Religion Is A Personal Matter:

Religion is a Personal Matter Philip A. Verhalen, 1990 This book investigates the religious role of the individual person in a community setting as it provides a review of the chief issues of Western religion that an introductory text would address Most Westerners with a Judeo Christian background do not readily distinguish theological inquiry from religious phenomena To meet this need the author reviews the chief disciplines related to the scientific study of religion under the central question How is a person religious both as an individual and as a member of a community The author surveys the current history of ideas related to religious phenomena in the areas of philosophy sociology psychology and Western theology The

Matthews, 1993 Religion beyond its Private Role in Modern Society Wim Hofstee, A. van der Kooij, 2013-09-12 The volume Religion beyond its Private Role in Modern Society aims at contributing to the debate on the distinction between public and private spheres with regard to the role of religion in modern societies This issue which is inherent to many conceptions regarding social order modernity freedom of conscience and the changing role and function of religion is discussed not only from a social scientific but also from a historical and philosophical point of view The articles dwell on several aspects of the role of religion in different societies in modern times and the overall theme is explored from the perspective of various religious traditions and groups both institutional and non institutional It turns out that the distinction made is difficult to maintain Contributors include Bart Labuschagne Linda Woodhead Niek Brunsvelde Dick Douwes Mohammed Ghaly Heleen Murre van den Berg David Novak Alexandros Sakellariou Matthew Tennant Bruno Verbeek Ernestine G E van der Wall William Arfman Stef Aupers Jeroen Boekhoven Meerten B ter Borg and Kees de Groot Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives,

Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk, Gerdien Bertram-Troost, Markus Friederici, Céline Béraud, 2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14-16 year age group in Europe see the relevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored
