleming from the UK who tackles the importance of mission and social issues and Charmaine Jefferson who frames the complexities of cultural competence in the 21st century Twenty museum leaders each share their institution's story of transformative change informed by reframing their mission Anderson's methodology for the book the Mission Alignment Framework helps reference the thinking about missions and the subsequent changes within museums as they redirect their work Eighty US and international mission statements reveal the range of museums disciplines and demographics from urban and rural and styles of mission all illustrating relevance to their unique settings institutional capacity resources and purpose Complementing these examples are guidelines about how to rethink mission a questioning strategy based on the Mission Alignment Framework and a range of useful tools from museums and leading thinkers in the field Mission Matters is useful to a wide range of readers and users from trustees to directors to staff from a wide range of museums regardless of size and stage of development and maturity The book is an easily accessible reference for strategic planning conversations about relevance and missions and museums considering the reinvention of their museum for greater impact Mission Matters Lynne Price, Juan Sepúlveda, Graeme Smith, 1997 Mission and Context Jione Havea, 2020-06-30 Mission is contrived from and performed over lived contexts but the visions that guide and drive mission are oftentimes blinded by power position protection and plenitude This collection visits those matters with queering attention to the shadows that empires cast over the contexts of mission and to the collusion and complicity of Christians and churches with empires past as in the case of Rome and present as in the case of the United States of America In the interests of those in mission fields who survived but continue to agonize under the burdens of empires the contributors to this work dare to re-vision the course and cause of mission Writing from minoritized settings in Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania the authors interweave the principles and practices of mission with the opportunities in decolonial theology and hermeneutics minoritized and migrant Christologies repatriation and the courage to get up and get out indigenous insights and wisdom mission archives stories of resistance and endurance in zones of contact and violence restless souls and returning spirits and life centered spiritual en-countering In Mission and Context as with previous volumes in this series empires do not have the final word nor are they the final world Mission Matters Claudia Romo Edelman, Adam Torres, 2020-11-02 Women in Business Edition Volume 1 Edition 2 Every enterprise needs leadership and great leaders are formed through both success and failure Are you and your organization positioned properly for this new age of leadership Adam Torres and Claudia Romo
