Technology Intervention and Perspectives of Human Values These Volumes will be helpful to the students of higher education and teacher education as well as teachers researchers experts policy makers and development administrators working for quality education Leading the Self-Managing School Brian J. Caldwell,Jim M. Spinks,2005-08-02 This work is a sequel to

The Self Managing School and deals with leadership responsibilities on two levels as head of a school responsible for local management and as a director in a Local Education Authority responsible School Effectiveness and School Improvement Bert.P.M. Creemers,Ton Peters,David Reynolds,2022-02-26 School effectiveness and school improvement have different origins School effectiveness is more directed to finding out what works in education and why school improvement is practice and policy oriented and intended to change education in the desired direction However in their orientation to outcomes input processes and context in education they also have much in common In the theoretical part different orientations have been analysed and combined in a model for effective school improvement Based on this analysis an evaluation framework was developed for the analysis of the case studies of school improvement projects in the participating countries The theoretical model and the results of the analyses of the case studies were combined in a framework of effective school improvement

Routledge Library Editions: Education Management Various,2021-07-29 Reissuing works originally published between 1975 and 1997 this collection includes books covering all aspect of managing schools from primary to further education With an international selection of authors some volumes present case studies while others address wider areas of concern in the management of educational institutions Individual volumes concern special schools and specific types such as the grant maintained system in the UK Topics cross over from finance to staff development to politics and governance to innovation This is an excellent varied set for any education management bookshelf Reclaiming the Teaching Profession J. Amos Hatch,2015-02-24 Reclaiming the Teaching Profession gives educators especially teachers and future teachers and their allies a clear overview of the massive effort to dismantle public education in the United States which includes a direct attack on teachers The book details and provides a systematic critique of the shaky assumptions at the foundation of the market based reform initiatives that dominate the contemporary education scene It names and exposes the motives and methods of the powerful philanthropists politicians business moguls and education entrepreneurs who are behind the reform movement It provides counter narratives that public school advocates can use to talk back to those who would destroy the teaching profession and public education It includes examples of successful acts of resistance and identifies resources for challenging reformers taken for granted primacy in the education debate It concludes with strategies educators can use to speak truth to power reclaim their professional status and reshape the education landscape in ways that serve all of America's children and preserve our democracy Reclaiming Community Bianca J. Baldrige,2019-05-28 Approximately 2.4 million Black youth participate in after school programs which offer a range of support including academic tutoring college preparation political identity development cultural and emotional support and even a space to develop strategies and tools for organizing and activism In Reclaiming Community Bianca Baldrige tells the story of one such community based program Educational Excellence EE shining a light on both the invaluable role youth workers play in these spaces and the precarious context in which such programs now exist Drawing on rich ethnographic data Baldrige persuasively argues that the story of EE is representative of a much larger and understudied phenomenon With the spread of neoliberal ideology and its reliance on racism marked by individualism market competition and privatization these bastions of community support are losing the autonomy that has allowed them to embolden the minds of the youth they serve Baldrige captures the stories of loss and resistance within this context of immense external political pressure arguing powerfully for the damage caused when the same structural violence that Black youth experience in school starts to occur in the places they go to escape it

Reclaiming the Teaching Discourse in Higher Education Ian M. Kinchin, 2025-02-20 This book examines university teaching to encourage a move away from the singular lens of neoliberalism towards more a pluralistic stance that inspires a healthy diversity of theories and practices University teaching is dominated by neoliberal cultures of measurement consumerism and deficit generating a monocultural narrative that disenfranchises the higher education teaching community Collaborative communities of support are now perceived as performative regimes of surveillance and existing injustices in the education system have been amplified by institutional responses to the COVID 19 pandemic This book offers a reappraisal of the current state of university teaching and re imaginings of potential futures Inspired by emerging perspectives in educational research and building upon Biesta's notion of the rediscovery of teaching the book encourages an escape from accepted wisdom liberating teaching from the bonds of reductive binary and linear thinking and accepting the need for a plurality of theoretical perspectives While universities use popular terms such as student centredness global excellence active learning and so on and will highlight key performance metrics such as student satisfaction or teaching excellence awards the reality is that much current teaching practice is rather traditional teacher centred passive and content heavy Despite managerial emphasis on best practice and evidence based practice teaching is not reducible to a simple set of competencies and student learning is not adequately summarised as a list of graduate attributes Teaching is relational and highly context dependent and our discussion of teaching should recognise this The performative culture pervading many campuses can dampen down large scale innovation leaving marginalised pockets of subversive collaboration and experimentation to operate below the corporate radar Here the contributors give voice to some of those emerging ideas and challenge neoliberal orthodoxy
