Religion In The Age Of Aids:

Religion in the Age of AIDS, 1999      Religion and AIDS in Africa Jenny Trinitapoli, Alexander Weinreb, 2012-07-09 The first comprehensive empirical account of how religion affects the interpretation prevention and mitigation of AIDS in Africa the world's most religious continent      Christians in the Age of AIDS Shepherd Smith, 1990      The Routledge Handbook of Religions and Global Development Emma Tomalin, 2015-02-11 This Handbook provides a cutting edge survey of the state of research on religions and global development Part one highlights critical debates that have emerged within research on religions and development particularly with respect to theoretical conceptual and methodological considerations from the perspective of development studies and its associated disciplines Parts two to six look at different regional and national development contexts and the place of religion within these These parts integrate and examine the critical debates raised in part one within empirical case studies from a range of religions and regions Different religions are situated within actual locations and case studies thus allowing a detailed and contextual understanding of their relationships to development to emerge Part seven examines the links between some important areas within development policy and practice where religion is now being considered including Faith Based Organisations and Development Public Health Religion and Development Human rights Religion and Development Sustainable Development Climate Change and Religion Global Institutions and Religious Engagement in Development Economic Development and Religion Religion Development and Fragile States Development and Faith Based Education Taking a global approach the Handbook covers Africa Latin America South Asia East and South East Asia and the Middle East It is essential reading for students and researchers in development studies and religious studies and is highly relevant to those working in area studies as well as a range of disciplines from theology anthropology and economics to geography international relations politics and sociology      Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide though the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective      Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa Adriaan van Klinken, Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-14 Issues of same sex relationships and gay and lesbian rights are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today. Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda. In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions. But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them. This is the first book with multidisciplinary perspectives on religion and homosexuality in Africa. It presents case studies from across the continent from Egypt to Zimbabwe and from Senegal to Kenya and covers religious traditions such as Islam, Christianity and Rastafarianism. The contributors explore the role of religion in the politicisation of homosexuality, investigate local and global mobilisations of power, critically examine dominant religious discourses and highlight the emergence of counter discourses. Hence they reveal the crucial yet ambivalent public role of religion in matters of sexuality, social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa. Religion in the Age of Obama Juan M. Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B. Pinn, 2018-08-23 This is the first book to focus on the significance of religion during President Obama's years in the White House. Addressing issues ranging from identity politics, immigration, income inequality, Islamophobia and international affairs, Religion in the Age of Obama explores the religious and moral underpinnings of the Obama presidency and subsequent debates regarding his tenure in the White House. It provides an analysis of Obama's beliefs and their relationship to his vision of public life as well as the way in which the general ethos of religion and non religion has shifted over the past decade in the United States under his presidency. Topics include how Obama has employed religious rhetoric in response to both international and domestic events, his attempt to inhabit a kind of Blackness that comforts and reassures rather than challenges White America, the limits of Christian hospitality within U.S. immigration policy and the racialization of Islam in the U.S. national imagination. Religion in the Age of Obama shows that the years of the Obama presidency served as a watershed moment of significant reorganization of the role of religion in national public life. It is a timely contribution to debates on religion, race and public life in the United States. Religion and AIDS

Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS. Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies, practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other, this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the AIDS epidemic. Spanning different regions of Africa, the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions, religious practices and moralities as they co-evolve in situations of AIDS treatment. This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life-prolonging treatment programmes. The Faith Sector and HIV/AIDS in Botswana Lovemore Togarasei, Fidelis Nkomazana, 2011-01-18 This book is a collection of chapters by seasoned scholars of religion covering the role played by various religions at home in Botswana in the struggle against HIV and AIDS The book is a direct result of field research projects conducted by the authors on the role of religion in a country that once ranked as the worst affected by HIV and AIDS in the world It comprises of twelve chapters that are divided into four parts The first part comprising of three chapters provides a background of the faith sector in Botswana Part II of the book focuses on the Christian religion and comprises of four chapters Part III comprises of three chapters discussing other religious groups apart from Christianity Part IV addresses the role of culture and religion in HIV and AIDS response in Botswana With several attempts to mainstream HIV and AIDS in education both in schools and in tertiary institutions the book serves both the academic and research community at national and international levels It does not serve only those studying religion but all who address issues of HIV and AIDS from whatever field of study

