Mother Country:

Mother Country Irina Reyn, 2019-02-26 Starred reviews from Library Journal and Publishers Weekly Award winning author Irina Reyn explores what it means to be a mother in a world where you can't be with your child Nadia's daily life in south Brooklyn is filled with small indignities as a senior home attendant she is always in danger of being fired as a part time nanny she is forced to navigate the demands of her spoiled charge and the preschooler's insecure mother and as an ethnic Russian she finds herself feuding with western Ukrainian immigrants who think she is a traitor The war back home is always at the forefront of her reality On television Vladimir Putin speaks of the reunification of Crimea and Russia the Ukrainian president makes unconvincing promises about a united Ukraine while American politicians are divided over the fear of immigration Nadia internalizes notions of union all around her but the one reunion she has been waiting six years for with her beloved daughter is being eternally delayed by the Department of Homeland Security When Nadia finds out that her daughter has lost access to the medicine she needs to survive she takes matters into her own hands Mother Country is Irina Reyn's most emotionally complex urgent novel yet It is a story of mothers and daughters and above all else resilience

Mother Country Stephen Bourne, 2010-08-10 Very little attention has been given to black British and West African and Caribbean citizens who lived and worked on the front line during the Second World War Yet black people were under fire in cities like Bristol Cardiff Liverpool London and Manchester and many volunteered as civilian defence workers such as air raid wardens firefighters stretcher bearers first aid workers and mobile canteen personnel Many helped unite people when their communities faced devastation Black children were evacuated and black entertainers risked death when they took to the stage during air raids Despite some evidence of racism black people contributed to the war effort where they could The colonies also played an important role in the war effort support came from places as far away as Trinidad Jamaica Guyana and Nigeria Mother Country tells the story of some of the forgotten Britons whose contribution to the war effort has been overlooked until now

Mother Country Jeremy Harding, 2020-05-05 When Jeremy Harding was a child his mother Maureen told him he was adopted She described his natural parents as a Scandinavian sailor and a little Irish girl who worked in a grocery It was only later as Harding set out to look for traces of his birth mother that he began to understand who his adoptive mother really was and the benign make believe world she built for herself and her little boy Evoking a magical childhood spent in transit between west London and a decrepit houseboat on the banks of the River Thames Mother Country is both a detective quest as Harding searches through the public records for clues about his natural mother and a rich social history of a lost London from the 1950s Mother Country is a powerful true story about a man looking for the mother he had never known and finding out how little he understood the one he had grown up with

Mother Country Jacinda Townsend, 2022-05-03 Winner of the 2022 Ernest J Gaines Award for Literary Excellence Shortlisted for the 2023 Hurston Wright Legacy Award for Fiction Finalist for the 2023 Mark Twain American Voice in Literature Award A transnational feminist novel about human trafficking and motherhood from an award winning author Saddled with student loans medical debt and the sudden news of her infertility after a major car accident Shannon an African American woman follows her boyfriend to Morocco in search of relief There in the cobblestoned medina of Marrakech she finds a toddler in a pink jacket whose face mirrors her own With the help of her boyfriend and a bribed official Shannon makes the fateful decision to adopt and raise the girl in Louisville Kentucky But the girl already has a mother Souria an undocumented Mauritanian woman who was trafficked as a teen and who managed to escape to Morocco to build another life In rendering Souria s separation from her family across vast stretches of desert and Shannon s alienation from her mother under the same roof Jacinda Townsend brilliantly stages cycles of intergenerational trauma and healing Linked by the girl who has been a daughter to them both these unforgettable protagonists move toward their inevitable reckoning Mother Country is a bone deep and unsparing portrayal of the ethical and emotional claims we make upon one another in the name of survival in the name of love

Mother Country Marilynne Robinson, 2011-04-01 At the time when Robinson wrote this book the largest known source of radioactive contamination of the world s environment was a government owned nuclear plant called Sellafield not far from Wordsworth s cottage in the Lakes District one child in sixty was dying from leukemia in the village closest to the plant The central question of this eloquently impassioned book is How can a country that we persist in calling a welfare state consciously risk the lives of its people for profit Mother Country is a 1989 National Book Award Finalist for Nonfiction
