

OPEN ADOPTION

All types of contact are shared to include in-person visits. The birth parents typically maintain a relationship with the adoptive family and the adopted child post-placement.

SEMI-OPEN ADOPTION

Little if any identifying information is available is exchanged. Contact through the adoption process and post-placement is minimal.

CLOSED ADOPTION

No identifying information is shared between birth parents and adoptive families. Birth mother chooses not to have a relationship with family nor child post-placement.
