Reflections From Back Roads Of America:

Reflections from the Back Roads of America Beverly M. Butler, 1993-07-01 The Tumbleweed Traversed the Dusty Road: Poems, Reflections on the Great American West Thomas Henry Carter, 2007-07-01 Western Poems and Reflections is a book of poems written by a Wannabe Cowboy who took a once in a lifetime trip through the American West While touring the West he chronicled the feelings he experienced as he viewed the grandeur of the American West into some unforgettable poems and reflections This chapbook of Western Poems is suited to lovers of the American West who would like to experience firsthand the American West through poems and reflections of the author Through the author's poems you can see the blue water of Crater Lake and view Custer's last stand or experience the Little House on The Prairie A Road Trip Into America's Hidden Heart - Traveling the Back Roads, Backwoods and Back Yards John Drake Robinson, 2012-11 He bought the car a dozen years ago Together they traveled every mile of every road on his highway map a 250 000 mile journey to discover the real America beyond the interstate Real people Obscure places Forgotten facts His story unfolds in Missouri but it could be about any state any traveler who drives into America's hidden heart Reflections James O. Jeffers, 2003 The book chronicles James Jeffers life from about age two but it purposefully falls short of being either memoirs or autobiography With this work he has attempted to simply record for his children grandchildren and others the wonderful events of his life as he experienced them The book covers thousands of miles of travel along with living and working with peoples of differing cultures on three continents and in the Caribbean five foreign countries and fifteen different states spanning the nation from coast to coast to coast Reflection on America's Great Loop George Hospodar, Patricia Hospodar, 2012 Adventure is not just for the young Though I own a boat was the opening phrase to their courtship and eventual married life little did Baby Boomer couple George and Pat Hospodar know then that those words would lead to their making a year long journey of a lifetime aboard their boat Reflection almost forty years later This book welcomes and encourages not only fellow boaters but also armchair adventurers and dreamers of all ages to join them aboard as they share a light hearted real life account of their travels on the circumnavigation of the waterways of the eastern United States and Canada In addition for those who may consider making this journey themselves the authors offer insights and tips on Routes Anchorages Navigation Locking Marinas Free dockage Low bridges Fuel stops Restaurants Shopping Points of interest and local history Border crossings in Canada and the United States Local marine weather websites and phone numbers

Back Roads and Better Angels Francis S. Barry, 2025-05-06 Bringing together two of America s unifying loves road trips and Abraham Lincoln Frank Barry takes readers on a thought provoking journey into the heart of our democracy and the soul of our country Barry probes the American soul finding its biases but also nurtured by its complicated past our better angels with an opportunity to move forward Ken Burns A year into his marriage and having never driven an RV Frank and his wife Laurel set out from New York City in a Winnebago to drive the nation s first transcontinental route the Lincoln Highway which zigzags through small towns and big cities from Times Square to San Francisco Using the spirit of Abraham Lincoln to guide them across the land they hope to see more clearly what holds the country together and how we can keep it together even amidst political divisions have grown increasingly rancorous bitter and exhausting Along the way Frank and Laurel meet Americans whose personal experiences help humanize the nation s divisions and they encounter historical figures and events whose legacies are still shaping our sense of national identity and the struggles over it This unforgettable journey is full of what makes any great road trip memorable and enjoyable music conversation and laughter By the end readers will have a clearer picture of how we have arrived at a period that carries echoes of the Civil War era and using Lincoln as a guide where the path forward lies The Civil Rights Movement in America Charles W. Eagles, 2010-01-06 With essays and commentaries by David Levering Lewis Clayborne Carson Steven F Lawson Nancy J Weiss David J Garrow John Dittmer Neil R McMillen Charles V Hamilton Mark V Tushnet William H Chafe and J Mills Thornton III The Civil Rights Movement warrants continuing and extensive examination The six papers in this collection each supplemented by a follow up assessment contribute to a clearer perception of what caused and motivated the movement of how it functioned of the changes that occurred within it and of its accomplishments and shortcomings Its profound effect upon modern America has so greatly changed relations between the races that C Vann Woodward has called it the second revolution In a limited space the eleven scholars range with a definitive view over a large subject Their papers analyze and emphasize the Civil Rights Movement s important aspects its origins and causes its strategies and tactics for accomplishing black freedom the creative tensions in its leadership the politics of the movement in the key state of Mississippi and the role of federal law and federal courts In this collection a scholarly balance is achieved for each paper by a follow up commentary from a significant authority By deepening the understanding of the Civil Rights Movement these essays underscore what has been gained through struggle as well as acknowledging the goals that are yet to be attained What's an American

Doing Here? Reflections on Travel in the Third World Stanley C. Diamond, 2010-06 Stan Diamond s adventurous travel to remote corners of the world provides inspiration to the prospective and seasoned traveler alike As a life long educator his observations about the value and meaning of such travel are thoughtful and informative while his encounters with all kinds of people in unusual places offer knowledge humor surprise and joy Stan s memoir begins with his childhood thumbing through pictures in an old World Book Encyclopedia and continues through his development as an enthusiastic voyager to some of the least likely destinations imaginable So what else is there to worry about beside disease and sanitation running out of gas or unavailability of medical care Well maybe rockslides and landslides storms and floods frozen roads and crazy drivers marauding bandits and slippery thieves insurrections and civil wars spewing volcanoes and other such precarious hazards one might stumble upon Frankly I do not have any good advice for the reader about such things Just try to avoid them if you can Stan Diamond spent most of his life teaching children directing schools and writing about his educational ideas In his retirement he transformed those skills to become a popular lecturer consultant and author He lives in Philadelphia
