Mammisis of Egypt Ali Abdelhalim Ali, Dagmar Budde, 2023-12-04 Birth Houses Mammisis are important components of late Egyptian temple complexes but have not been investigated in detail since the fundamental study of Francois Daumas published in 1958 In the meantime new archaeological findings as well as re-evaluations of theology and piety in Greco-Roman Egypt have considerably expanded our traditional understanding of these extraordinary buildings Therefore reassessment of phenomena and expanded research approaches need to be undertaken This book presents the printed versions of the lectures given by international Egyptologists at the IFAO in Cairo on March 27-28 2019 as part of the 1st Colloquium on Mammisis of Egypt In the publication criteria and reconsiderations are put up for discussion that can be decisive for the identification and definition of Mammisis The spectrum of topics ranges from theological basics including the significant birth cycle and typical features through historical development and cultic events to the architecture of these temple buildings Special motifs theoretical and iconographic concepts and finally the persistence of certain rites in modern Egypt are also covered One chapter introduces current scientific projects and their methods that are dedicated to selected mammisis or chapels Coptos Deir el Medina Edfu Kom Ombo Philae Bahariya Kellis Jebel Barkal Numerous illustrations complement the contributions They contain new material from excavations that is being published for the first time A Descriptive Bibliography of Allama Muhammad Iqbal (1877-1938) Dieter Taillieu, Francis Laleman, Winand M.

Abraham Among Golems Andrei A. Orlov,2024-10-01 In this insightful book Andrei A Orlov examines the symbolism of the image of God found in early Jewish pseudepigraphical accounts paying special attention to the cultic traditions in the Apocalypse of Abraham The study demonstrates that the Jewish pseudepigrapha transform various biblical characters including Enoch Abraham Jacob Moses and Aseneth into eschatological embodiments of the imago Dei The book argues that these cultic metamorphoses preserve memories of ancient Near Eastern and Egyptian rituals involving the vivification of cultic statues The Apocalypse of Abraham and other early Jewish pseudepigraphical accounts attempt to polemically refashion the concept of cultic statues by envisioning their protagonists as divine representations in the form of the eschatological image of God     Proceedings of the Ninth International Dakhleh Oasis Project Conference Colin A. Hope,Gillian E. Bowen,2020-01-19 This new volume in the Oasis Papers series marks the 40th anniversary of archaeological fieldwork in the Dakhleh Oasis in Egypt s Western Desert under the leadership of Anthony J Mills and

Death and Salvation in Ancient Egypt Jan Assmann, 2011-11-14 Human beings the acclaimed Egyptologist Jan Assmann writes are the animals that have to live with the knowledge of their death and culture is the world they create so they can live with that knowledge In his new book Assmann explores images of death and of death rites in ancient Egypt to provide startling new insights into the particular character of the civilization as a whole Drawing on the unfamiliar genre of the death liturgy he arrives at a remarkably comprehensive view of the religion of death in ancient Egypt Assmann describes in detail nine different images of death death as the body being torn apart as social isolation the notion of the court of the dead the dead body the mummy the soul and ancestral spirit of the dead death as separation and transition as homecoming and as secret Death and Salvation in Ancient Egypt also includes a fascinating discussion of rites that reflect beliefs about death through language and ritual

Social Aspects of Funerary Culture in the Egy[p]tian Old and Middle Kingdoms Harco Willems, 2001 Although Egyptian tombs and funerary texts have been intensively studied attention has been focused on art historical aspects archaeological documentation and theological content Attention for the relationship between burial practices and society has been restricted The symposium of which this volume presents the proceedings is an attempt to show the scientific potential of the sociology of burial The underlying philosophy is that both archaeological and textual sources are ultimately reflections of one social reality Therefore the volume offers contributions by archaeologists and philologists many of which frequently bridge the gap between the two disciplines Bourriau studies the evolution of body position in burials dating between the late Middle Kingdom and early New Kingdom Delrue reviews a recent interpretation of the predynastic cemetery N7000 at Naga ed Deir Fitzenreiter studies the sociological background of ritual scenes in Old Kingdom mastabas Frandsen's analysis touches upon funerary texts touching on substances inside the body which are considered bwt taboo The point of departure for Muller's study is a group of offering deposits at Tell el dab a which are studied in the light of textual information on ritual practice Seidlmayer argues that burial contexts of the First Intermediate Period at Elephantine reflect the same underlying ideas as contemporary tomb scenes Willems commentary of Coffin Texts spells 30 41 interprets these texts as a coherent mortuary liturgy and discusses the context in which the letters to the dead were transmitted to the deceased