HIV / AIDS Margaret U. D'Silva, Joy L. Hart, 2009-05-05 Stating that HIV AIDS is a colossal public health problem is a vast understatement Its effects extend to all reaches of the globe and its toll is enormous The most recent statistics on HIV infections people living with HIV AIDS and AIDS related deaths are jolting Current realities historical data and future projections clearly indicate that much more action is needed to prevent new infections and curb the effects of HIV AIDS Rather than a single global strategy for HIV AIDS prevention programs must be developed and implemented with an awareness of local regional national and international conditions Our hope for this book is that additional insight into HIV AIDS prevention can be garnered and the ideas generated here will spur new efforts and improve existing ones The chapters in this book explore how health communication researchers and practitioners continue to play critical roles in lessening the spread of HIV and the devastating impacts of HIV AIDS locally regionally and globally The book's three sections general prevention global context and specific contexts address a range of topics Chapters range from formative research to message construction and processing e g difficulties in communicating statistical information understanding risk messages address geographical regions from Africa and Asia to Central America and the Caribbean and examine specific contexts from university students to later life adults as well as African Americans and persons living with HIV AIDS Because there is currently neither a cure for HIV AIDS nor a vaccine to prohibit infection the concluding chapter reinforces the book's main premises behavior change as the key to prevention and health communication work as crucial to achieving such change

The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to African Religions Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2012-03-12 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to African Religions brings together a team of international scholars to create a single volume resource on the religious beliefs and practices of the peoples in Africa Offers broad coverage of issues relating to African religions considering experiences in indigenous Christian and Islamic traditions across the continent Contributors are from a variety of fields ensuring the volume offers multidisciplinary perspectives Explores methodological approaches to religion from anthropological philosophical and historical perspectives Provides insights into the historical developments in African religions as well as contemporary issues such as the development of African initiated churches neo traditional religions and Pentecostalism Discusses important topics at the intersection of culture and religion in Africa including the arts health politics globalization gender relations and the economy

Religious Responses to HIV and AIDS Miguel Munoz-Laboy,Jonathan Garcia,Joyce Moon-Howard,Patrick A. Wilson,Richard Parker,2016-01-08 Religious institutions shaped the ways individuals communities and societies responded to HIV and AIDS since the 1980s This book draws on research studies ranging in context from sites in sub Saharan Africa to New York City in the USA to examine the complexity of responding to the epidemic both globally and locally Religious systems of meaning practices and institutions have been central to the articulation of projects for social change and inversely sometime strongly resistant to change in diverse institutional responses to HIV and AIDS Sometimes religious movements provided powerful forces for community mobilisation in response to the social vulnerability economic exclusion and health problems associated with HIV In other contexts religious cultures have reproduced values and practices that have seriously impeded more effective approaches to mitigate the epidemic By highlighting these complex and sometimes contradictory social processes this book provides new insights about the potential for religious institutions to address the HIV epidemic more effectively More broadly it shows how research can be done on religion in the area of global public health showing how civil society organizations shape opportunities for health promotion a crucial and new area of global public health research This book was originally published as a special issue of Global Public Health

Provoking Religion Anthony Michael Petro,Petro,2025 In the late twentieth century artists were on the front lines of the culture wars Leaders of the Christian Right in the U S made a national spectacle out of feminist and queer art blasting it as sacrilegious or pornographic and sometimes both On the bully pulpits of television and talk radio as well as in the halls of Congress conservatives denounced artists ranging from Robert Mapplethorpe and Judy Chicago to Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz Conservatives alarmed by shifting sex and gender norms collided with progressive artists who were confronting sexism homophobia and racism In Provoking Religion Anthony Petro offers a compelling new history of the culture wars that places competing moralities of gender and sexuality alongside competing visions of the sacred The modern culture wars he shows are best understood not as contests pitting religious conservatives against secular activists but as a series of ongoing historical struggles to define the relationship between the sacred and the political Through captivating case studies of subversive artists Provoking Religion illuminates the underside of the culture wars revealing how progressive artists and activists rendered from those most apparently profane aspects of human life the stuff of conservatives worst nightmares their own haunting visions of the sacred

The Age of Aids Kate Ott,2007      AIDS and American Apocalypticism Thomas Lawrence Long,2012-02-01 Since public discourse about AIDS began in 1981 it has characterized AIDS as an apocalyptic plague a punishment for sin and a sign of the end of the world Christian fundamentalists had already configured the gay male population most visibly affected by AIDS as apocalyptic signifiers or signs of the end times Their discourse grew out of a centuries old American apocalypticism that included images of crisis destruction and ultimate renewal In this book Thomas L Long examines the ways in which gay and AIDS activists artists writers scientists and journalists appropriated this apocalyptic rhetoric in order to mobilize attention to the medical crisis prevent the spread of the disease and treat the HIV infected Using the analytical tools of literary analysis cultural studies performance theory and social semiotics AIDS and American Apocalypticism examines many kinds of discourse including fiction drama performance art demonstration graphics and brochures biomedical publications and journalism and shows that while initially useful the effects of apocalyptic rhetoric in the long term are dangerous Among the important figures in AIDS activism and the arts discussed are David Drake Tim Miller Sarah Schulman and Tony Kushner as well as the organizations ACT UP and Lesbian Avengers

