Religions Encountering People Of Other Faiths:

Encountering Other Faiths Maria Hornung, 2008 An examination of the imperative of interreligious dialogue within the world and within the United States an introduction to both individuals and study groups to the exciting and necessary enterprise in its several modalities Encounters of the Children of Abraham from Ancient to Modern Times Antii Laato, Pekka Lindqvist, 2010-09-14 The 16 contributions to this volume written by scholars from various fields of religious studies lead the reader to comprehend the plurality of interreligious encounters hostile yet also peaceful between the Children of Abraham i e Judaism Christianity and Islam World Christianity Encounters World Religions Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2018-10-23 Synthesizing the thinking of the most prominent scholars Professor Edmund Chia discusses practically everything that should be known about Christianity's encounter with other religions in this comprehensive book Topics include the invention of the idea of World Religions and World Christianity the Bible and the church's attitude toward other faiths Vatican II Asian Christianity and interfaith dialogue the what why when and how of dialogue the global ecumenical movement theologies of religious pluralism cross textual hermeneutics comparative theology interfaith worship religious syncretism multiple religious belonging interfaith learning in seminaries Tillich and World Religions Robison B. James, 2003 The importance of Paul Tillich for understanding not only Christian faith but all religious systems is still being realized Tillich is widely recognized as the theologian of the modern age or as many would have it the postmodern age For a new age of preoccupation with interreligious encounters wherein tolerance may be the watchword but the quest for truth and faith maintains Robison James reintroduces Tillich as an effective pedagogue for dealing with such encounters and for discovering in the clamor of so many noisy insistent religious systems a voice of truth James has reread Tillich with the specific purpose of discovering how we may deal with the many kinds of interreligious encounters that have been growing in frequency and importance Such encounters James points out range from reading about another religion to visiting the other's observances to dialogue with its members to simply puzzling over how my faith or nonfaith relates to this or that religion Tillich's lifelong existential encounter with religious systems and his perceptive appraisal of those systems James concludes can lead us to the best attitude for our own quest for a way of faith and life among so many ways clamoring for our attention Tillich's theology James suggests may best be understood as a synthesis of dialectics and paradox Further James contends the attitude most characteristic of Tillich's thought reciprocal inclusivism is to be recommended as the best attitude for our own quest for the word of truth among so many noisy voices Religions and Dialogue Wolfram Weiße, Katajun Amirpur, Anna Körs, Dörthe Vieregge, 2014 Responding to plurality is a demanding task Nonetheless it is one of the challenges that European countries are facing today Over the past decades the social and religious make up of Central Europe has changed and this has led to resentment and fears of mass immigration social disintegration and the emergence of parallel societies However we also find empirical proof that prejudice is lowest where there is direct contact Therefore there appears to be an increasing need for more dialogue in order to make the stranger less strange the unknown known the other no longer entirely other This is equally true in academic research There is a definite need yet research on questions of interreligious dialogue remains in its infancy throughout the various disciplines engaged in it The project Religion and Dialogue in Modern Societies ReDi that started at the Academy of World Religions at the Hamburg University in 2011 seeks to contribute to remedying this deficit Like the ReDi Project this book looks at dialogue from different perspectives It includes both theoretical and empirical approaches as well as a variety of theological viewpoints on a theology of plurality and dialogue from the perspective of different religions

African Traditional Religion Encounters Christianity John Chitakure, 2017-11-07 Right from the beginning of humankind God has never deprived a people of his grace and revelation In fact God uses people's environment and culture to communicate his will There is no single religion that can claim to have the exclusive possession of God's revelation for God is too immense to be confined within one faith Hence it was erroneous blasphemous and misleading for some of the early Christian missionaries to Africa to claim that they had brought God to Africa a mentality that implied the non existence of God in Africa before their arrival Of course God was already in Africa but the missionaries either failed to discern his presence or just disregarded the traces of his existence This book explores the religious beliefs practices and values of the indigenous people of Africa at the time of the early missionaries arrival with particular reference to the Shona people of Zimbabwe It also evaluates the extent of the missionaries' successes and challenges in converting Africans to Christianity It finally surveys how African Christians have remained attached to the indigenous religious beliefs that used to provide answers to their existential questions

Jamaica in the 21st Century Livingstone Thompson, 2016-11-16 When we forget we run the risk of reinventing the wheel Jamaica in the 21st Century Revisiting the 1st Decade is a challenge and a reminder lest we forget what ground has been covered in Jamaica's social political and religious life particularly at the onset of the 21st century Trawling through public discourse and debates in Jamaica the book distills and surfaces the main issues that captured the attention of the public gambling homosexuality and human sexuality education crime violence the church and politics to name a few Many of the issues that preoccupy us at this time are issues that have been addressed before It might be of use to familiarise ourselves with the earlier discussion This book then is a sort of archaeological and socio historical enterprise designed to aid memory and if possible to help us see the progress we have made and avoid reinvention of the wheel

Encounters for Change Dagmar

Grefe,2011-11-14 Weaving together insights from social psychology theology and experiences of interfaith religious leaders

Dagmar Grefe develops practical strategies that support interreligious contact at a grassroots level. She shows that by working together religious communities can more effectively address global and local problems that all people face: poverty, environmental destruction and armed conflict. Grefe describes interreligious cooperation at work in local communities. She develops tools that equip religious leaders with the interreligious competence needed for spiritual care and counseling with individual persons in crisis. Cooperation is not only effective in the care for communities and persons in crisis; it also heals distant and strained interreligious relationships. In the process of working together, perceptions of each other can transform.

A Trinitarian Theology of Religions Gerald R. McDermott, Harold A. Netland, 2014-04-17. Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies. Over the last four decades, evangelical scholars have shown growing interest in Christian debates over other religions, seeking answers to essential questions: How are we to think about and relate to other religions? Be open to the Spirit and at the same time remain evangelical and orthodox. Gerald R. McDermott and Harold A. Netland offer critiques of a variety of theologians and religious studies scholars, including evangelicals, but also challenge evangelicals to move beyond parochial positions. This volume is both a manifesto and a research program, critically evaluating the last forty years of Christian treatments of religious others and proposing a comprehensive direction for the future. It addresses issues relating to the religions in both systematic theology and missiology, taking up long debated questions such as contextualization, salvation, revelation, the relationship between culture and religion, conversion, social action, and ecumenism. It concludes with responses from four leading thinkers of African, Asian, and European backgrounds: Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, Vinod Ramachandra Lamin, Sanneh, and Christine Schirrmacher.

Globalisation Volume 2 Allan Boesak, Len Hansen, 2010-09-01. In the course of three years, the Globalisation Project has gathered experts from a variety of disciplines to reflect together on globalisation: its origins, its manifestations, and consequences, particularly for the Christian religion and for Christian churches today. This second volume on this theme in the Beyers Naudé Series also represents a selection of papers that were presented at consultations of the Joint Project in this case during those held at Stellenbosch and Emden, Germany, in 2009.

Judaism and World Religions A. Brill, 2012-02-14. Provides the first extensive collection of traditional and academic Jewish approaches to the religions of the world, focusing on those Jewish thinkers that actually encounter the other world religions; that is, it moves beyond the theory of inclusive/exclusive pluralistic categories and looks at Judaism's interactions with other faiths.

Rules for Rulers Who Do Not Know the Rules Glen R. Cook, 2023-05-15. The volume is over one thousand line items, paragraphs of lessons learned the hard way and a collection of knowledge lessons in hard choices that will hopefully help the reader in avoiding making the same or similar mistakes or learn how somebody else resolved a problem.
