Religion In Exile A Spiritual Vision For The Homeward Bound:

Religion in Exile Diarmuid Ó Murchú, 2000 This volume follows on from Diarmuid O Murchu's earlier work Reclaiming Spirituality. He continues to offer insights into the changing and evolving spiritual awareness of our time, one that is rapidly outgrowing the time-honoured but exhausted vision of formal religion. International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion. Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion. One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious, spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle. This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education. The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today. Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious, moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society. As well, it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world. The Religious Life of Dress Lynne Hume, 2013-10-24 From clothing to the painted and scarified nude body through overt public display or esoteric symbols known only to the initiated, dress can convey information about beliefs, faith, identity, power, agency, resistance and fashion. Taking a senses approach, Hume's engaging account takes into consideration the look, smell, feel, touch and sound of religious apparel, the smells and bells of dress and its accoutrements as well as the emotions evoked by donning religious garb. The book's global perspective provides wide-ranging yet detailed coverage of religious dress from the history and meaning of the simple, no-frills attire of the Anabaptists to the power structure displayed in the elaborate fabrics and colours of the Roman Catholic Church. Hume examines the 2,500-year-old tradition of Buddhist robes, the nudity of India's holy men and much more. With chapters on Sufism, Vodou, modern Pagans as well as painted and tattooed indigenous and modern Western bodies, the reader is swept along on a sensual journey of the sight, sound, smell and feel of wearing religion. Unique in its field, this intriguing and informative anthropological approach to the body and dress is an essential read for students of Anthropology, Anthropology of Dress, Sociology, Fashion and Textiles, Culture and Dress, Body and Culture and Cultural Studies. Popular Spiritualities Lynne Hume, 2018-05-08 In our contemporary post-modern world, popular forms of spirituality are increasingly engaging with notions of re-enchantment of self and community. Not only are narratives of re-enchantment appearing in popular culture at the personal and spiritual level but also they are often accompanied by a pragmatic approach that calls for political activism and the desire to change the world to incorporate these new ideas.

Drawing on case studies of particular groups including pagans witches radical faeries post modern tourists and queer and goddess groups contributors from Australia the UK and North America discuss various forms of spirituality and how they contribute to self knowledge identity and community life The book documents an emerging engagement between new quasi religious groups and political action eco paganism post colonial youth culture and alternative health movements to explore how social change emerges The Subjective Eye Richard Valantasis, Deborah J. Haynes, James D. Smith, Janet F.

Carlson, 2006-05-15 One of the great joys of the academic life is to pay homage in a Festschrift to a scholar who has influenced both colleagues and students over years of interaction and friendship both professional and personal This volume honors a scholar and theologian of historical theology a theorist and a practitioner of religion and the arts and a keen analyst of cultural trends both ancient and modern Margaret R Miles's prodigious production as a scholar has legendary qualities Her dozen plus books alone explore history patristics ancient philosophy art and art history spiritual formation and religious practice critical theory film ethics and values personal growth gender and women's studies as well as her true academic loves Augustine and Plotinus The breadth and depth of her own work and her influence upon others demands an expansive volume which the editors of this Festschrift unfortunately had to restrict to four categories Historical Theology Religion and Culture Religion and Gender and Religion and the Visual Arts in order to capture the heart of our appreciation for her from the Introduction Live Happier The Ultimate Life Skill Barrie Hopson, Mike Scally, 2012-08-09 Happiness is suddenly on environmental destruction growing inequality and the persistent poverty afflicting the majority of humans on the planet challenge Christian theorists theologians and ethicists in their pursuit of an ethical vision that is both environmentally sustainable and just for all of creation Too often their visions which start with traditional understandings of the Christian faith prevalent approaches to science or current ethical models are inadequate In Convergent Knowing Simon Appolloni proposes a new framework for ethical deliberation in which the epistemological lines between religion and science are somewhat blurred This framework opens up avenues to explore new paradigms for Christianity science and liberation while addressing interrelated questions not always manifest within the religion science and ethics debates what kind of ethics what kind of science and what kind of Christianity do we need today and tomorrow when the liberation of countless subjects of creation is at stake Exploring and analyzing the work of Rosemary Radford Ruether Leonardo Boff Diarmuid O Murchu and Thomas Berry four Christian ethical thinkers who have borrowed from the natural sciences to unite a liberationist agenda with an environmental ethic Convergent Knowing assists Christian thinkers struggling to integrate science environment liberation and their faith Christian Life and Practice Owen C. Thomas,2009-01-01 This book is a study of the Christian life and the practice of Christians and the church from an Anglican perspective It begins with an analysis and explication of the structure and process of the Christian life before God in the church and the world involving a five fold rule of life and the relation of this to spiritual direction This is followed by an analysis and critique of the current spirituality movement which arose in the 1970s and which has come to dominate and mislead the churches A sequel to the latter explains the origin of the spirituality movement in the current Romantic movement that arose in the 1960s and has influenced all aspects of our culture with ambiguous results Next there is a critique of contemporary parish ministry as practiced in residential parishes that at best ministers only to the private lives of its members followed by a fictional story of such a residential parish that suggests a new departure in parish ministry Then there is a critique of preaching in the Episcopal Church that is generally considered to be poor and a proposal of a way to overcome this The concluding three chapters treat a fundamental problem in our approach to private prayer and a way to resolve this a proposal for a way to overcome the current impasse in the Anglican Communion concerning homosexuality and a meditation on the responsibility of Christians in public life Cosmic Prayer and Guided Transformation Robert Govaerts,2012-08-29 This book presents a realistic and thoroughly spiritual outlook upon the entire created reality It lets us envisage that various created entities are participant in a relationship with God that becomes increasingly one of an intimate personal quality that is a relationship of love It thus invites discernment that the universal reality is valuable in its own right and not only as a good for the use of humanity Drawing mainly upon Scripture ancient writers especially Maximus the Confessor as well as contemporary natural sciences this book encourages the reader to perceive human salvation not as a lifting of humanity out of creation but as a transformation into God s presence in the midst of the wider created order It shows that Christian faith at its best does not exclude the wider creation but provides us with insight and hope for a harmonious being in God that is inclusive of creation It shows that Christian faith can be a resource that helps overcome the ecological crisis Jesus Today Albert Nolan,2006 Working with Bereaved Children and Young People Brenda Mallon,2010-10-20 This book offers a fresh insight into working practices with children and young people who are experiencing the death of a family member friend school peer or in their social network Bridging the gap between theory and practice the book s practical skills focus is informed by the latest research findings on children and young people s experience of grief The wide ranging content includes a comprehensive review of theoretical approaches to bereavement the impact of different types of grief on children working with children who have been bereaved in traumatic circumstances such as through criminal behaviour skills development The list of resources case
