Awqaf of al Khassaf This work undertakes a textual analysis of the treatises The ^AEvolution of the Book Frederick G. Kilgour, 1998-04-23 Distinguished scholar and library systems innovator Frederick Kilgour tells a five thousand year story in this exciting work a tale beginning with the invention of writing and concluding with the emerging electronic book Calling on a lifetime of interest in the growth of information technology Kilgour brings a fresh approach to the history of the book emphasizing in rich authoritative detail the successive technological advances that allowed the book to keep pace with ever increasing needs for information Borrowing a concept from evolutionary theory the notion of punctuated equilibria to structure his account Kilgour investigates the book s three discrete historical forms the clay tablet papyrus roll and codex before turning to a fourth still evolving form the cyber book a version promising swift electronic delivery of information in text sound and motion to anyone at any time The clay tablet initially employed as a content descriptor for sacks of grain proved inadequate to the growing need for commercial and administrative records Its successor the papyrus roll was itself succeeded by the codex a format whose superior utility and information capacity led to sweeping changes in the management of accumulated knowledge the pursuit of learning and the promulgation of religion Kilgour throughout considers closely both technological change and the role this change played in cultural transformation His fascinating account of the modern book from Gutenberg s invention of cast type printing five hundred years ago to the arrival of books displayed on a computer screen spotlights the inventors engineers and entrepreneurs who in creating the machinery of production and dissemination enabled the book to maintain its unique cultural power over time Deft provocative and accessibly written The Evolution of the Book will captivate book lovers as well as those interested in bibliographic history the history of writing and the history of technology

Classes of Ladies of Cloistered Spaces Marilyn Booth, 2015-01-20 Zaynab Fawwaz c 1860 1914 was as a forceful voice in support of women s rights to education and work choices in colonial era Egypt Her volume of 453 women s lives al Durr al manthur fi tabaqat rabbat al khudur Pearls scattered in times and places Classes of ladies of cloistered spaces 1893 6 featuring Boudicca Catherine the Great Zaynab the granddaughter of the Prophet Muhammad Victoria Woodhull the Turkish poet Sirri Hanım and many others built on the Arabic Islamic biographical tradition to produce a work for women in the modern era grafting European Turkish Arab and Indian life narratives amongst others onto Arabic literary patterns In Classes of Ladies of Cloistered Spaces Marilyn Booth argues that Fawwaz s work was less exemplary biography than feminist history in its exploration of achievement but also of patriarchal trauma in the lives of women across times and places She traces Fawwaz s creative use of her sources her presentation of biographical narratives in the context of the political essays she wrote in the Arabic press her publicised dialogue with the President of the Board of Lady Managers of the 1893 World Columbian Exposition where she attempted to send the volume and how her inscription of a feminine ancient history diverged from that of men writing history in 1890s Egypt

A Companion to Muslim Cultures Aryn Sajoo, 2011-11-22 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Culture shapes every aspect of the relationship between God and the believer in Islam as well as among believers and with those beyond the fold Fasts prayers and pilgrimages are attuned to social rhythms old and new no less than the designs of mosques and public gardens the making of religious music and ways of thinking about technology and wellbeing Ancient deserts and modern urban landscapes may echo with the same call for transcendence but in voices that emerge from very different everyday realities Scripture itself as the Prophet Muhammad knew is ever seen through a cultural lens both language and what it communicates are intimately tied to context And the cosmopolitanism that runs through Muslim history from the outset recalls T S Eliot s remark that culture is that which makes life worth living It frames how the deepest religious values are understood and practiced from modesty in adornment and solidarity with the underprivileged to integrity and accountability in political life Muslims have never been content with a passive separation of faith from their daily lives whether public or private What are the implications of this holistic view in a diverse world of Muslims and non Muslims How do core ethical values interface with the particulars of local cultures in all their complexity especially when it comes to matters like the status of women and the scope of individual religious freedom The answers at a time when secular and Muslim identities appear to be locked in conflict are explored in this Companion by some of today s finest scholars

Al-Ghazālī's Unspeakable Doctrine of the Soul Timothy J. Gianotti, 2001-08-16 This text marks a radical rethinking of the soul and the afterlife in the writings of al Ghaz l d 505 1111 particularly within his magnum opus Reviving Religious Knowledge Ihy ul m al d n Attending closely to variations of genre and discourse mode within his works it attempts to resolve some of the major ambiguities that have vexed al Ghaz l s readers for nearly nine hundred years Beginning with his theory of multi level multi genre writing and working through his theological philosophical and mystical positions on the soul s true nature the study culminates in an exploration of al Ghaz l s mystical psycho cosmology where some startling conclusions are drawn regarding his most intimate thoughts on the secrets of the soul and the Hereafter Meticulously researched and yet engagingly written this study speaks to both the specialist and the amateur intellectual historian
