Contrasts in

Religion, Community, and Structure at Three Homeless Shelters Ines W. Jindra, Michael Jindra, Sarah

DeGenero, 2021-11-17 How do people in poverty and homelessness change their lives and get back on their feet Homeless shelters across the world play a huge role in this process Many of them are religious but there is a lot of diversity in faith based non profits that assist people affected by poverty and homelessness In this timely book the authors look at three homeless shelters that take more or less intensive approaches to faith community and programming In one shelter for instance residents are required to do a program of classes that includes group Bible study worship and self evaluation The other two examined are significantly less faith based but in different ways and with different structures The authors show how the three shelters tackle homelessness differently drawing on narrative biographical interviews and case studies with residents interviews with staff and case study research of the three shelters Entering into significant debates in social theory over religion agency cognitive action and culture this book is important reading for scholars and students in religious studies sociology and social work

Measures of Spirituality/Religiosity (2018) Arndt Büssing,2019-04-30 The interest in the topic of spirituality as a more or less independent dimension of quality of life is continuously growing and research questions are beginning to change as the field of religiosity changes becoming more diverse and pluralistic Addressing new topics in health research also relies on standardized questionnaires The number of instruments intended to measure specific aspects of spirituality is growing and it is particularly difficult to evaluate the new instruments This Special Issue will focus on some of the established instruments updating them to different languages and cultures but will also describe the features and intentions of newly developed instruments which may potentially be used in larger studies to develop knowledge relevant to spiritual care and practice This Special Issue will serve as a resource on the instruments used to study the wide range of organized religiosity the individual experience of the divine and an open approach in the search for meaning and purpose in life

Perspectives on the Intersection of Multiculturalism

and Positive Psychology Jennifer Teramoto Pedrotti, Lisa M. Edwards, 2014-03-24 The volume will be a collection of chapters about current theory research and practice related to multiculturalism and positive psychology This book will serve as a reference to any who are interested in the intersection of positive psychology and multicultural context While many in the field of positive psychology have begun to move more strongly towards a culturally embedded approach that recognizes the importance of context in discussing viewing and cultivating strengths in individuals from different backgrounds there is still a dearth of research in this area compared with studies that take a cross cultural approach comparing people from different countries or one that is purported to be culture free or universal in its application While it is becoming more common to see various articles or chapters published on these topics there is still no comprehensive text aimed at discussion of the collection of these topics presented in a cohesive and structured way This book aims to fill this gap in the literature In this book a broad definition of culture is utilized that includes such facets as race ethnicity socioeconomic or social class status disability religion sexual orientation and gender This book is intended to present research theory and suggestions for practice that are grounded in diverse cultural contexts and current scholarship It will assist researchers students and practitioners who are studying and working within diverse populations Currently there exists no comprehensive text that addresses the intersection of positive psychology and multiculturalism Several edited volumes address positive psychology constructs e g well being optimal experience autonomy across cultures but they do not focus on multicultural populations within the United States Other books focus more specifically on mental health applications and stress and coping among multicultural populations however these books do not provide a broad perspective on psychology beyond this application piece The proposed book will review current theory and research about constructs in addition to applications across contexts Finally other published books have focused on youth within multicultural society this volume is more broad in its address of issues of positive psychology across the lifespan and across various aspects of identity including disability gender social class and sexual orientation

Health through Spiritual Practices Dean D. VonDras Ph.D., 2017-08-18 An in depth examination of religious practices around the world and the fascinating science behind how they make us healthier Many religious and spiritual beliefs promote wellness through their practices or stated objectives for example focusing on simple living having compassion for others vegetarianism or meditation and mindfulness This refreshing work provides a review of the world s spiritual perspectives and traditions and explores how their guiding principles encourage healthy lifestyle choices An examination of religious and nonreligious perspectives from around the world from atheism Confucianism and Christianity to Islam Judaism Shamanism and Zoroastrianism reveals how faith beliefs and values influence behavior and inspire healthy living With contributions from leading international scholars the chapters include a discussion of Eastern and Western world religions and their practices such as fasting or the avoidance of alcohol and tobacco and how they may foster healthfulness A contemporary analysis of current research findings suggests possible interventions that individuals and health providers may utilize to enhance healthfulness A final chapter explores the connection between health illness and religious and nonreligious perspectives

Spirituality across Disciplines: Research and Practice: Marian de Souza, Jane Bone, Jacqueline Watson, 2016-06-29

This book collects multiple disciplinary voices which explore current research and perspectives to discuss how spirituality is understood interpreted and applied in a range of contexts It addresses spirituality in combination with such topics as Christian mysticism childhood and adolescent education midwifery and sustainability It links spirituality to a variety of disciplines including cognitive neuroscience sociology and psychology Finally it discusses the application of spirituality within the context of social work teaching health care and occupational therapy A final chapter provides an analytical discussion of the different voices that appear in the book and offers a holistic description of spirituality which has the potential to bring some unity to the meaning expression and practice of spirituality across a variety of disciplines as well as across cultural religious and secular worldviews A strength of the book is that each chapter is characterized by a fearless confronting of oppositional perspectives and use of the latest research in addressing them The book takes the difficult topic of spirituality into almost every nook and cranny of personal and professional life There is a persistent grasping of the contentiousness of the topic together with addressing counter positions and utilizing updated research across a range of fields in doing this The opening and closing chapters serve as book ends that keep the whole volume together Terence Lovat The University of Newcastle Australia The interdisciplinary nature of the work is by far the strongest aspect of this volume It has the potential to contribute to a dialogue between different professions and disciplines This prospective publication promises to promote a more holistic approach to the study of spirituality This volume takes into consideration a wide variety of issues The way the editors have structured the sequence of chapters contributes to facilitate any possible dialogue between the different areas Adrian Mario Gellel University of Malta Malta