Social Security in Religious Networks Carolin Leutloff-Grandits, Anja Peleikis, Tatjana Thelen, 2009-06-01 During the last decades the world has been facing tremendous political transformations and new risks epidemics such as HIV Aids have had destabilizing effect on the caretaking role of kin in post socialist countries political reforms have made unemployment a new source of insecurity Furthermore the state's withdrawal from providing social security is taking place throughout the world One response to these developments has been increased migration which poses further challenges to kinship based social support systems This innovative volume focuses on the ambiguous role of religious networks in social security and traces the interrelatedness of religious networks and state and family support systems Particularly timely it describes these challenges as well as social security arrangements in the context of globalization and migration The wide range of case studies from various parts of the world that examine various religious groups offers an important comparative contribution to the understanding of religious networks as providers of social security

African Indigenous Religious Traditions in Local and Global Contexts Ogungbile, David O., 2015-09-23 This volume honours one of the great scholars of our era Professor Jacob Olupona Although he has conducted significant portions of his career outside of Nigeria he has not separated himself from his colleagues or from interests in religions in Nigeria and elsewhere in Africa His publications and presentations offer the international scholarly community important critical insights into a range of religious activities life ways and ideas originating in Africans and the African Diaspora In spite of the diversity in the thoughts and opinions expressed and equally of the range of disciplines and topics contained in the book one can say that the contributors have developed a shared concern about the role of African Indigenous Religious Traditions in the processes of development and the context within which it development had or is taking place The book guides us to a deep understanding and appreciation of how Africans in their varied situations grapple with existential problems through philosophical ruminations complex ritual processes cultivated memory and organized coping strategies

Religious Identity and Renewal in the Twenty-first Century Simone Sinn, Michael Reid Trice, 2016-01-14 Religions carry strong visions of renewal and thereby have the potential to trigger dynamics of change in all spheres of human life Religions have contributed to societal transformation and processes of renewal spark intensive theological debates The renewal of religious identity is informed by how religious communities interpret their traditions and past present and future challenges to themselves society and the world at large How do religious communities understand their own resources and criteria for renewal in the twenty first century In this publication Jewish Christian and Muslim scholars analyze and reflect on the meaning and dynamics of religious renewal and explore the meaning of religious renewal across religious traditions

Religiöse Identität und Erneuerung im 21. Jahrhundert Untertitel Jüdische christliche und muslimische Perspektiven Religionen haben klare Vorstellungen von Erneuerung und damit das Potential in allen Sphären menschlichen Lebens Veränderungen einzuleiten Religionen haben schon immer zu gesellschaftlichen Veränderungen beigetragen und Erneuerungsprozesse durch kontroverse theologische Debatten ausgelöst Die Erneuerung religiöser Identität ist abhängig davon wie religiöse Gemeinschaften ihre Traditionen und ihre gegenwärtigen und zukünftigen Herausforderungen für sich selbst die Gesellschaft in der sie leben und die Welt als Ganzes interpretieren Wo sehen religiöse Gemeinschaften ihre eigenen Ressourcen und welches sind die Kriterien für Erneuerungsprozesse im 21. Jahrhundert In dieser Publikation analysieren reflektieren jüdische christliche und muslimische Wissenschaftlerinnen und Wissenschaftler die Bedeutung und Dynamiken religiöser Erneuerung und untersuchen die Bedeutung religiöser Erneuerung in den verschiedenen religiösen Traditionen

Muslim and Catholic Responses to HIV and AIDS in Kenya Timothy James Carey, 2018-09-15 In the capital city of Nairobi Kenya African Catholic and Sunni Muslim leaders addressing HIV and AIDS are faced with a unique challenge On the one hand they are called to attend to the spiritual wellbeing of the infected individual on the other hand they are increasingly charged with serving as the stewards of the physical bodies of those negatively affected by such a physiologically debilitating and social stigmatized disease through certain identifiable interreligious traditions common to both faiths This book explores this development firsthand While conducting fieldwork in Nairobi Carey interviewed Muslim and Catholic leaders working in three areas HIV and AIDS prevention education and destigmatization These recorded observations and accounts help to illustrate that religious officials from within African Catholicism and Sunni Islam are attempting to provide the common interreligious traditions of mercy hospitality and justice in a holistic manner for those living with the virus in the city The research that produced this book involved six weeks of fieldwork during the summer of 2014 to help fill in the interstices between anthropological sociological and ethnographic accounts provided by other leading academics in their respective fields It presumed that religious traditions in Kenya exhibit a susceptibility to culture and context and a practical openness to its social environment which then affords this particular work a unique theological perspective in its attempt to identify and analyze patterns of social behavior and religious organization
