Reform Of The Papacy:

Reform and the papacy in the eleventh century Kathleen G. Cushing, 2020-01-03 This book explores the relationship between the papacy and reform against the backdrop of social and religious change in later tenth and eleventh century Europe Placing this relationship in the context of the debate about transformation it reverses the recent trend among historians to emphasise the reform developments in the localities at the expense of those being undertaken in Rome It focuses on how the papacy took an increasingly active part in shaping the direction of both its own reform and that of society whose reform became an essential part of realising its objective of a free and independent Church It also addresses the role of the Latin Church in western Europe around the year 1000 the historiography of reform the significance of the Peace of God as a reformist movement the development of the papacy in the eleventh century the changing attitudes towards simony clerical marriage and lay investiture reformist rhetoric aimed at the clergy and how reformist writings sought to change the behaviour and expectations of the aristocracy Summarising current literature while presenting a cogent and nuanced argument about the complex nature and development of reform this book will be invaluable for an undergraduate and specialist audience alike The Papal Reform of the Eleventh Century, 2013-01-01 The eleventh century papal reform transformed western European Church and society and permanently altered the relations of Church and State in the west The reform was inaugurated by Pope Leo IX 1048-54 and given a controversial change of direction by Pope Gregory VII 1073-85 This book contains the earliest biographies of both popes presented here for the first time in English translation with detailed commentaries The biographers of Leo IX were inspired by his universally acknowledged sanctity whereas the biographers of Gregory VII wrote to defend his reputation against the hostility generated by his reforming methods and his conflict with King Henry IV Also included is a translation of Book to a Friend written by Bishop Bonizo of Sutri soon after the death of Gregory VII as well as an extract from the violently anti Gregorian polemic of Bishop Benzo of Alba 1085 and the short biography of Leo IX composed in the papal curia in the 1090s by Bishop Bruno of Segni These fascinating narrative sources bear witness to the startling impact of the papal reform and of the Investiture Contest the conflict of empire and papacy that was one of its consequences An essential collection of translated texts for students of medieval history The Reform of the Papacy John R.
