Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies

Globalizing Contemporary Art Lotte Philipsen, 2010-10-31 Today contemporary art is a global phenomenon Biennales museums art fairs galleries auction houses academies and audiences for contemporary visual art are all institutions whose presence on a global scale has widened tremendously during the past two decades Thus by including contemporary art from non Western regions these traditional Western art institutions have not only broadened their scope to a greater extent but have also been challenged themselves by the new cultural economic and media world order of globalization How contemporary art is made international is the subject of this book tracing as it does developments during the past two decades while focusing particularly on the mechanisms of globality which are at work in the art world today The book critically investigates fundamental questions like What is New Internationalism in contemporary art and how it affected the art world How does New Internationalism relate to concepts like ethnicity aesthetics standard art history and new media And how is New Internationalism rather paradoxically furthered to a greater extent by global capitalism than it is by seemingly progressive art projects
