Religion Society In Buganda 1875 19:

Missions, Nationalism and the End of Empire Stanley,Alaine M. Low,2003 Christian missions have often been seen as the religious arm of Western imperialism What is rarely appreciated is the role they played in bringing about an end to the Western colonial empires after the Second World War Missions Nationalism and the End of Empire explores this neglected subject Respected authorities on the history of missions explore new territory in these chapters examining from diverse angles the linkages between Christianity nationalism and the dissolution of the colonial empires in Asia and Africa This work not only sheds light on the relation of religion and politics but also uncovers the sometimes paradoxical implications of the church s call to bring the gospel to all the world Contributors Daniel H Bays Philip Boobbyer Judith M Brown Richard Elphick Deborah Gaitskell Adrian Hastings Caroline Howell Ka che Yip Ogbu U Kalu Hartmut Lehmann Derek Peterson Andrew Porter Brian Stanley John Stuart

Anxiety in and about Africa Andrea Mariko Grant,Yolana Pringle,2020-12-01 How does anxiety impact narratives about African history culture and society This volume demonstrates the richness of anxiety as an analytical lens within African studies Contributors call attention to ways of thinking about African spaces physical visceral somatic and imagined as well as about time and temporality Through a multidisciplinary approach the volume also brings histories of anxiety in colonial settings into conversation with work on the so called negative emotions in disciplines beyond history While anxiety has long been acknowledged for its ability to unsettle colonial narratives to reveal the vulnerability of the colonial enterprise this volume shows it can equally complicate contemporary narratives such as those of sustainable development migration sexuality and democracy These essays therefore highlight the need to take emotions seriously as contemporary realities with particular histories that must be carefully mapped out

Carl Peters and German Imperialism 1856-1918 Arne Perras, 2004-07-22 Carl Peters 1856 1918 ranked among Germany's most prominent imperialists in the Bismarckian and Wilhelmine periods In the 1880s he emerged as a leader of the colonial movement and became known as the founder of Deutsch Ostafrika a region many Germans regarded as the pearl of their overseas possessions In Nazi Germany he was revered as a precursor of Hitler and ascended retrospectively to new glory as a pioneer in the struggle for Lebensraum This scholarly biography examines Peters's nationalist agenda and sheds light on his colonial expeditions into East Africa It seeks to explain how this young academic who had written about Schopenhauer and metaphysics eventually became a skilful agitator for a German world empire

Reliving the Past Olivier Zunz, Charles Tilly, David William Cohen, William B. Taylor, William T. Rowe, 2014-02-01 Five historians uncover the ties between people's daily routines and the all encompassing framework of their lives They trace the processes of social construction in Western Europe the United States Latin America Africa and China discussing both the historical similarities and the ways in which individual history has shaped each area's development They stress the need for a social history that connects individuals to major ideological political and economic transformations

Religion and Society in Buganda 1875- 1900, The Religious Traditions of Africa Elizabeth Isichei, 2004-11-23 This work is a first of its kind historical introduction to the major religions of Africa The vast majorities of

Africa's peoples have been Muslim, Christian, or Traditionalist for a great deal of time, making an inclusive study of these religions essential. Isichei's work gives equal attention to all three religions and balances the elements of each to construct an easily accessible overview. It is also the first book to provide a comprehensive look at the traditional religion in Africa, filling the void in the literature on African religious history. Written by a pioneering scholar in the African religious experience, this volume blends in-depth research and personal accounts to explore the origins and effects of religion in Africa. While primarily a work of history, this book also incorporates the latest findings while engaging with current issues such as the interface of neo-traditional religion and contemporary cultures. This work includes four sections, each dedicated to a separate religion, detailed maps, a glossary, and a guide to further reading.

Frederick Burkewood Welbourn, 1965 Missions, States, and European Expansion in Africa Chima J. Korieh, Raphael Chijioke Njoku, 2007-11-21 This volume uses a wide range of perspectives to address the intersection between missions, evangelism, and colonial expansion across Africa.

Iyewalyanga, 1976 Converting Colonialism Dana L. Robert, 2008-01-02 Series: Studies in the History of Christian Missions SHCM In this volume, leading historians of Christianity in the non-Western world examine the relationship between missionaries and nineteenth-century European colonialism and between indigenous converts and the colonial contexts in which they lived. Forced to operate within a political framework of European expansionism that lay outside their power to control missionaries and early converts, variously attempted to co-opt certain aspects of colonialism and to change what seemed prejudicial to gospel values. These contributors are the leading historians in their fields and the concrete historical situations that they explore show the real complexity of missionary efforts to convert colonialism. Contributors: J. F. Ade Ajayi, Roy Bridges, Richard Elphick, Eleanor Jackson, Daniel Jeyaraj, Andrew Porter, Dana L. Robert, R. G. Tiedemann, C. Peter Williams.
