Center,1969 Strategic Reforms for Agricultural Growth in Pakistan Rashid Faruquee,1999 Future prospects for the agricultural sector in Pakistan depend on its ability to increase output and income of producers Agriculture remains the backbone of the Pakistani economy employing more than half the labor force and accounting for 70 per cent of export revenues However agriculture faces two sets of constraints in Pakistan resource constraints and policy distortions This volume deals with the major resource and policy constraints currently facing Pakistani agriculture Government involvement in Pakistan s agricultural sector has been excessive and often inappropriate and agricultural reforms are a key part of the adjustment program underway in Pakistan Some of the principal goals of the program are to ensure a sound and sustainable macroeconomic framework with sustainable internal and external balances to liberalize trade privatize government owned enterprises deregulate and eliminate public sector monopolies and to reform the financial sector The agricultural sector can contribute to the Pakistani economy and to the adjustment program Agriculture has the potential to make a larger contribution to total revenue and plays an important role in external balances A favorable climate gives Pakistan a strong comparative advantage in horticulture as indicated by the rapid growth of the subsector in the absence of policy interventions Optimal groundwater management in Pakistan's Indus Water Basin Nasim Sanval,Helfand,

Steven,2016-01-15 In this report we examine the management of groundwater in Pakistan s Indus Basin through a model of groundwater extraction with hydrologic economic and tenure constraints We develop a groundwater extraction model for the Indus Basin and simulate the effect of common property management the status quo in the Indus Basin and optimal management on groundwater extractions water table height groundwater quality and annual net benefits from irrigated agriculture The analysis provides a framework to develop and discuss policies that could lead to the optimal management of groundwater 1971 Srinath Raghavan,2013-11-12 The war of 1971 that created Bangladesh was the most significant geopolitical event in the Indian subcontinent since partition in 1947 It tilted the balance of power between India and Pakistan steeply in favor of India Srinath Raghavan contends that the crisis and its cast of characters can be understood only in a wider international context

Experimental evidence on public good behavior across Pakistan's fractured educational system Aftab, Zehra,2016-01-15 This paper adopts identity as a core concept Following Akerlof and Kranton 2010 it demonstrates how our social identities and not just economic incentives influence our decisions I acknowledge that identity is a multi layered concept incorporating not only a social dimension class and gender but also has ideological religious orientation and linguistic dimensions The paper argues that even within the same respective identity group context is important in the sense that decisions vary based on who one interacts with their identity and their respective actions

Political Conflict in Pakistan Mohammad Waseem,2022-04-01 This book is a major reinterpretation of politics in Pakistan

Its focus is conflict among groups communities classes ideologies and institutions which has shaped the country's political dynamics Mohammad Waseem critically examines the theory surrounding the millennium long conflict between Hindus and Muslims as separate nations who practiced mingled faiths and the Hindu Muslim and Sikh renaissances that created a twentieth century clash of communities and led to partition Political Conflict in Pakistan addresses multiple clashes between the high culture as a mission to transform society and the low culture of the land and the people between those committed to the establishment's institutional constitutional framework and those seeking to dismantle the colonial state between the corrupt and those seeking to hold them to account between the political class and the middle class and between civil and military power The author exposes how the ruling elite centralised power through the militarisation and judicialization of politics rendering the federalist arrangement an empty shell and thus grossly alienating the provinces He sets all this within the contexts of education and media as breeders of conflict the difficulties of establishing an anti terrorist regime and the state's pragmatic attempts at conflict resolution by seeking to keep the outsiders inside This is a wide ranging account of a country of contestations Near East and South Asia Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center,1970
