Lynes, 2013-01-07 What are the political and aesthetic dimensions of video art documentary and global cinema in contemporary image culture Lynes makes visible how sites of political struggle exploitation and armed conflict can be interpreted through a feminist politics of location attentive to the frictions and flows within transnational circuits of exchange Michal Rovner , 1994 Women, Art, and Society (Sixth) (World of Art) Whitney Chadwick, 2020-09-08 A new edition of the groundbreaking book by Whitney Chadwick maps the complete history of women artists from the Middle Ages and the Renaissance to today Art historian Whitney Chadwick's acclaimed bestselling study challenges the assumption that great women artists are exceptions to the rule who transcended their gender to produce major works of art While introducing some of the many women since the Middle Ages whose contributions to visual culture have often been neglected Chadwick's survey reexamines the works themselves and the ways in which they have been perceived as marginal often in direct reference to gender In her discussion of feminism and its influence on such a reappraisal she also addresses the closely related issues of ethnicity class and sexuality This revised edition features a completely redesigned interior and full color illustrations With a new preface and epilogue from this emerging authority on the history of women artists curator and professor Flavia Frigeri this revised edition continues the project of charting the evolution of feminist art history and pedagogy revealing how artists have responded to new strategies of feminism for the current moment Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean Vojtech Jirat-Wasiutyński, Anne Elizabeth Dymond, Vojtech Jirat-Wasiutyński, 2007-01-01 The Mediterranean is an invented cultural space on the frontier between North and South West and East Modern Art and the Idea of the Mediterranean examines the representation of this region in the visual arts since the late eighteenth century placing the idea of the Mediterranean a cultural construct rather than a physical reality at the centre of our understanding of modern visual culture This collection of essays features an international group of scholars who examine competing visions of the Mediterranean in terms of modernity and cultural identity questioning and illuminating both European and non European representations An introductory essay frames the analysis in terms of a new spatial paradigm of the Mediterranean as a geographic historical and cultural region that emerged in the late eighteenth century as France and Britain colonized the surrounding territories Essays are grouped around three vital themes visualization of the space of the new Mediterranean varied uses of the classical paradigm and issues of identity and resistance in an age of modernity and colonialism Drawing on recent geographical historical cultural and anthropological studies contributors address the visual representation of identity in both the European and the Oriental the colonial and post colonial Mediterranean The Shape of Revelation Zachary Braiterman, 2007 The Shape of Revelation highlights the image of form creation sheer presence lyric pathos rhythmic repetition open spatial dynamism and erotic pulse unique in the work of Martin Buber Franz Rosenzweig and German Expressionism in order to explore the overlap between revelation and aesthetic shape from the perspective of Judaism Arts Education and Curriculum Studies Mindy R. Carter, Valerie Triggs, 2017-07-20 Highlighting Rita L Irwin's significant work in the fields of curriculum studies and arts education this collection honors her well known contribution of a r tography to curriculum studies in the form of arts based educational research and beyond this her contributions towards understanding the inseparability of making knowing and being Together the chapters document an important beginning as well as an ongoing transitional time in which curriculum understood as aesthetic text is awakening to the ways in which art practices stimulate a social awareness at the level of other embodied practices Organized in three themes gathering transforming and becoming this volume brings together a selection of Irwin's single and co authored essays to offer a variety of rich perspectives to scholars and students in the field of education who are interested in the ways in which arts based research allows the possibilities of bringing together the artistic pedagogical and scholarly selves of an educator Architectures of Time Sanford Kwinter, 2002-08-23 An exploration of twentieth century conceptions of time and their relation to artistic form In Architectures of Time Sanford Kwinter offers a critical guide to the modern history of time and to the interplay between the physical sciences and the arts Tracing the transformation of twentieth century epistemology to the rise of thermodynamics and statistical mechanics Kwinter explains how the demise of the concept of absolute time and of the classical notion of space as a fixed background against which things occur led to field theory and a physics of the event He suggests that the closed controlled and mechanical world of physics gave way to the approximate active and qualitative world of biology as a model of both scientific and metaphysical explanation Kwinter examines theory of time and space in Einstein's theories of relativity and shows how these ideas were reflected in the writings of the sculptor Umberto Boccioni the town planning schema of the Futurist architect Antonio Sant Elia the philosophy of Henri Bergson and the writings of Franz Kafka He argues that the writings of Boccioni and the visionary architecture of Sant Elia represent the earliest and most profound deployments of the concepts of field and event In discussing Kafka's work he moves away from the thermodynamic model in favor of the closely related one of Bergsonian duree or virtuality He argues that Kafka's work manifests a coherent cosmology that can be understood only in relation to the constant temporal flux that underlies it
